FENCING FOR THE NECK.

SOME OF THE LATEST FASHIONS IN COLLARS AND CUFFS.

London Giving a Pointer to New York—A Relationship Not Always Usual—Articles Which Excel in Handiness, but Are Not so Aesthetic You Know.

The new styles in collars come from London, just the same as come exaggerated top coats, trousers of enormous width, and designs in suitings such as no American tailor would have the hardihood to thrust upon an unoffending public.

THE LATEST. That space of three-quarters of an inch in front is just what divides it from the collar which was de rigueur just a year ago.

The twin brothers to the Drayton are the Norman and the Golono. These have not been in the country long enough to get out their naturalization papers, but are to be seen at any of the retail stores or "haberdashers' shops."

It is very popular with young men who come down town early in the day and who wish to remain down to attend the theater or make a call. It is just as fashionable as the single-link cuff, but it is not so esthetic.

It is all on the turn of the point. Beginning with a very slight turn it has gradually advanced in successive stages.

There is a row among Rideau warders. A tall electric pole was put up at the corner of Princess and Chatham streets, and the people thereabouts were rejoicing in the prospects of a light there.

AND THEN MY HEART GROWS GREY.

I see you through tear-blinded eyes, Across the eastern sea; Your hand in mine, your cruel No! Your gaze fixed full on me, I staked my all on love, and lost, I only yet it seemed your heart Through which I looked, back in langsyne, Somehow of me was part.

CHARLES P. O'CONNOR.

CONSERVATIVE ON RECIPROCITY.

It would be a Grand Thing for the Manufacturers of Canada. J. W. Johnson, a leading Belleville conservative, in a letter to the Belleville Intelligence, says: "You deny that commercial union is favorably regarded by conservatives to any considerable extent."

REMARKABLE DIVORCE CASE.

The Wife Robs Her Husband and Then Deceives Him—A Rather Smart Un. INDIANAPOLIS, July 15.—Papers in a rather sensational divorce suit have been filed here by Lieut. James W. Graydon, of the navy, the inventor of the new method of using dynamite in warfare.

In Brief and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence.
