HAVE FAITH IN ONE ANOTHER

Have faith in one another When ye meet in frienship's name The true friend is a brother. And his heart should be the same. Though your paths in life should differ, Since the hour, when first ye met . Have faith in one another,

You may need that frienship yet Have faith in one another, When ye whisper love's fond vow It will not be always summer, . Nor be always bright as now. And when wintry clouds hang o'er thee,

If some kindred heart ye share, And have faith in one another, O, ye never can despair. Have faith in one another, But it is said that, acting by directions of the And let honor be your guide And let truth alone be spoken, Whatever may belide, The false may reign a season,

And O! doubt not it will

But have faith in one another.

And truth shall triumph still FRANKS. - The Boston Post says, no franking privilege exists in England; even the Queen has to pay her penny. We shall have to cut it off in o this coultry, where the pretence that there are no
