FORT BROOKS, (Fla.) Dec. 23, 1855 .- An exploing party under command of Lt. George L. larstuff, 2d Artillery, consisting of one Sergeant ne Corporal and seven privates, were suddenly tacked by a party of Seminole Indians, at day light on the 20th inst., about 16 miles S.E. from Fort Simon Drum-that party being about 40 miles S.E from Fort Myers. The party left Fort a re-examination of that portion of the Big Cypress Swamp examined by the troops last winter. Three men of the command arrived at Fort Myers on the night of the 21st; it is supposed that Lieut. Harstuff and the remainer of his party have been killed. Most of the public animals with the expedition, some eighteen in number, were also shot down. Lieut. Harstuff, when last seen, had one arm broken-and is supposed to have been wounded in the side. Private Hanna, of Company G, 2d Artillery, one of the party who escaped, brought the above information to Fort Myers. Hanna was wounded in the abdomen, not seriously, it is thought; be left another of the party, private Baker, also wounded, about 14 miles from Fort Myers. Baker gave out at that point and could come no fur her. The Indians making the attack were some tweny-five in number. Two companies of the 2d artillery were to leave Fort Myers on the morning of 23d inst., in search of Lieut, Harstuff and the missing members of his party. Other movements f the troops in the direction of the bartle-ground were ordered immediately on the receipt of the information concerning the attack.
