ST. JACOBS OIL
THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY WILL SURELY CONQUER PAIN!
Anywhere and Everywhere.
RHEUMATISM KILLED.

Suffered 40 Years and Cured.
N. Albany St., Ithaca, N.Y., U.S.A.
For over forty years I have been a victim of rheumatism. I was persuaded to try St. Jacobs Oil. I have used two bottles and a man free from rheumatism never walked our streets. My limbs are now as light and limber as in my youth.
JOS. EDSELL.

Did Not Walk for 15 Years.
Mrs. George A. Clarke, St. Catharines, Ontario, states: "I had rheumatism and dropsy, and did not walk for 15 years. I tried eminent physicians and celebrated springs. My case was thought incurable. I was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil. Its effects were simply wonderful. I have the use of my limbs and think it the best remedy in the world."

Suffered 30 Years and Cured.
Bangor, Maine, U.S.A.
Mr. Frank Durgen, who works at Madden's Harness Shop, 127 Exchange Street, said: "My father, who lives at 47 York Street, has suffered with rheumatism and erysipelas in his feet every winter but this, for the past thirty years. He has employed the best physicians and tried all the known remedies for such diseases but received no benefit until last winter, at which time his feet and the lower part of his legs were swollen to four times their natural size. He applied St. Jacobs Oil to the afflicted parts and was cured."

Suffered 30 Years—Cured.
Mr. William Howes, civil engineer, Red Lion Street, High Holborn, London, England, was afflicted with rheumatism for 30 years. Sometimes his hands would swell to twice their natural size; his joints were so stiff that he could not walk, and his feet so sore that he could not bear any weight on them. Nothing relieved him till he applied St. Jacobs Oil. The result was marvelous. Before using two bottles all pain left and he is now cured.

ST. JACOBS OIL is sold by Chemists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the Dominion of Canada. Price fifty cents per bottle. The Charles A. Vogeler Co., Baltimore, Md., U.S.A. Canadian Branch, 84 York Street, Toronto, Canada.

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE.

Up Stairs, Down Stairs, in the Kitchen and in the Lady's Parlor.
Ladies who entertain are constantly on the alert to introduce pleasing surprises for their guests. An instance at hand is that of the hostess who introduced an additional course at a ladies' luncheon party, directly after dessert. This course consisted of fresh Paxma violets in a rock crystal bowl, from which each guest helped herself to a bunch of the fragrant flowers. A side dish of silver pins accompanied this course of flowers, which enabled the latter to be worn as a corsage bouquet.

How to Make and Drink Tea.
A Chinese writer in giving American tea drinkers some advice in regard to tea, recommends the use of a china or porcelain pot. If you use metal, let it be tin, new, bright and clean; never use it when the tin is used out and the iron exposed. If you do, you are playing chemist and forming a tonate or tea-ate of iron. Use black tea. Green tea when good is kept at home. What goes abroad is bad, very bad. Besides containing the 203 adulterations the Chinese philanthropist puts up for the outside barbarian, it is always pervaded by copper dust from the dirty curving pans of the growers. Infuse your tea. Don't boil it. Place one teaspoonful of tea in the pot and pour over it one and one-half cups of boiling water—that is, water that is really boiling. Put the pot on the back of the stove, carefully covered, so that it shall not lose its heat and the tea its bouquet. Let it remain there five minutes, then drink it. Drink tea plain. Tea brokers, tea tasters and epicures never add milk or sugar; the Chinese never do. Mixing milk with tea makes a turbid liquid. This turbidity is tenate of fibrin or leather. People who put milk in tea, are therefore drinking boots and shoes in mild disguise.

A Decorative Lamp Shade.
The illustration here presented furnishes a model that can be readily copied by any ingenious housewife.

LAMP SHADE WITH INLAID FLOWERS.
The shade represented is trimmed with a frill of lace and bows of satin ribbon. It is composed of five single parts or sections, each ornamented with a different bouquet or spray of flowers cut out of cretonne and gummed on a piece of stiff white net. This is covered over with pink muslin. The stuff layers are next buttonholed over each other with pink silk and the separate parts of the shade sewed together. One seam is left half open that the shade may be slipped over the lamp glass and is closed above with a bow.

Salted Almonds.
Salted almonds, so largely eaten now among fashionable folks, as an appetizing relish, may be prepared as follows: Shell the almonds and blanch by throwing them into boiling water and leaving them there, covered for half an hour, or until the skins will slip off easily. Skin and spread them out to dry for several hours. Put a good piece of butter into a hot dripping pan, and as it warms stir the almonds over and over in it to coat them with the butter. Set in oven and roast, stirring them often, until they begin to color faintly. Take them out, shake in a colander to rid of grease, spread on a dish and strew with fine, dry salt, stirring them about, that each nut may have its share. Eat cold. They are charmingly appetizing. Avoid the danger of getting the almonds too brown, and on the other hand of putting them into the oven before they are dry enough.

A Broom to Housekeepers.
Carpet sweepers, as now made, are so light and easily handled that they may be rolled back and forth by a child or a person too delicate to wield a broom. The rotating brush that gathers up the dirt and the pans that receive it being encased in a box, almost no dust whatever rises, and subsequent brushing or wiping up of furniture and woodwork on account of its use is unnecessary. All the dust and dirt is deposited in the case, instead of being stirred up, only to settle again on carpets and furniture, which is always true, in part, when a broom is used. Neither is the carpet sweeper brush as wearing to carpets as a broom. A good carpet sweeper is invaluable to the housekeeper who studies to do her work at once easily and well, and its price, fortunately, is not large.

White Coconut Cake.
Whites of five eggs, one and a half cupfuls of sugar, piece of butter the size of an egg, three level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of lemon flavoring, two-thirds of a cupful of new milk, flour to form a thin batter, one coconut grated; beat the eggs to a stiff froth and add to the butter and sugar that has been creamed; sieve the baking powder through the flour, add the milk, flavoring and sufficient flour for not too stiff a batter to spread smoothly upon the tins; after they are baked, spread the layers with icing and powder thickly with coconut; then place together, having a layer upon the top of coconut.

When to Water House Plants.
A gardener gives the following rules for answering the oft repeated question: "How can I tell when house plants need watering?" 1. By the appearance of the soil or feeling it with the finger. If dust can be worked up it needs water. 2. By tapping the pot with the knuckles. The pot has a sharp, hollow sound or "ring" when the earth is dry, and a heavy, "thudding" sound when moist. 3. By lifting the pots and testing their weight, wet soil, of course, being much heavier than dry.

Batter for Fruit Fritters.
Ingredients for a batter with which to make peach, apricot, apple or other fruit fritters consist of one pint of milk, three eggs, a little salt and a pint of flour and a teaspoonful of baking powder. Beat the eggs, add part of the milk and salt, then flour and milk alternately, beating quickly and cooking immediately in boiling hot lard.

Household Hints.
To clean willow furniture use salt and water. Apply it with a nail brush, scrub well and dry thoroughly.
Turkey salad, made with celery and good oil, is held by many to equal that made of chicken.
Silver plated bonbon trays with tongs have been introduced at the fashionable luncheon
