TRADE OBSTRUCTIONS.

The Spectator makes merry over an item in the Whig to the effect that a farmer on Wolfe Island, who had paid several hundred dollars in charges on exported goods and stock, would have been the richer by those hundreds of dollars had trade been unrestricted between Canada and the United States.

"We thought it was the consumer who paid the duty. That is the free trade contention. That is the assertion reformers have been making for the past ten years.

The consumer does pay the duty, under certain circumstances, but these circumstances have not been experienced by the Wolfe Island farmer.

That the Canadians paid the duty on coal goes without saying. It was admitted by the finance minister in his budget speech, and by the local coal merchants without regard to politics.

The New York Times takes the position that the lawyers, who acted as Jacob Sharp's counsel, should be punished with him for the wrong they urged him to commit.

LAWYERS ATTENTION.

The New York Times takes the position that the lawyers, who acted as Jacob Sharp's counsel, should be punished with him for the wrong they urged him to commit.

"Now," says the Times, "what is going to be done about it? We deem it of a very great importance in the effort to check and uproot this dangerous and demoralizing crime of bribery that the conspicuous part which these lawyers took in the infamous Sharp business should not go unpunished.

"To HONORE MERCIER, Montreal: "You cannot be called a rebel against the bishops of the province of Quebec for having incorporated the Society of Jesus when the Holy Father allowed its members to seek incorporation."

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.

A Coloured Girl, Who Poisoned a Baby, Must Suffer the Penalty.

BARNWELL, S.C., July 27.—Judge Hudson has sentenced Axy Cherry, a coloured girl, 12 years old, to be hanged on the 16th of September for the murder of the infant of Mr. Amos Williams, of Allendale, Barnwell county.

The young murderer, all through her trial, had no idea of the terrible nature of her deed, and when she was sentenced to be hanged gazed stupidly at the judge and grinned as she played with the buttons on her dress.

chosen, as a last resort, a gentleman upon whom, together with his associates, it has showered abuse for years.

The Intelligencer is not aware of the intimacy existing between Mr. McIntyre and the leaders of the liberal party, Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Laurie in particular, and of the cordial endorsement of his candidature by these gentlemen.

And by the way our friend overlooks an important feature in the claims of Mr. McIntyre to the support of the electors, i.e., that he is a commercial unionist.

As for the abuse said to have been showered upon Mr. McIntyre he does not appear to be so much worried about it as some of his political opponents.

MERCIER AND THE CHURCH.

Gets Authority from Rome to Deny some Accusations Made Against Him.

MONTREAL, July 27.—In the speech made by Hon. H. Mercier, at Laprairie, and in connection with the election now pending there, he said:

"In several of the speeches which you have heard I have been accused of errors and misdeeds. Some of these accusations have been stupid in the extreme. It has been said that I was the insulter of the Roman Catholic clergy in this province, that I had flung insult after insult in the face of Cardinal Taschereau.

HONORE MERCIER, "First Minister of Quebec."

"The answer which I received, is in both Latin and in French as follows: "Rome, July 22, 1887."

"To HONORE MERCIER, Montreal: "You cannot be called a rebel against the bishops of the province of Quebec for having incorporated the Society of Jesus when the Holy Father allowed its members to seek incorporation."

"Is this clear enough? Let it be the last, therefore, I hear of that nonsensical accusation of being in open revolt against the clergy."
