MARINE PARAGRAPHS.

Interesting Items Gathered Along the Harbour—Vessel Movements.

The sloop Lorraine is loading railroad ties for Cape Vincent. Yesterday the schrs. McLaren and American were chartered in Chicago to bring 10,000 bush. of wheat and 20,000 bush. of corn respectively to Kingston.

The steamer City of Kingston, lying at Anglin's dock, was pumped out, raised, and taken to Portsmouth to-day. She will be converted into a steambarge.

Arrivals: Schr. F. L. Wells, Charlotte, 181 tons coal; schr. Fabiola, Toronto, 9,500 bush. wheat.

Recent late charters in Chicago included schrs. Ida Keith, 34,000 bush. wheat; Mary Lyon, 21,000 bush. wheat; Ada Medora, 20,000 bush. wheat; Jennie Matthews, 21,000 bush. wheat and A. E. Vickory 21,000 wheat, all to Kingston. The Inter-Ocean says: "A reaction set in on lake freights which promise to push rates up to the railroad figures. Under the removal of an embargo of fully 20 cents per bushel, more life has been infused in our shippers. With the collapse of the wheat corner 16,000,000 bushels of grain room was opened up, unhampered, shippers' margin and Chicago announces for herself as in as good a position for dealing in the cereals as was Duluth when the hands of this city were tied behind her. Corn to Buffalo is bringing 5c., while it is worth from 3 to 4c. more per bushel. Kingston room was firm and unusually active at 8 1/2 cents free of towing charges."

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Advising the Appointment of a Commissioner to Negotiate for a Treaty.

Dr. Platt, M. P., for Prince Edward county, has given notice that he will move the following resolution in the house of commons:

1. That the admission of all products and manufactures of the Dominion of Canada into the markets of the United States free of import duty, and the like concession by the Dominion of Canada to the products and manufactures of the United States, would afford an amicable settlement of the present controversy and existing commercial difficulties, benefit the most important industries of Canada, promote harmony and cement the friendly relations existing between the two countries.

2. That it is the duty of the government of Canada to anticipate the result of the agitation now going on in both countries by preparing by the appointment of commissioner or otherwise for the negotiation of a treaty of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, based upon broad and comprehensive principles and without prejudice to the political relationship at present existing between Canada and the British empire.

ACCIDENT AT GODERICH.

It Occurs on the Day of the Queen's Jubilee Celebration—A Boy's Death.

GODERICH, June 22.—On the morning of the queen's jubilee, opposite the Lake Park, Band-Master Parker was very badly burned about the face, chest and arm, Oliver Pennington was filled with powder, and a little boy named Cootes was killed by the ramrod of the cannon, which the aforesaid men and others were firing in honor of the jubilee. Mr. Kent, head miller of Hutcheson's and Ogilvie's mill, and R. Roberts of the same establishment, who was an old gunner on the Cherub which came to Goderich port some years ago, during the Fenian raid. The ramrod passed Kent who was almost in front of it and literally pinned the little boy to the earth, entering his back and going through his heart, liver and lungs. The father of the boy was trying to get the clothes off Parker when he turned and saw the terrible death of his boy, who, with others, was running through the smoke. Band-Master Parker's watch was blown out of his pocket and broken but was still ticking when picked up. Dr. Whitely thinks Parker's sight is uninjured. He is delirious.

A GREAT CABINET ROW.

Mr. Chapleau Gets Very Angry—He Will Not Now Be Lieutenant-Governor.

OTTAWA, June 23.—It is said that at a meeting of the cabinet there was a colossal row between Mr. Chapleau and other members. In the afternoon Mr. Chapleau wrote to Sir John Macdonald, positively refusing to accept the lieutenant-governorship. The letter was shown Mr. Alonzo Wright and other members of the house. What the outcome will be it is hard to predict. Mr. Danvers and other friends of Mr. Chapleau are here advising him. He threatens to leave the government and take a seat on the back benches, which would simply mean war or intrigue against the ministry. Sir John will take care, his supporters say, that no crisis is precipitated while the session continues, but when prorogation takes place they assert that Mr. Chapleau will be rigidly dealt with.

A Famale Threatened.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 22.—There has been a failure of crops in Asia Minor and the districts of Adana and Kutahia, are threatened with a famine. An American missionary, Mr. Montgomery, says that the people of those districts are already in great distress. The sultan held a cabinet council to-day to discuss the subject and dispatched a commissioner to institute measures of relief.

'T WAS CHILDREN'S DAY.

A VERY REMARKABLE SCENE OCCURRED IN HYDE PARK.

The Little Ones Flocking About the Prince and Princess of Wales—And the Devotion They Showed to the Queen Herself—Her Present to Their Representatives.

LONDON, June 22.—At the children's fête in honour of the queen's jubilee in Hyde park, 30,000 little ones were present. They made a pretty picture. The Prince and Princess of Wales and their sons and daughters, accompanied by a number of their royal guests, visited the park during the fête. The children at once freed themselves from restraint, broke the rope barriers, and rushed pell-mell toward the visitors, and packed themselves in solid groups around them. All etiquette vanished and the prince and princess, who seemed delighted at their position, mixed among the children with perfect freedom and pleasure. All at once the children began to sing "God Bless the Prince of Wales." They sang in every key, but their earnestness and enthusiasm made up for the lack of harmony. The visitors then made their way to the platform erected for their accommodation.

The queen soon arrived. When it was announced that she was coming the children massed themselves in an orderly manner along both sides of the road, over which her majesty's carriage passed, and moved with it toward the stand, the assembled bands playing the national anthem, which the children all sang with grand effect. The queen reached and ascended the platform while the music was proceeding. At its conclusion she presented a memorial cap to a little girl who had been selected to represent all the children assembled. When the queen departed the whole assemblage sang "Rule Britannia." Mrs. Gladstone, Lord Derby, and Lord Spencer were present. A number of aristocrats lent their assistance to make the fête a success.

A Job Lot of Honors.

LONDON, June 22.—Among the peers to be created are Sir John St. Aublin, a liberal unionist; Henry William Eaton, member of parliament for Coventry; and Edward Fellows, a contributor to the conservative electoral fund, and formerly member of parliament for Huntingdon. Baron Londesborough will be made an earl. The Earl of Strathmore, now a Scotch representative peer, and Viscount Galway, an Irish peer, will be made peers of the United Kingdom. Baronesses will be conferred upon thirteen persons, including Sir Algerton Bostwick, editor of the London Morning Post; Mr. Moon, chairman of the London and North-Western railway, and William Pearce, the ship-builder and member for Gosport. Thirty-three persons will be made knights, including Mr. Leung, editor of the Sheffield Telegraph; Martin Holloway, the heir of the pill man and the mayors of York, Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Bristol, Portsmouth, Salford, Windsor, Norwich and Newcastle. The Crown Prince of Austria will be made an extra knight of the garter, and Grand Duke Sergius, of Russia, the Grand Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, Prince Edward of Hesse, the Grand Duke Saxe Weimar, Prince Victor of Hohenlohe-Langenburg, and Prince Louis of Rattenberg, will be decorated with the Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath. A long list of minor decorations will also be conferred.

The Pall Mall Gazette says the list is a "job lot," the choice of persons for elevation to the peerage being especially disappointing. "Lord Salisbury," says the Gazette, "has no excuse of expediency, for his creations are not even men of importance enough to be worth kicking up stairs. The omissions from this shabby list are more striking than its contents. Where is the baronetcy which was to immortalize the proprietor of the seal of unionism, the Daily Telegraph? Where is the peerage which was to have shed a halo of royal favor over that sole pillar of an imperiled state, identified with Parcellism and crime?"

Gifts to the Queen

At the afternoon reception at Buckingham palace the queen received numerous addresses and gifts. The women's gift of £75,000 was subscribed to erect in Windsor a replica of the famous Glasgow equestrian statue of the Prince Consort. The queen will lay the foundation stone of the new statue on July 14th. Any surplus remaining will be devoted to some charitable object. Lady Stafford made the presentation. The donors include nearly all the titled ladies of the kingdom, many of whom were present. The German Crown Prince, on behalf of Emperor William, presented a marble slab upon which is carved the arms of Germany and medallions of the emperor and empress. The King of the Belgians presented a beautifully figured silver-gate two feet high. The King of Denmark gave a china vase painted by one of the foremost artists. The Queen of Hawaii presented a feather screen. The Prince of Wales gave an oil painting. Numerous other presents were received from town corporations, public bodies, etc., throughout Great Britain. At Windsor the queen unveiled a statue of herself, the gift of the citizens of Windsor, in the presence of an immense gathering.

Reviewing the Troops.

The prince of Wales, accompanied by the kings of Greece, Denmark, Belgium and Saxony, the Crown Prince of Germany, and several other princes, Lord Wolsley and the Dukes of Cambridge reviewed 12,000 troops at Aldershot to-day.

The Break in Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The break in stocks is generally believed to be a sequel to the wheat panic in Chicago, and bankers believe that if the rumours regarding the weakness of banking institutions in Boston and Chicago, resulting from the failure of the Fidelity bank of Cincinnati, should prove unfounded, the course of prices would tend upward at once.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S HEALTH.

The Comely Youth Who is Likely Soon to be the King of Germany.

FREDERICK WILLIAM.

The latest news from Germany is significant of grave events approaching in that country. It is certain, from accounts which reach us of the emperor-king's frequent ailments, that his doctors, learned and skilled though they are, will not be able much longer to patch up the health of a man more than ninety years old. His son, Prince Frederick William, the heir-apparent to the crown of Prussia, and who certainly would be elected German emperor were his father to die before him, is himself passing away. The dispatches describe him as liable to death from a morbid growth in his throat. This is the opinion of Prince Bismarck, founded, as it appears, on the reports of medical experts. The situation thus brings into prominence the young man who, when his grandfather and father shall pass away, will become King of Prussia, and in whose person there is every reason to believe, will be continued, by his election to the imperial throne, the union of the offices of emperor and king. He is another Frederick William, the oldest son of the Crown Prince and of Victoria, Princess Royal of Great Britain and eldest daughter of Queen Victoria and the late Prince Consort.

The heir to such magnificent destiny is of competent age, and possesses the well-balanced character to take a right view of the gravity and responsibility of his position. He was born on January 27th, 1859, and is consequently in his twenty-ninth year. His wife, whom he married February 27, 1881, is the Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein-Augustenburg. She is more than a year younger than he is. The pair have four children, all boys, and the youngest so recent an arrival as of January 29th, 1887. That favorite picture, "The Four Kings," which every reader has seen, represents the eldest of the four as the baby who is being affectionately regarded by his great-grandfather, the aged emperor. The baby of the picture who is another Frederick William, is more than five years old now, having been born May 6th, 1882.

HEARING THE APPEALS.

The City Wins in all of the Assessment Cases Decided Upon.

Judge Price heard six appeals from the decisions of the court of revision yesterday. They were:

Rathbun & Co., claiming that the assessment of their wharf property at $8,000 was too high. Assessment confirmed.

Mrs. S. Thornton, objecting to the assessment of her hotel and personal effects at $6,600. Confirmed.

Rev. R. T. Burns, seeking exemption from taxation upon his house, he being a clergyman. Appeal dismissed, as he is not regularly engaged in the ministry.

J. McLeod, thinking that the house he lived in, and belonging to the K. & P.R.R. Co., was exempt from taxation. The by-law was looked up and the contention found to be groundless.

The Bell telephone company, whose income was raised from $3,000 to $3,296 by the court of revision. The company put in a statutory declaration to the effect that this was its gross income in Kingston. E. H. Smythe contended that the net income could alone be assessed, but the city solicitor claimed otherwise and said that both Judges Price and Wilkinson had given judgment on this point in recent insurance cases. They held that the companies were liable for their gross revenue. Mr. Smythe asked for time to consult the decisions and judgment was reserved.

Sir Richard Cartwright's appeal against the assessment of his residence was withdrawn.

Race of the Big Schooners.

MARBLEHEAD NECK, (11:45 a.m.)—The yachts have started. The Mayflower crossed the line a quarter of a mile ahead, followed by the Iroquois. The Mayflower is on the star-board tack standing in. The Galatea is also on the star-board tack, a quarter of a mile behind the Mayflower.

11:50 a.m.—The schooners stand: Iroquois, Sachem, Gitan, America, Mohican, Mayflower, and they appear to be a mile and a half to the windward.

11:53 a.m.—The Mayflower is doing the best windward work.

The Mayflower rounded the stake at 1:34:25. The Galatea turned at 1:29:25. The Mayflower is leading by over a mile.

Ely's Cream Balm.

I can safely recommend Ely's Cream Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Cold in the Head etc. Before I have used the first bottle I purchased I find myself cured. At times I could scarcely smell anything, and had a headache most of the time.—HENRY LELLY, agent for the American Express Co., Grand Haven, Mich.
