

MEDICINES.

"Cheap Drugs are the dearest things on Earth."

The Advantages of Morse's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil.

It is believed that the not infrequent and discouraging failures of plain Cod Liver Oil and other tonic and alterative treatment to cure consumption, grow out of the fact they have no positive power to arrest the decay of the lungs...

We have on hand constantly a fresh and complete stock of DRUGS, FANCY GOODS, PERFUMERY, ETC.

Also all the leading Patent Medicines, and a full stock of Paints, Oils, Etc.

Pimples, Boils,

And Carbuncles result from a debilitated, impoverished, or impure condition of the blood Ayer's Sarsaparilla prevents and cures these eruptions and painful tumors...

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.

I was badly troubled with Pimples on the face; also, with a discoloration of the skin, which showed itself in ugly dark patches.

A Perfect Cure,

I was troubled with Boils, and my health was much impaired. I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in due time, the eruptions all disappeared...

I was troubled, for a long time, with a humor which appeared on my face in ugly Pimples and blotches. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me.

WHAT SHALL WE WEAR?

A LONG CLOAK WITH CAPE AND HOOD FOR INFANT'S WEAR.

A Description of Present Styles in Earrings—A Baby's Yoke Frock That is Sure to Please Many Mothers, Being Simple and Pretty.

The baby's frock shown in the cut is made of white dimity. In the front the skirt is joined to a short waist, which is belted, while at the back the skirt is joined directly to the yoke and confined by strings that start from the belt of the front.

INFANT'S YOKE SLIP. The neck of the dress is finished with a half inch band of embroidery headed by feather stitching, and inside the edge is set a narrow facing in which a fine tape drawing string is drawn.

Children's Costumes. A new variety of the Gretchen dress has the gathered skirt with hem and two tucks; the straight waist buttons in the back, and has three kilt pleats on either side of the center front that are laced across with silk cords to meet the straight revers of velvet which match the cuffs, high collar and deep sleeve caps.

Russian dresses have a pleated or gathered skirt, and a blouse that opens on the left has a cluster of shirtings at the front of the neck, and fullness at the back of the skirt gathered on to the close fitting back, the whole affair looking something like an apron blouse when the outside belt is put on, leaving the lower edge of the blouse about half way down the skirt.

The introduction of plaid surah into children's costumes, says Domestic Monthly, has a very pleasing effect, forming as it does the plastron and gathered skirt, with coat bodice and tiny draperies of plain woolen goods.

A sailor dress, approved of by the authority quoted, for a large girl, has a killed skirt of blue flannel, and blouse of striped blue and white flannel laced in front with blue cords over white buttons.

Present Styles in Earrings.

Solitaire earrings are in as great demand as ever, but by no means represent the only style in favor. Two stone rings, as a sapphire and a diamond, or a ruby and a diamond, are much worn, the diamond being placed next to the ear and the other stone hanging from it as a pendant.

Hoop earrings composed of either brilliants or colored stones, are another favorite style. The twisted hoop, one-half of which is set with stones of one color, and the other half with stones of contrasting hue, afford yet another variation in gem earrings that finds favor.

Infant's Long Cloak.

The long cloak for an infant, shown in the cut, is made of cream white basket flannel. It has a thin lining of quilted silk. The hood is faced with white satin and the space indicated at the top shirred. It is pleated around the bottom.

A LONG CLOAK FOR AN INFANT. The hood and cape of the cloak are joined together at the neck. Ribbon bows and strings trim the hood, while the cape is edged with full fringe. Both models described are Harper's Bazar's patterns.

Lingerie for Summer Wear.

Wool dresses of all kinds call for linen or percale collars and cuffs. The former stand high and may be either straight around or turned over in points. Cuffs are not quite so close fitting as were last season's styles.

Fashion Notes.

Dresses made for mountain and seashore wear by tailors are of white faced cloth, the trimmings consisting of braid put on in arabesque and other designs.

Little girls are wearing dresses made with souve jackets and full Mouse waistcoats. Ulsters of English homespun, with cap to match, are worn by young ladies on long journeys by steamer or rail.

ALWAYS AT A PREMIUM.

This Well-Known and Popular Medicine, Always in Request.

To this "fifth quarter of the globe," as an Irish writer has called it, the mother country sends many things its people do not want, and the consequences too frequently are an overstocked market and a depressed trade.

A Successful Remedy.

The best medicine writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be at nonirritating, easy of application, and one that will by its own action, reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces.

Get The Best.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best, most prompt and safest cure for cholera morbus, dysentery, sick stomach, cramps, cholera and cholera infantum that has yet been discovered.

Hard on the Alderman.

Judge, who has invited an alderman to sit beside him on the bench—"Mr. Alderman, do you think the prisoner is guilty? Just whisper your opinion to me."

In Better Humour Now.

"My son, aged eleven, was cured of an eruptive humor that covered his head and face with sores, by two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and Pills," testifies Mrs. Mary Fulford, of Port Hope, Ont.

Try and be Cured.

Lame back and nervous debility, associated with rheumatism, is sometimes met with in every day life, but as a rule we find not more than two of these complaints in the same party.

From Manitoba.

"I have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I used about twelve bottles of it and am now entirely free from the disease."

No Excuse Necessary.

Young wife—"Oh, Mr. Jones, I'm so sorry Tom brought you home to dinner to-day. If he had told me you were coming I'd have had something nice, and I haven't a thing in the house fit to eat."

Like Magic.

"It always acted like magic. I had scarcely ever need to give the second dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints," Mrs. Walter Govenclock, of Ethel, Ont.

The Last Straw.

Omaha real estate agent (in charge of a lot-selling picnic)—Now, gentlemen, we are on the ground, and you can't any of you get away till the train goes.

The Triumphant Three.

"During three years suffering with dyspepsia I tried almost every known remedy but kept getting worse until I tried B.B.B. I had only used it three days when I felt better; three bottles completely cured me."

A Cure for Drunkenness.

Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco, and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it if so desired.
