A high government official, who is well informed about the attitude of the president and cabinet on this subject, declares that the ac tion of congress is looked upon by Mr. Cleveland and his official advisers as hasty and impulsive and ridiculously inconsistent with the ability of the government to give effect to the aggressive spirit of the act. He says it is apparent from this out-cropping, as in fact has been quite apparent all along, that the letter of Secretary Manning, and

The correspondent adds: "It is expected that American fishermen will be treated more brutally in Canadian ports this summer than they were last year, because the dominion officials are irritated by the hostility of congress, and because they have the support of the home govern-ment, which makes them much stronger than the States from the fighting stand point."

What ground the World's correspondent has for arriving at the conclusion embodied in the above quotation we cannot surmise. Though not wholly approving of the course pursued by our government in its treatment of this question, we fail to see that the American fishermen were to be treated more leniently yet with a firmness sufficient to demonstrate that the interests of the country were not to be trifled with. The fishermen have provoked all the hostility that they have had shown to them. They would take risks which they had no reason to take, and they have suffered just such annoyances and losses as their unwarrantable intrusion merited. They were not handled brutally so far as present evidence shows, and they have no occasion to expect it. But until there is a solution of the difficulties they must respect Canadian authority. Only that and nothing more. Its a case of might against right, with all the influences that make for success on the side of the latter.

POLICE COURT-WEDNESDAY.

Cases Before the Magistrate-Mrs. Davis Charged With Keeping a Bagnio.

Officer Burnett brought Zachariah Wolf, of Amherst Island, to the city yesterday. This morning he was charged with fraud.
It appears that he sold a horse to Peter Lawless which had not turned out as good an animal as it was represented it to be. Case adjourned.

Charles Smith, drunkenness, dismissed. Amelia Davis, an elderly lady, charged with keeping a disorderly house. She plead ed "not guilty." Beside her sat her daughter, Mrs. George Staley, a handsome one, on whom the "gods" kept their eyes. Sergt.
Nesbitt stated that owing to several complaints having been made at the police station by citizens about Mrs. Davis house he and Officer Small had visited it between 11 and 12 p.m. They found Mrs. Davis and a young man in it. He knew nothing personally of its character. Case adjourned until Monday. The young man and woman were charged with being inmates of a disorderly house. They pleaded "not guilty." Trials set down for Faster Monday.

Two young men, intoxicated and fighting on Princess street, were fined $20 and costs each. Evidence was heard in the case of W. Riley and T. Clark, supposed to have stolen goods from Mrs. Dandy, at the G. T. R. depot, on Monday evening. One of the witnesses, Mr. Sweetman, saw Riley at the depot on the night in question. He did not see Riley take part in the robbery. He did not see Clark at all. Officer Snodden said Riley had told him that Clark had assisted in the robbery. Clark stated that he had witnesses to prove that he was not away from his home on Mcnday evening. Case adjourned until Tuesday morning.

MUNKACSY'S "CHRIST BEFORE PILATE."

Just published a faithful copy of M. DE MUN KACSY'S great picture "CHRIST BEFORE PH.

ATE," which has just been sold for over One Hundred Thousand Dollars, in a fine steel plate engraving, done in line and stipple, measuring 22x28 inches, which, though a Five Dollar print.
they have decided to sell at the extremely low price of One Dollar and Twenty-Five Cents a copy, so as to bring the picture within the reach of thousands and tens of thousands who reach of thousands and tens of thousands who cannot see or own the original. The original painting was painted five years ago by the great Hungarian artist, Munkacsy, as the supreme effort of his life and art in dealing in the spirit of realism with a sacred subject, and is one of the most remarkable and greatest pictures ever painted. The subject is treated with unflinching realism. Pilate sitting on the right on his judgment seat, his head bent in a questioning attitude, with Christ standing before him, the figure of a young man with a strong Hebraic cast of features. One conspicuous figure is that of a Jew shouting "Crucify Him," with uplifted arms, in the dense mob which throngs the palace yard, and presses upon the Roman soldiers, one of whom is holding the crowd back with his spear. Below the place where Pilate sits are the accusing priests and other Judgeans, while the whole picture touches the popular heart in a way that is simply wonderful. It is the greatest and most impressive religious picture ever painted, and people of all denominations should get a copy of it at once at the low price it is published at. It has already been viewed by over two million persons, and is now on exhibition in New York city, where it is visited by thousands daily. Every family in the land should get or send for a copy of this great picture at once. Also published impressions of it on India Proof Paper, size 24x33 inches, price Two Dollars and Fifty Cents.
