DEACON BURDETTE

His Talk Out of Church on Current Topics. .

DELIVER US FROM RICHES. "Great possessions may bring great misfortunes." The wise man is sometimes correct. Only six months ago a man in Ohio was left a fortune of $700,000 by the death of his father. And already his brothers, sisters and cousins have gone into court and proved that the man's father had three wives at one time, that he died head and ears in debt to all his relatives, that his fortune was dishonestly obtained and that he was a defaulter to the government, that he had been violently insane at several periods of his life and was in a condition of hopeless imbecility at the time be made this will, that the man forged this will any how, and that he was not able to take care of such a property in any case, being himself little better than an idiot. He has still a little of the money left, but he leaves it out on the doorstep every night, in the hope that somebody will come along and steal it.

THE WEAK POINT IN THE EVIDENCE. "At five minutes of 11 o'clock, on the 11th of June, I shall drop dead," said Charles Kirtland, of Piqua, Ohio, eleven years ago. And at five minutes to 11 o'clock on the morning of June 11, 1887, a baker's wagon ran over Charles and broke his leg. "Drop bread," was what Charles meant to say when he struck out in the prophecy business.

HEAVEN LOVES THE HEATHEN. Eavored above all lands are the Isles of Sandwich. In their recent war of the rebellion the entire army only numbered 147 men, so if every soldier under arms, and the sutler in the tent, writes a magazine history of the war, the series of war articles can only run twelve gears and four months. And yet some people believe in a second probation for the heathen. Not much; they seem to get their heaven here.

A BEAUTIFUL HEATHEN CUSTOM. When a Chinaman earnestly presses a visitor to stay to dinner, the visitor is then aware that he is not wanted, and straightway he goes home. In America the invitation to remain to dinner, however cordially phrased, often means just what it does among the lying heathen, but what puzzies the Christian is to know just when it means "stay" and when it means "go." In some respects the heathen hold away over us.

Slow paced, with listless step he moved along, To where the woodbine mantled all the door, And tossed its restless shadows on the flour: His idle breath, escaping in a song, Bore scents of Old Tom Juniper along; Upon both feet he limped, as travel sore,

For alms he asked; ate them and asked for

And lingered yet, the banquet to prolong, While I felt envy of his bone and brawn, And his glad life, so free from toil or care; And did not know, till after he was gone,

That he had taken with him my best pair Of summer clothes, and other things, to pawn, And drifted idly off-we knew not where. Ah, would that I, like him, might come and go,

As birds and winds and shadows go and come, Careless of all things sad or burdensome; Living as idly as fair lilies grow Beside the dreamy river's slumb'rous flow; At morn, awakened by the hollow drum

Of over busy bees at noontime's glow, Lulled to my midday slumber in the wood; Drone like, to eat the sweets by others stored; To live with birds and winds in brotherhood, My fashion plate the clothes line, and my De Sickly, with a grin-How de do, Bobby! Don't you know me? Come and tell me what's my name.

Bobby-Well, sir, if it ain't just as Sis said, you haven't sense enough to know what your name is. If you'll wait a minute I'll find out for you. I heard pa say he had you on the list, so I guess he must know your name .-Texas Siftings.

Home, Sweet Home.

She (thoughtfully)—George, dear, are there not times in your life when the pathos and truth of that most beautiful of all songs, "Home, sweet home, there is no place like home," appear to you with startling vividness, and fill your soul with longing! He (a baseball player)-Yes, indeed, particularly when I'm on third base with two men out.-New York Sun.

A New Kind of "Pastoral" Poetry. "Are you fond of poetry, Mrs. Foepar!" "Indeed I am, Miss Pert; especially pastoral poetry." "Pastoral poetry? Have you a volume of "To be sure—the hymnal, you know; it's made up of verses by all the pastors of our church, "-Yonkers Gazette. A Variation of Hood. I remember, I remember, That boarding house forlors, Of hash came in at room. I mind the broken looking glass,

The little window where the smell The mattress like a rock, The servant girl from County Clare, Whose face would stop a clock. I remember, I remember,

The gutta pereta ten They used to serve as chick of spring, To thirteen hungry men. We blasted it with dynamite, We rexed its bones full sore, In vain; 'twas served up fricaseed, For two or three days more.

I remember, I remember, Who practiced the B flat cornet From early morn till night. We stood his dreary "Peck-a-boo," "Sweet Violets" and more; But when he tried "We Never Speak," We wallowed in his gore.

I remember, I remember,

The lengthy weekly bill, Beceived by me with shudders and The symptoms of a chill. I also call to mind the night, When no one was about When into space I dropped my trunk,
And through the dark skipped out.

A Labor Saver.

"Why, Tom, what on earth are you doing with that dog!"

"Oh, this an idea I have been working with success for some time. You see, I just throw myself in the water and the dog does the swimming. It saves a great deal of labor." —Judge,

The Power of Sympathy. First Councilman-You don't look well. Second Councilman-My wife's pet dog was sick, and we was up all night with it. The dog died this morning. "What was the matter!"

"The doctor said it was blood poisoned by tad air." "Well, well! Are you goin' to get another

"Yes, I just sent for one." "Let me know when it comes. I'll see that the streets and alleys are kept clean in your neighborhood even if I have to vote money for another policeman."-Omaha World.

One Way of Expressing It.

Says Harper's Bazar: "Our language is singularly deficient; we have no word to represent fiance or flancee; 'my daughter's beau' is old fashioned; 'my daughter's young man' is very countrified; 'my daughter's lover' is scarcely a proper phrase; so we have to heat about the bush unless we adopt the French word." A Norristown youth doesn't experience the difficulty complained of by The Bazar. He calls him "that measly dude who's sweet on my sister," and lets it go at that. - Norristown Herald.

A Source of Danger, The frequent source of danger attending bowel complaints during the summer and fall is the liability to check the diarrhea too suddenly. Dr. Fowier's Extract of Wild Strawberry will not do this. Inflammation of the bowels does not follow its use, as is too often the case with powerful opiates and astringents. It cures promptly and in a natural manner.
