On Saturday last fire on the premises of John S. Aylsworth, Richmond, caused the destruction of the barn and contents. Nothing could be saved. The total loss amounts to $900, on which there is an insurance of $300 in London Mutual on the building and $250 in the Commercial Union on contents. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

AMONG THE MAGAZINES.

The Leading Articles in the July Numbers—Food For Literary Folks.
The May-June number of the "American Law Review" is a splendid one, and with contents especially interesting to Canadians. The fishery case is dealt with ably, if not in a manner entirely in harmony with the views of the Canadian people.
George Bancroft contributes a short paper on "An Incident in the Life of John Adams"; John Barroughs will have an article, "Profusely illustrated, on American 'Wild Flowers';" H. S. Edwards, of Macon, Georgia, the author of "Two Runaways," will have a new story, illustrated by Kemble, "Sister Todhunter's Healt"; and Professor Atwater, of the Wesleyan University, will publish his third paper for July on the "Chemistry and Economy of Food"—all will appear in the July Century.
Prof. William T. Harris, appears as a critic of Henry George's land theory; Rev. J. O. S. Huntington, will have an article on "Tenement House Morality"; on the article of Prof. Patton, of Princeton, "Is Unlover Romanizing?" Prof. Newman Smyth, will reply under the striking, not to say aggressive title, "Is Princeton Humanizing?" and Prof. H. H. Boyesen will have a paper on the social and political evils resulting from unrestricted immigration—all in the July Forum.

IN MEMORIAM.

The Late Mr. Joseph Langwith.
A man of worth and one of the best known and most useful men in the county has passed away. We allude to the late Mr. Joseph Langwith, of the township of Kingston, who died on June 16th. His father came from the county Tipperary to this country in 1828. He was a cousin to the late Sheriff Corbett. He had several children, and one of them was Mr. C. Langwith, a well-known and wealthy farmer in the township of Storrington. Joseph settled for a while in the township of Portland, and then he moved near to Glenvale. He held several public offices, but was best known as an enlightened and most efficient school trustee. Any scheme having for its object the advancement of education, the comfort of the children, or the support and encouragement of the teachers of the school had his assistance. As a neighbour he was most obliging, and seemed to take pleasure in assisting any one who required it. He was one of the most hospitable and kind-hearted men we have ever known. Whether it was the immigrant from the old country, the stranger from the other side of the line, or any of his poor neighbours he could not see any one in want or in distress without relieving it. Fortunately for him his means were ample and he tried to make a good use of them. He left a loving wife and two daughters in this county to lament his loss, and three sons by a former marriage, who are in the states. We hope that he has gone to his reward in a better world. It may be well and faithfully said of him that taking him for all in all we shall not soon see his like again.—J. S.

The White House in Summer Dress.

While the president celebrated his wedding anniversary "far from the madding crowd," the day was observed in a more commonplace way at the White House by sweeping off the back stoop and polishing up the handle of the big front door. The day was entirely given over to house-cleaning. Cobwebs were brushed away and spiders driven in terror from their lairs; carpets were torn up and shaken and beaten until a cloud of dust circled the house like a dense fog. Everything is top side down, bunched together and scattered about. Curtains and old clothes were carefully packed away in camphor and drugs, "where moth and rust doth not corrupt, and thieves do not break through and steal." Hammers resounded through the halls and corridors almost as if another story were in process of construction. Marble slabs, floors and furniture are being industriously and vigorously scoured by many a brawny arm until, when the president returns, he will miss many old landmarks.
The green, blue and red parlors have been deprived of their carpets, and matting has been substituted. The blue room carpet, upon which the famous wedding took place, has seen its last days of service. A designer from New York has made a design for a new moquette carpet for that apartment. It will be of blue shading from indigo to robin's egg, to correspond with the Tiffany frescoes of the walls, and sprayed with delicate flowers. Mrs. Cleveland superintended the arrangement of this design, and the carpet is now being made, but will not be laid until autumn. The east room carpet will retain its place during the summer, and in the autumn it will be superseded by an Axminster carpet of a creamy and gold ground, to harmonize with the walls and ceiling, and partially covered with intertwining sprays of fern. The silk covers of the east room furniture will be replaced with plush, and the furniture of the green parlor will be covered.—Washington Cor. Baltimore American.

Holloway's Pills.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills are beyond all doubt the most valuable and most convenient medicines that travellers can take across the seas to distant climes, for change of climate and the new conditions and surroundings of life to which they will be exposed will assuredly give rise to great disturbance of the system and to such special morbid states of the blood and constitution generally as will render the use of these effectual remedies highly necessary, for they will find in them a ready and safe means of relief in most of the diseases which afflict the human race, and with them at hand they may be said to have a physician always at their call.

The Course Decided Upon.

LONDON, June 20.—A conference was held between the Gladstonians and Parnellites, at which the course to be pursued relative to the Crimes bill was decided upon. The more violent of the Parnellites agreed to abandon their obstructive course in deference to Gladstone's wishes. The Parnellites will move the remainder of their amendments during the report stage of the bill.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

ADVICE TO INVALIDS.—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish to calm and assuage the weary aching of protracted disease, invigorating the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff) to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Menstrual, &c.
From Sympson & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 25 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their sale, we fancy that their sojourn there will be but transient. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholera, Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of the opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST, TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Sympson & Co., Members of the Pharmacy Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemist.
CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir Page Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE (that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "Times," July 13, 1884.)
 Sold in bottles at 1s. 1d., 2s. 6d., and 10s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitation.

KINGSTONS FAST HORSES.

Some Fine Racers in the Stables Here—They will Show Speed.
 Canadian Sportsman.

"Gladstone," writing for this journal, says: "Hastily did I approach the centre of the city and soon cast from my thoughts what the eyes had beheld on approach by the warmth of the reception I received from Mayor Carson and Mr. Fred Folger."

"I saw many local horses, doing speedy work. There seems to be no ambition, no desire for rivalry; a mere secret satisfaction that they believe each has a flyer. Let your broaching out, Kingstonsians, and let us hear of some competitions. You have good material, but it is growing stale. One of the most energetic workers in all kinds of sport is the popular mayor." Some three years since he bought in Montreal one of the greatest English prize winning draught stallions of the day, "The Palmer," a Suffolk Punch, for which he paid $2,700.

"F. A. Folger's were the stable next visited. The first to be led out was the representative of Kingston, upon whom they depend to bring home the Glen Grove stallion trophy in the fall, Judge McCurdy, solid bay, nine years old. He is every inch a high-class looking trotter. The stable is very reticent as to his performances, therefore I will leave him to speak for himself at Glen Grove. Doddridge, four years old, by Walker's Ethan Allen. This colt is a square, level-headed mover, and the owner's expectation I think of what he can do is well founded. He goes and acts like a trotting machine. Rocket, five years old, by Bacon's Ethan Allen. He is so compactly built that it makes him look cobby; even outside report says he is a mover. He is being well coached by Elsie Groff's old trainer and driver. Maud F., five years old, by old Almonte. She is a long, rangy well down-set, good looking mare; if she is never very fast she will likely prove a grand matron.

"Next a chestnut gelding, five years old lately bought on a farm, shows breeding. But what? Is the question. He is massive in proportion, possessed of a very strong, open jaw. With a little tuition he will surprise some of the Kingston flyers in the near future.

"Mr. Vanalstine, has a dark bay gelding, six years old, four white stockings, by Bacon's Ethan Allen. The owner has a treasure trove. I have seen him move and hope to again.

"Captain C. Staley is a staunch believer in Blue Bull stock. He has two youngsters by Blue Bull, out of Royal George. The Captain intends to be all wolve when he fully manipulates these fellows.

"J. B. Walken, drives an imported thoroughbred, which when he lets out a good many may have to make room for.

"H. Grimshaw has a four years old, by Blue Bull, it has good action and every appearance of being a speedy one. Also a two-year old by Joe Brown. He is being noticed, acts like and of campaigner and is very promising."

Cholera Infantum.

That terrible scourge among children may be speedily cured by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All forms of bowels complaints, nausea and vomiting, from an ordinary diarrhoea to the most severe attack of Canadian cholera, can be subdued by its prompt use. It is the best remedy known for children or adults suffering from summer catarrhs.
