NEWBORO.
 March 11.—The contract for the completion of section 7 and 8 of the Brockville and Westport and Sault St. Marie RR., has been let to Messrs. Knott and Lewis of this place. Many will feel pleased at this announcement as there was so much dissatisfaction financially last year. This leaves a pretty good bottom and no fear but parties working will get their pay on those sections.

POINT ROAD.
 March 16.—On Friday while Mr. and Miss Mullin, of Brewer's Mills, were driving home from the city their horse ran away throwing them out; no serious injuries.—Mr. Milton is making preparations to build a stone house next summer, and a barn also.—Mr. Anderson lost a valuable horse last week.—Ice boating is good on the bay.—J.  March 14.—The salvation army has made several attacks on the enemy here. Its meetings are largely attended and no doubt they will have a beneficial result.—A large bear has been seen recently. Dr. Wright put five stitches in it. He is doing as well as could be expected.—We were sorry to hear the demise of the daughter of the Rev. Mr. Simpson.

SINGLETON'S CORNERS.
 March 17.—A most interesting social event occurred on March 1st, at 8 a.m., in the Forfar Methodist church. Edward A. Pierce, of Delta, was united to one of our most popular young ladies, Hattie, youngest daughter of John Singleton, by Rev. Mr. Tennant, of Newport. The bride, who was presented by her brother, Homer A. Singleton, was attired in golden brown satin, and carried a bouquet of natural flowers. Miss Maggie Singleton, of Lyndhurst, dressed in garnet satin, and Miss Julia Myers, of Forfar, dressed in black silk, were bridesmaids. The bride and bridesmaids wore white tulle veils and wreaths of orange blossoms. The groom was attended by Gordon Brown, of Delta, and Ormond Brown, of Portland. The wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's father and breakfasted. Then the party drove to Lyndhurst to witness the marriage of the bride's brother, Homer A. Singleton, to Miss Sara Sheffield. After the repast at Mr. Sheffield's, they drove to Brockville to take the train for Niagara. The bride was presented with many valuable presents.

LYNDHURST.
 March 17.—At St. Luke's church, on March 1st, at 11 a.m., Sara, eldest daughter of Francis Sheffield, was united to Homer A. Singleton, of Singleton Corners, before a large assemblage of friends and relatives. Rev. F. Codd officiated, assisted by the Revs. Mr. Ausburne. The bride, who was attired in a beautiful brown satin, was assisted by Miss Richards, of Farmersville, also dressed in brown satin. The bride wore a veil of orange blossoms.
