

MEDICINES.

"Cheap Drugs are the dearest things on Earth."

The Advantages of Morse's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil.

It is believed that the most frequent and discouraging failure of plain Cod Liver Oil and other tonic and alterative treatment to cure consumption, grow out of the fact they have no positive power to arrest the decay of the lungs...

We have on hand constantly a fresh and complete stock of DRUGS, FANCY GOODS, PERFUMERY, ETC.

Also all the leading Patent Medicines, and a full stock of Paints, Oils, Etc. Prescriptions carefully dispensed. Good value guaranteed. Favor us with a call.

SUCH IS NEWSPAPER FAME.

What the Press Says of People Whom the World Ought to Know.

Mr. Bancroft keeps eight type writers busy.

Miss Braddon is about to publish her fiftieth novel.

The empress of Japan contemplates visiting this country soon.

Gen. Sheridan gets seasick as soon as he sails the ocean main.

Justice Miller is now the oldest occupant of the supreme court bench.

John Albertson, of Staked Plains, Tex., the other day killed a prairie dog that had three good eyes.

Col. Merriam, commandant at Fort Laramie, is in Europe, trying to introduce his improved knapsack in the European armies.

Ex-Empress Eugenie has applied to the city government of Naples for permission to enter the hospital as a nurse, and care for the soldiers wounded at Massowah.

Miss Annie Thomas, of Billings, Mont., is the busiest woman in that busy territory. She conducts a 6,000 acre ranch, looks after valuable timber property, and has an interest in two paying mines near Butte City.

The czar's eldest son, who has entered upon his twentieth year, has a tenor voice of rare beauty and great compass. For some time past his musical studies have been interrupted owing to illness, but they have been recently resumed.

There is a farmer named Bill living near Saybrook, Conn. This of itself is not a remarkable circumstance, but the fact that his full baptismal name is Kansas Nebraska Bill is worthy of notice. He is called Nebby for short.

Dr. George W. Bull, a young New York surgeon who has been prosecuting his studies in the laboratory of an eminent oculist in Paris, has invented an instrument by which the length or limit of vision can be instantly determined.

There is a very wonderful old lady at Maidstone, Eng., who has been known since girlhood as the 'Fair Maid of Kent.' She is 103 years old and is said to retain slight traces of her former marvelous beauty.

Through the generosity of Jay Gould the Mount Vernon estate, where the body of Washington lies entombed, has been enlarged by the addition of a tract of thirty-three and a half acres on the northern side, near the old Washington mansion. The acquisition of this tract was much needed to protect the property from encroachment.

Cadet Shunk, of Pennsylvania, who has been graduated at the head of his class at West Point, is a grandson of a former governor of the Keystone state. Governor Shunk was a self made man. He was obliged to go to work at 10 years of age, but managed to 'pick up' sufficient education to become a school teacher at 13. He taught school for nine years. He was twice elected governor of Pennsylvania.

The explorer, Henry M. Stanley, is said to have acquired by purchase of the native chiefs several of the most commanding sites and large tracts of the richest territory in Africa, which he intends to hold by title, trusting to time to make it remunerative. He took the precaution to have white witnesses to all his transactions, which were verified by written instruments. The consideration was, of course, comparatively trifling.

John Boyle O'Reilly has a beautiful A plaster head and bust, of life size, done by Mr. John Donoghue, the Boston sculptor, and sent to New York for perpetuation in bronze, has been exhibited to a favored few within a day or two past. It is like her, for it has life likeness marked in every line.

Charles Alden, of Randolph, Mass., once one of the richest inventors in New England, committed suicide to escape the pangs of poverty. For one patent alone, that for the evaporation of apples, he received the sum of $300,000. In former years he was a member of the board of New York aldermen, and was looked upon as one of the most promising real estate dealers in the metropolis.

Gen. Sherman and Sheridan expressed a wish while at West Point recently to have their portraits placed beside that of Grant in Grant Hall. Mr. Childs, who presented West Point with the portrait of Grant, told Sherman and Sheridan that he would gladly add their pictures to his gift, and added that they were at liberty to choose their own artists. The portraits of the two generals are to be of the same size as that of Gen. Grant.

A Generous Vassar Student.

Speaking of Vassar, one of the students there is a daughter of President Rockefeller, of the Standard Oil company. She is not robust, and is afflicted with a tenderness of vision which has caused the doctors to prohibit her from reading. Undeterred by this misfortune, and perhaps stimulated by it, she pursues her studies with the help of an attendant who reads to her.

Autograph on a Brick.

Half a century ago there was a brickyard on the north side of the road at the foot of the Ames hill, so called, near what is now the Messrs. Briggs' tannery. One day Capt. F. V. Stewart, then 30 years of age, was in that yard, and while walking around among the unburned brick which were scattered about he picked up a sharp stick and carelessly wrote the following upon one of them: 'F. V. Stewart, 1834.'

the walls of the church burned in the great fire, the identical brick was brought to light—as perfect in shape as when laid, and with the inscription upon it as plain as print. This valuable relic was carefully preserved by Mrs. J. P. Thwing till Mr. Stewart's return from Boston, when she presented it to him.

The Hangman of Cologne.

The death of Herr Lersch, the Jack Ketch of Cologne, is reported. He would seem, from his obituary, to have been a grim eccentric. For many years past he has kept his coffin in his bedroom, as some more eminent men have done.

Objected to Too Many of Them.

Within the borders of Lincoln county and not over twenty miles from old Lincoln there lives a respected citizen who numbers in his family some as pretty daughters as can be found in Dixie.

Rose Marble in Tennessee.

The commissioner of agriculture, statistics and mines yesterday received over a dozen specimens of east Tennessee marble. The collection embraces different varieties of black, gray and mahogany colored marble, the latter being susceptible of the finest polish and resembling in appearance a block of fine grained mahogany.

Only Well Dressed Believers Wanted.

An English country newspaper records an extraordinary scene that occurred in a quiet parish church near by. The choir was singing the 'Te Deum,' and had reached the sentence, 'Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers,' when there appeared at the door a group of lads from a reformatory institution.

Walt Whitman's New Home.

Six hundred dollars have already been subscribed in Boston for the purchase of a cottage in that city for Walt Whitman, and it is thought that a sum sufficient for all purposes will soon be raised in that city and elsewhere.

Just Imagine It!

The stories of the success of Buffalo Bill in London, both theatrically and socially speaking, have not been one whit exaggerated. All the letters from London are in the same vein.

A Sand Cloud.

A resident of Americus, Ga., says: 'The other evening I saw a curiosity in the shape of a sand cloud. It appeared to be about 500 feet high, and looked like an inverted funnel. The base seemed to be about forty or fifty yards wide, and its apex extended to a point some 500 feet high.'

Wanted to Have a Fit.

A colored hodcarrier walked into the western police station in Baltimore and quietly informed Lieut. Scott that he was about to have a fit, and would like to be given a quiet place to have it in.

Latest Craze in England.

The latest amateur craze in England is said to be amateur dressmaking, in which enthusiasm waxes so warm that rooms are opened in a public building to exhibit the dresses made by amateurs.

Finesness of Platinum Wire.

It has been demonstrated that platinum wire may be drawn so fine as to be invisible to the naked eye, although its presence upon a perfectly white card can be detected by the touch, and can be seen by the aid of a small magnifying glass when the card is held in such a position that the wire casts a shadow.
