QUEEN'S COUNTY CASE.

THE GOVERNMENT WILL STICK TO THE MINORITY CANDIDATE.

A Decision Without Precedent in English History—Mr. Mackenzie Suggests That Parliament Apologize to the Returning Officer for Questioning his Decision—Asked to Appear at the House.

OTTAWA, May 6.—The committee on privileges and elections met at 10 o'clock this morning; Mr. Gironard in the chair. Mr. Hall presented the report of the sub-committee, showing the cases in the English and Canadian records which appeared to have any points in common with the Queen's county, N.B., election case, which was the one under consideration.

Mr. Davies regretted that such a resolution was put. Down to the present day all the election cases showed, with the exception of one (the West Peterboro), that parliament had jurisdiction, and used the same. In the cases of John Mitchell, O'Donovan Rossa, and others, the house did deal with them, and declared them disqualified.

Mr. Thompson proceeded to advance his old arguments respecting the rights of Baird, and apologized for the committee doing what evidently was a wrong since the question was a judicial one.

ATTEMPT TO CORRECT A WRONG.

Mr. Weldon said that they were discussing the privileges of the house of commons. In the Beauharnois case and others the house not only asserted its privileges but brought the returning officer to the bar of the house to apologize. Upon the whim of a returning officer depended, according to the contention of the minister of justice, the entire jurisdiction of the house.

Mr. McCarthy summed up, and made no reference to the English election law. Mr. Weldon—Do you know of any case in England where a minority candidate was seated by parliament?

PARLIAMENT OF NO ACCOUNT.

Mr. Edgar moved in amendment: "That the house of commons never divested itself of the power to correct a return by the returning officer; that it appears from the papers before the house that the return is false and not showing the true summing up of the facts of the case, otherwise it would place it in the power of the returning officer to seat unqualified candidates who would sit and vote in parliament until such time as the candidate having the majority of votes should obtain the seat through long and tedious litigation; and that the principles be applied to the Queen's election case."

The amendment was lost by 18 to 13. The original motion of Mr. McCarthy was carried on the same division—18 to 13.

Mr. Casgrain moved: "That the returning officer, J. R. Dunn, summed up the votes for each candidate and did not give the result of the same summing up; that it appears from the same summing up that King had a majority of votes; that the said returning officer exceeded his authority and jurisdiction in declaring the election null and void; and that the returning officer be summoned to the bar of the house to be dealt with according to law and justice and the privileges of the house."

Mr. McCarthy moved an amendment to the effect that the returning officers be asked merely to appear before the house and explain.

GOOD FOR MR. MACKENZIE.

Mr. Mackenzie—"I would suggest that an apology be sent to Mr. Dunn for the house to call in question his act. The only one at fault is Mr. King. He should be censured and an apology sent to the returning officer!" (Cheers and laughter.)

On the suggestion of Mr. Mackenzie, it was added to Mr. McCarthy's amendment that he (the returning officer) be asked to appear before the bar of the house and answer for his conduct in having returned a minority candidate.

Consumption Can be Cured.

By proper healthful exercise, and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, which contains the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable species in their fullest form. Dr. D. D. McDonald, Petitioner, N. B., says: "I have been prescribing Scott's Emulsion with good results. It is especially useful in persons with consumptive tendencies." Put up in 50c and $1 size.
