GETTING READY FOR ACTION.

Motions to Come Up in the House of Commons—The Irish Feeling.

LONDON, March 22.—A. J. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, intimated in the house of commons that the government would to-day introduce a bill making better provision for the prevention and punishment of crime in Ireland.

W. H. Smith, first lord of the treasury, gave notice that the government would move an amendment to the government's motion, to the effect that the "house declines to set aside business in favor of a measure increasing the stringency of the law in Ireland, whilst no effective security is taken against the abuse of the law by the exaction of excessive rents." Mr. Morley's notice was received with loud cheers by the Irish members.

Sir James Ferguson, under foreign secretary, said that he hoped to lay before the house before the Easter recess a despatch from the United States government relating to the fisheries dispute.

Mr. Smith's motion for urgency for the coercion bill will be opposed to the uttermost by the combined strength of the Gladstonians and the Parnellites.

The Gladstonians greeted with derisive laughter Mr. Smith's statement that he hoped to reach the second reading of the bill on Monday.

The Irish conservatives will raise a question why Father Keller is allowed special privileges in Kilmainham jail. He provides his own food and, has a servant, and his friends have free access to him, and Dr. Kenny, medical officer of the national league, has applied to be allowed to attend Father Keller and to supply him with champagne if his health requires it. The conservatives will insist that the prisoner be treated according to the rules as a first-class misdemeanant.

The Parnellites are gratified at Mr. Morley's amendment, and heartily approve it. The amendment was drafted last week by Morley, Harcourt and Gladstone, with the view of embarrassing the radical unionists, some of whom the conservatives admit may possibly abstain from voting. Lord Hartington is aware of the government's plans, and has approved them. He will doubtless carry the bulk of his followers with him. The debate on Mr. Morley amendment will last several nights, and it is certain that Mr. Gladstone will speak. It is the present intention of the Parnellites and a large section of the Gladstonians to oppose the coercion bill at every stage, even to force a division on the formal motion for permission to introduce the bill. All the parties have issued urgent whips.

LONDON, March 22, (6 a.m.)—The house of commons has been sitting all night and is still in session. The government have been trying to dispose of the naval and civil service bills, but the home rule members, by obstruction, have prevented any action being taken. Two hundred and sixty members are present. There is no prospect of an adjournment.

LONDON, March 22, (8 a.m.)—The house of commons is still in committee of supply. Mr. Raikes, postmaster general, relieved Mr. Courtney, chairman of the committee in the chair. During the discussion of the civil service vote, because the proceedings were farcical, Tanner, member for Cork, informed the chair that a fresh batch of eloquent Parnellites would arrive on the 6 a.m. train to reinforce the opposition vote. There is no likelihood that the house will rise before midday, as Mr. Smith, government leader, declared that the civil service bill must be passed before the adjournment takes place.

The bill is passed and the house adjourned.

THE HALE OLD EMPEROR.

GREAT FESTIVITIES IN PROGRESS THROUGHOUT GERMANY.

Berlin Full of Strangers and Gorgeous in its Decorations—Pardons for Prisoners—The Students Making Merry—Scenes at the Imperial Palace at Night.

BERLIN, March 22.—Emperor William's birthday festivities virtually began yesterday, many societies and clubs throughout Germany holding re-unions in honor of the occasion. The concourse in front of the emperor's palace here to-day was even greater than that of yesterday, and there was a similar enthusiastic demonstration. The day was observed as a general holiday, and the streets thronged with people watching the completion of the decorations. All the thoroughfares are gorgeous with flags and floral designs. The Prince of Wales, Archduke Rudolph and Grand Duke Vladimir were especially ovated.

Among the latest arrivals are the King and Queen of Roumania, the Crown Prince of Denmark, the King and Queen of Saxony, and Prince Louis of Bavaria. The emperor, in the afternoon, gave a special audience to foreign envoys. Count Herbert Bismarck officiated at the reception. This was the only official reception of the day. Afterward there was a state dinner to royalties. It is reported that many pardons will be announced, and civil and military honors conferred. Dr. Lauer, the body physician of the emperor, will receive 300,000 marks, with a statement recognizing his efficient services. The Berlin municipality will give 300,000 marks to the William and Augusta benevolent institute.

The emperor will receive, to-morrow, the municipal delegates appointed to present the donation.

BERLIN, March 22.—This evening between 3,000 and 4,000 students, bearing flags, banners and torches, formed in procession and marched to the palace, where the emperor and empress appeared at the window. President Movenek, of the students' committee, called for cheers for the emperor. The applause was tremendous, and was followed by the singing of the national anthem, the emperor remaining standing and bowing. The Prince of Wales paid his first visit to their majesties to-day.

Enormous crowds gathered at the imperial palace to watch the events. At night-fall all the streets and squares in the vicinity of the palace were packed with spectators standing twenty rows deep on each side. Suddenly a blaze of light ran along the front of the building, and gleams of flame shot from the stars and crowns decorating the front facade. Then the scene changed, and a deep rose-colored light shone out from the gardens and flooded the whole building. Presently the procession was seen approaching in silence. The students marched five abreast. They were attired in picturesque dress, and carried a bare sword in one hand and a torch in the other. While the procession of students was passing the palace the multitude bared their heads and the cheers became wilder and wilder until the emperor, overcome with emotion, was compelled to withdraw.

A LOT OF REPORTS.

BERLIN, March 22.—Among the numerous birthday rumors are the reports that the Grand Duke of Baden will be made King of Baden, and that Bismarck will be created Duke of Lauenburg.

Prince Bismarck will give a dinner to the ambassadors and diplomats, the foreign officials and other imperial secretaries and their chief officials.

Yesterday most of the schools celebrated the event in advance with speeches and recitations. Each child received a portrait and short biography of the emperor.

AN OVATION TO BISMARCK.

The students cheered loudly at Prince Bismarck's palace where the chancellor, Count Herbert Bismarck, and Count Rantzau, were awaiting their procession. In response to the calls of the students Prince Bismarck opened the window and bowed his thanks. A similar ovation was tendered to Gen. Von Moltke at the offices of the general staff.

During the procession the emperor called up several students to express his gratification at their manner of congratulating him. He said he rejoiced greatly in the spirit displayed by them, and that he expected much from the academic youth of Germany as the circumstances and times were serious. He questioned many students, separately, regarding their birth place, the studies they pursued, the number of terms they had completed, and the corporations to which they belonged. The empress also expressed her thanks for the ovation.

HARD TO SATISFY.

At 11 o'clock, when a cuirassiers' regiment came to relieve the guard at the palace, thousands still remained and burst into enthusiastic cheering, which continued so long that at last the emperor came to the window and again thanked the people. His appearance had a magic effect. The cheers redoubled, and the national anthem was again sung. The emperor waved his hand and disappeared. At a late hour crowds still remained in the vicinity of the palace.

Gen. Brandenburg, the emperor's adjutant, and Col. Jagow, commander of the Blucher Hussars, the Crown Prince's Prussian regiment, are in attendance upon the Prince of Wales.

THE NEW DAY'S EVENT.

The trumpeters of the 2nd Uhlan regiment which is on guard at the palace, inaugurated the rejoicing at 6 o'clock this morning by playing hymns from the copula of the old palace chapel. The garrison will attend divine service at 10 o'clock, and the municipal authorities at noon.

The emperor's health is good. He began to receive his guests at 11 o'clock in the morning and appeared at his favorite window in the palace overlooking the street, as often as he could find time to do so to respond to the cheers of the people who passed by in thousands to get a glimpse of him.

Putting It To Him Now.

LONDON, March 21.—Col. Sandorval, who was charged with hiring and fitting out with munitions of war the steamer Justicia in the interests of the rebels during the insurrection in Venezuela, in 1855, and who was arrested under the foreign enlistment act, has been found guilty and sentenced to a month's imprisonment as a first class misdemeanant and fined $2,500.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The Business Considered at the Session Held Last Evening.

A regular meeting of the city council was held last evening. The following were present: Mayor Carson, Alds. Drennan, Downing, Hiscock, Hobart, Muckleston, McGuire, McIntyre, Phelan, Redden, Rees, C. Robinson, Shannon, Smith, Snowden, Thompson, Wilmot, and Wilson.

The minutes of the last meeting were confirmed.

A communication was read from the Y.W.C.A., asking for the appointment of a police matron.—Referred to the license commissioners.

From A. Dorenwend, hair manufacturer, again asking for the remission of his license fee or a reduction.—Referred to the license committee.

From Britton & Whiting, asking that a remission of taxes, to the late Dr. Agnew, be paid to the widow without letters of administration being taken out. Referred to the finance committee.

From the K. & P. R. company, asking permission to erect a building against the west wall of the fire engine station.—Referred to the committees on city property and fire, water and gas.

From the Women's Guild of St. Paul's church, asking for a remission of the rent of the city hall, used on a recent occasion.—Referred to the committee on city property.

PRESENTING PETITIONS.

Ald. Drennan—From John Leimann, asking to be recouped for the loss of a horse while in service at a recent fire.—Referred to the committee on fire, water and gas.

Ald. C. Robinson—From the knights of labour, asking for a refund of the rent of the city hall used on a recent occasion for a free lecture.—Referred to the committee on city property.

A large number of petitions regarding taxes were referred to the court of revision.

THE NUISANCE GROUND.

A communication was read from Britton & Whiting, calling attention to the nuisance ground, and on behalf of Mr. I. A. Breck and others, demanding its removal or actions would be entered. The grounds should be beyond the city limits. A case was known where a man was prevented from buying a lot and building upon it because of the nuisance in the locality.

D. McIntyre, on behalf of J. H. Metcalfe, M.P.P., protested against the city nuisance ground. The health and well-being of residents in the locality had been seriously affected. The nuisance has been endured until patience has ceased to be a virtue. Legal steps will be taken (if further inaction occurs) to lease or remove the evil.

W. S. Gordon, city commissioner, announced that the lease of the nuisance ground expires on April 1st, and in view of the city becoming settled in the locality where it is situated it is imperative that a change should occur, or a better plan, as to the disposal of nuisance, be adopted. The matter should be dealt with in such a manner that all annoyance and danger to the health arising from the disposal of refuse may be entirely removed, which is not possible under present circumstances. The commissioner suggested, in the interest of the public health, that garbage, earth kitchen refuse and the contents of dry earth closets should be regularly collected and disposed of in a systematic manner. To insure this, a person or persons should be appointed by law with the duties and charges for the work defined. Then the city officials would have proper control of the work.

Ald. Thompson and McIntyre entered protests against the condition of the nuisance ground. It was in a disgraceful condition and immediate remedies should follow.

The mayor said that steps were being taken to secure new grounds in the county, and that fifty bushels of lime had been distributed over the refuse now on the grounds. No further deposits of nuisance would be allowed to be made on the old grounds. The communications were referred to the committee on city property and the board of health.

RECEIVING THE REPORTS.

Ald. Shannon presented the finance report recommending the payment of the following accounts: Pay list ending March 16th, $636.17; McMahon Bros., streets, $101.80; Davidson & Doran, sundries, $21.45; Charles Biddle, drains, $32.50; Thomas Matthews, drain, $33.70; Mrs. Leadbetter, fire department, $18; deputation to Ottawa, $40.—Adopted.

Ald. Thompson presented the report of the streets committee recommending that the terms of the following be accepted: Lumber, sleepers and blocks, A. Caldwell & Son; hardware, etc., Lewis Bros.; smith work, D. McEwen & Son; carting, Edward McFadden and Patrick C. Aiken; that the city solicitor execute contracts with the tenderers; that the petition of John McKee, asking for damages for injuries received through a loose plank, be laid over until the return of the city engineer.—Adopted.

Ald. Hiscock presented the report of the committee on city property, recommending the purchase of suitable bedsteads, mattresses and bedding for the police department; that the council consider the propriety of converting two of the north-west stalls in the shambles into a weigh house and to have the present one removed.—Adopted, though objection was taken to the clause regarding a weigh house, that matter belonging to the matter committee.

Ald. McGuire presented the report of the committee on licenses recommending that the license fee on the roller rink be remitted, the books of the proprietor showing that the rink was run at a considerable loss.—Adopted.

Ald. Wilson presented the report of the committee on wharves and harbours recommending that a by-law be introduced to establish a harbour line in the northern harbour, and that a sketch of the shoals in and approaching the harbour be procured for the information of the department of marine and fisheries.—Adopted.

"Great Oaks From Little Acorns Grow." And great benefits ensue from the use of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets"—tiny, sugar-coated granules—which obviate the necessity of choking and "gagging" in the attempt to swallow some huge bolus of uninviting aspect and disagreeable effect. Their cathartic action is thorough, yet perfectly gentle, and, unlike other pills, they never react towards constipation. In cases of sick-headache, and as a promoter of digestion, they are unsurpassed. Sold by all druggists.

The license commissioners are asked to appoint a police matron.
