THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY T

The Hayti, dated at Jacmel on the 16th day in French, was in excellent taste. He said:

The Hayti, dated at Jacmel on the 16th day in French, was in excellent taste. He said:

The Hayti, dated at Jacmel on the 16th day in French, was in excellent taste. He said:

The Hayti, dated at Jacmel on the 16th day in French, was in excellent taste. He said:

The Majesty the Queen of England has in dividual fidelity to truth and allegiance.

The President has been guilty of an act of gross impropriety.

The President has been guilty of an act of gross impropriety. dead, a provisional government of the empire two nations, and of the admiration felt had been inapgarated.

It is now expected that the latter will make you have endured so many fatigues and so many call forth. The London Times speaks of it very | the breast by means of a sky-blue ribbon v of adverse criticism. It also declares that there | "Vive l'Empereur!" "Vive l'Imperatrice!" and | plus £60=£140. two nations, and that the statesmen of both distributed over night, so that the men wore the antries will leave nothing undone to arrange | medals at the time of filing off. I never chief was done; and, what is more, reparation sand persons to witness the ceremony, and there was made—reparation that would be thought ton times more than sufficient by the dignified courts which spoke volumes. of the older world. On this side of the Atlantic, In the evening, the British Ambassador threw as the former. We are sure that there is not a sky, the French Ambassador, in a similar man-society of gentlemen in Europe who would not ner, and doubtless the Emperor was desirous of think a sufficient reparation done in this inwhen the wrong had been stopped even to return the compliment. priety admitted. What more President Pierce requires he does not say in his message, but as treal is about to establish in Picton, a Bank Debut might not be all collected, or reserved in effervescing small-beer bottle, and cowardly the same malady which pervades the Presidential that they may experience no inconvenience ance of a British enlistment being again at-mpted in the Union, any further " reparation" THE CANADIAN PREMIER.—The London Illus-Court; and if, nothwithstanding, the United should demand more, the people of this will not submit to undeserved and

The good people in Kingston appear to be ulte sanguine that the permanent Seat of Gov-The best plan would be to make the City, or the part of the country, give security for the that Dr Aishton be Secretary for the current each? condingles. The Government should get such security or they ought to move right into the woods Picton, they ought to send us word, so that we can be prepared, for our only public building fell down last week in the snow storm!

ongregation, but a large circle of friends

fby children's sighs unfelgned ascend

Distribution of Medals at Paris

rom the Paris correspond

Jan. 9. The occasion was specific. The Duke of Cam-Jan. 12. bridge, a Prince of the blood Royal of England Airey, and others, in British uniform. The Em- entertaining so grave a doubt; but, most mag- bappened to see a pair of spectacles lying on of Washington, are invited guests at the White ed with complete success. the balcony of the Pavilion of the Clock, which wisits are few and far between," and, therefore, the glasses on the desk. Next Sunday the man We are led to these general remarks by an the following is a copy :commands the ground. The royal Duke's speech, tion into the witness-box, and request you to lic ear, and which, for the honor of our Govern-

After two of his general officers were killed, his the French army, our prave and worthy com-Majesty rap away, and had not been heard of rades, these medals, as emblems of the esteem since. Acting upon the supposition that he was and cordial friendship which exist between the Majesty and the English people at the glorious received less;—thus showing two things: first, times flapping the leaves together as if he meant by the Resident with his accustomed gracious. The London, C.W. Free Press states that a resched it through a well authentication was consecrated by both armies. May reached it through a well authentica- nations was consecrated by both armies. May in the annual payment of ministers that the English Board of Directors God grant that grand alliance may ever continto Great Western Railway have declined ue, to the advantage of England and of France. As for myself, my dear comrades, the honor a accept the resignation of Mr Brydges; and forded me is the more grateful as I have served that they have ordered Mr Ratcliffe to acknow- [ along with you, and as I have beheld with my superintendence of that gentleman, own eyes your bravery and your great milli ts with regard to the road as | dangers. I sincerely thank the Emperor for his deem desirable, and consistent with his goodness in having so graciously conferred on me the honor of being permitted to distribute these medals in his presence." The front of the medal represents the effigy THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.-This document of the Queen of England, with the motto Vicdoes not appear to have excited any such seasa- | toria Regina, and the reverse represents two ion in England, as it was evidently intended to allegorical figures of War crowned by Victory with the inscription Crimes. It is attached y, and has a quiet chuckle over the good | yellow edge. The ceremony took place amids'

s, without a sacrifice of honor on either | nessed such enthusiasm. It was evidently very a. In regard to the recruitment question, the gratifying to the French army to wear the foreign order bestowed under such circumstances The day was not very favorable, but this did mistake has been made an spology is of open his magnificent botel to one of the most some fanciful compensation for the supposed wrong, is always set down to the sensitive jealousy of the man who has his character and position still to make. In fact, a readiness to accept an applicant in the mark of a gentleman, may, more so, than a quickness to resent an indignity. Every fellow has the latter, but it is only the gentleman who has the former. We are sure that there is not a sky, the French Ambassador, in a civiler was only ascertained on Saturday that their Majesties the Emperorizand Empress would deign to honor with their pressure the English Representative and his lady, but if it had gone on longer it is impossible that the jaucess could have been greater. It will be remembered that our gracious Queen honored some time ago the residence of Count Walewby the United States' government trated News, of the 12th instant, contains an something more than the vindication of admirable portrait of Sir Allan Napier McNab, [ to honour, respect for its neutrality, obedience taken from a photograph, and a view of the City to its laws. It is a matter on which we concoive the British Government will be guided by

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

Once £37 10s—for 1853. So did they receive it

County Board of Public Instruction.

Public Instruction for the United Counties of held the truth; and if he deponed that he recei- The moral grandeur of Reeve Thomas is im- ner and beat him, as only the cowardly bully Frontenac, Lennox and Addington, was held at ved any other amount, he attested an untruth. measurably enhanced by the fact that the bicker adopts, when he invades the rights of a weaker liu are to December 8th. George M. Chase, late Monday, February 4th, 1856.

5. for the current year. Moved by Mr Smith, seconded by Mr Corbett,

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Mill Creek on Monday, the 18th inst., at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of examining Teachers.

(Signed) THOMAS KIRKPATRICK. THOMAS AIBBTON, Chairman. Secretary, B. P. I. Bath, Feb. 5, 1856.

DEATH OF THE REV. DR. MCGILL.—The Montre- FATAL CASUALTY.—Mr. Joshua Skinner, of Alal Herald says it is with deep and sincers regret | exandria, Jefferson County, came to his death we announce the sudden decease of this most one day last week in the following manner :estimable and universally respected divine. He He had bound a load of small saw logs with the had been ailing for some few weeks past, but out of the woods, the small chain which held was not believed to be in any serious danger; the binder down caught upon a stump, pulled and his death, which occurred yesterday, from off, and let the binder spring up with such force concussion of the brain, comes upon us with as to hit Mr S. in the back of the head, mashing Dr McGill has, for movement. A timely caution to all who are care back, been the paster of St. Paul's lumbering. The binder should always be so haps, illustrious Abdiel, you have not got suffich Presbyterian) Church in this city. His arranged that, if accidentally loosened, it would ciently acquainted with the use of those articuwill be irreparable to his family, in whose My back from the driver instead of towards him.

GREAT FIRE AT BRADFORD .- We regret to learn as, will warmly and sincerely | that a most destructive fire raged at Bradford, "allotted," " made over,". Well, the second secon Saturday, occasioning a great loss of prop- Lion of the Provincial Reserve Act says, erty. It commenced, we understand, about two | the Annual Stipends or allowances which had or three o'clock in the afternoon. A telegra | been before the passing of the Act of phic despatch, which reached us on Saturday | ment of the United Kingdom last cited in the evening, by the International Line, stated that preamble of this Act, assigned or given to the the fire had then been headed. Among the prop- | Clergy of the Churches of England or Scotlag erty destroyed were the stores of Mesers. Mc- shall be paid, &c., during their natural lives or Brown, that your pound has not lasted as long A Posts open run Snow.—The snow-king this Master & Son, St. Clair, W. D. Burn, Druggist, incumbencies John Evans, G. & B. Barnard, Trott's Tailor Now, the £150 per annum had been "allot- CHOKED CATTLE.—A few days since, a lady of known his difficulties in a candid and honest Thursday (this) evening, at hel.-past seven Shop, Thompson's Saddle and Harness Shop, Barross for which they were afterwards applied by this place, lost a valuable cow by being choked by an apple. We find in the Hartford Times the following from the Ciergy Reserves Commissioners—who, be it following remedy for such cases, which has re-Mr. Trott, tailor. Messre. G. & B. Baroard known, are the Commissioners of the Synod of peatedly been used with success. It was tried a days thereafter, the retailer went to the whole-few days since by some gentlemen living in Far-saler for another supply of goods. "Stop," said find anymixed. All the goods in the shoes raised of Mr. Memixed and that were destroyed, part having been can under in the street, after removal. The safe of Mr. Memixed that make the street, having been taken out of the store that the goods in the shoes raised by some gentiemes living to Farmington, who found one of their cattle badly the Market street mao, "you already owe me about $5,000; suppose you go to New York and any in your fall and winter supplies. You can street, having been taken out of the store that ganpowder would relieve the animal. They went to New York, bought largely, and returnthat ganpowder would relieve the animal. They went to New York, bought largely, and returnthat ganpowder would relieve the animal. They went to New York, bought largely, and returnthat ganpowder would relieve the animal. They went to New York, bought largely, and returnat the Office of the Treasurer, W. Ferguat the Office of the Treasurer of the Store the All Comments of the Store the All Comments of the Store the All Comments of the Store the All Comme

と東京とこの東京というと、東京の大人と、本人名と、中国の一場として、「ファインスを見して

His loyalty be kept, his love,

To swerve from truth or change his con

Though single."

on this "globe," in the likeness of Peter of Pick- ment is a contingency from which they shrink sion during his public reception - when the hum- town, and we conceive it will answer a good ering, has startled this wonder-loving world with a sort of "supernumerary horror!" Let a blest citizen is entitled to look upon the Presirative of the Rastern Campaign. They were composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating of the counter of the publishing office composed of engineers, foot chasseurs, voltinating to us grovelling inhabitants of this lower sphere; but really nothing, since the annunciation, has given more immediately a bideous object is discerned. I rates to the level of the quarrelsome loafer. The land to be received courteously to gratity of the same of the from its propriety. The revelations of angelic man look on and see that spoliation perpetrated, dent, and to be received courteously - to gratify view. They were all in complete drill order, were massheart-felt delight to the fallen, yet aspiring immediately a hideous object is discerned. I rates to the level of the quarrelsome loafer. The a lady of the name of Dustin Mrs Young is a complete drill order, were massheart-felt delight to the fallen, yet aspiring bave no wish to overstep the proprieties of a be-press, with Prince Jerome, the Princess Ma nanimous Abdiel, you know that it is so. And the Precentor's desk. Taking them up he House, so often as the public receptions are anwe, the denizens of earth, know that "angels' painted on one of the lenses a fly, and replaced nounced.

come was £140. If you did not regard it as part have, sir, but it jeest lights wherever I look; movement was executed in such a manner as to nada. Write to me and let me know what you of your income, then your income (always unonly £80, and the £60 was a sort of windfall the cause of the Precentor's discomfiture, rewhich you could set down on neither side of quested John to exchange spectacles with him, your cash-book. But, suppose the rest of your and so delivered him from the fly." I do not say brethren, who have not yet got a crotchet in | who painted the fly on Peter's medium of vision. their heads, or an angelic nature in their hearts, The sons of the Globe can answer that question were to believe, and say, and depone that their better than I; but that some queer fellow has income that year was what they had actually played such a trick upon him hardly admits of a and truly received out of the fund-call it al- doubt. lowance, or bonus, or what you will-would you I close, my dear Abdiel, with the urgent reconseive yourself warranted in saying that it quest that you would entreat some of your was unworthy a minister of the Church of Scot- angelic associates to visit us, sons of dust. land thus to act, and think and use words as | Your alliance at once raises a man from the instance at least in which this was the case. DONE BROWN. The Rev. Mr Campbell, minister in connection with the Church of Scotland, sometime in this country, returned to Scotland, but did not re- - Hamilton Spectator. ceive the arrears of the Clergy Reserve money till two or three years after he had been in Scot-

Where is the law that authorizes me to com- the American continent boasts of. mute for a sum or sums received since the 9th A newly whelped Journal "captioned" the dents such as we have here narrated? We think May, 1853?" Does a man renounce his right St. Mary's Ensign, gives publicity to an epistle not. because it is not paid when it is due? Will any from the aforesaid Thomas B, which opens in Then, again, we find the spirit of the President wick, and most of the leading men of that Pro-

for sums received since, (the 9th May, 1853, but | ting acts of knavery !! !" due then,) I would regard my commutation as illegal. "Honest, honest lago!"

It will deal the with U. States as Allan's public career and a description of Hamin three different payments for 1848—twice £40

In three different payments for 1848—twice £40 The Annual Meeting of the County Board of year he had £140, and in the latter £150, withthis, and hence fell upon him in a rustfinly man-doubt whether Peter has put on your robe, or more epic, than some controversy anent the dent and his friend Rust, teaches the country you have taken possession of Peter's; for I do not | lease of a messuage! Members Present.—Messrs. H. Smith, Jr., believe that he has a crotchet in his head, as Had Tims murdered his paternal ancestor, and litical rights of our fellow citizens. Everything Chase was born in Vermont, but has resided for

A simple account in simple proportion, as well as Reeves's out-pouring. Such turpitudinisms ble submission to the behests of "the peculiar self-defence" to the Royal family, and is bottle-I or any other boy who has been at school. Thus, would have roused a frozen pumpkin to indig- institution," is marked cut, and assaulted. 13s 4d to 75 ministers, what is the income of

Ministers, Minister, £ s. D. £ s. 11260 18 4 150 2 10 2-15 E 020 F O J

75 | 2702560 | 12 | 36034

19 A 20 3002 10 150 2 10 2-15

10-75 | 2-15

late sounds by which we children of clay express our thoughts; and therefore permit me ask you, with all modesty, what is the meaning of assigned? By that term we mortals mean £150. But no such words occur in either of the Acts The words in the Imperial Act are, "assigned and giren,"-the words in the Provincial Act "assigned or given

'I canna get on sir.' 'What's the matter" In the year 1848 you received an allowance of again asked the minister. 'I canna get on for played by the President, in promulgation of a lover of fifthy lucre, to that of the most disinterested of angelic beings, that of the most disinterested of angelic beings, president Pierce his measures of administration.

Clergy Reserves income till years after it was continue your pilgrimage much longer on this the Government. In this be only manifests the ter to the magistrate of the town, and wrote due. You, most noble Abdiel, must know one Globe, perhaps you yourself will at last be

Yours, &c., &c., A DENIZEN OF THIS GLOBE.

We marvel consumedly how the degenerate into his own hands. The conduct of the Arkanand reprobate Tims feels, after the above tre- sas man was cowerdly in the extreme. little hope that it can be enforced.

And, therefore, my dear Abdiel, my mind is in which called forth his eloquence is nothing party. This conduct on the part of the Presiscience is like wet paper, and won't hold any- set the town pump of St. Mary's on fire, and de- Slavery, at the White House-in Congress-in sented in Congress. "Yankee Sullivan" is rewould put in our claims if we could only agree in which ward to erect the Parliament building.

Moved by Mr Smith, seconded by Mr Waudby, Neither do I believe that he cannot work out a simple account in simple proportion, as well as Reeves's out-pouring. Such turnitudinisms.

Slavery, at the White House—in Congress—in the social circle—and in the street, and the man who does not bow in hum-It is the microscopic provocation which lends | quire in all sincerity, will this country remain such a lustre to the inspired Reevo's communi- the land of the free and the home of the brave."

There is small credit in being poetical upon the Falls of Niagara, or the pyramids of Egypt, British America was, "The Psalms in Metre, but the man who could emulate Homer when Faithfully Translated for the Use, Edification, discussing upon a sausage, or a mug of swipes, is and Comfort of the Saints, in Public and Pri- a wit, as well as a divine and a lecturer. The

for his courage and conduct. a very mitigated species of landlady, was con- lation, than to smooth our verses with the tinually abstracting his teas, and being a saga- | sweetness of any paraphrase, and so have attencious philosopher, aware of what weight of evi- | ded to conscience rather than elegance, and without the chance of contradiction, placed, as usual, in his caddy, and secreted the ment to the godly reader they state that they other in a drawer; he drew from the latter | "had special eye both to the gravity of the store so much as was necessary for his use, but phrase of sacred writ and sweetness of the never tonched the former.

"That creased daily and in greater proportion, and at Scotland and England, where it was long used last, while the professor had still a little left, in the dissenting congregations. Mrs. Brown, the bed-maker, declared his tea. to be out, and offered to get him some more. remnant in great triumph, " I declare, Mrs. pess habits in that city :- A short time since, a Rufflanism at Washington.

From the Buffalo Express, Feb 1. The picture of our National Government sad enough in the eyes of its own people, and bearing of the attempt made by some scounds guat and swallow the camet." When the Ciergy must be viewed with surprise and contempt by ness" of a slave-catcher, to bribe the Chief of the Churches of England and Scotland were all civilized out-siders. As a nation, we are dis- the Police of Montreal to aid in enticing to the despoiled wholesale, and the means for the pro- graced. We have elevated to the Presidency a other side some unfortunate "chattel," escape ledge wrested away from them, there was no fear expressed by my brethren of this Globe, that who bears into his official and social relations, hum nity has not had the effect of deterring nstant mind ledge wrested away from them, there was no man who is imbued with the spirit of ruffianism--- from bondage. It seems that the ill success at we might contravene the law of God. But the the characteristics of the malignant rowdy—who others from making similar ventures. A case bare possibility of contravening an act of Parlia- nurses feelings of petty hatred, and takes occa- of this kind has recently come to light in this tioned spectacles placed where they were wont to been gailty of an act of gross impropriety, here about four months; we like the place very Peter's letter is its own best answer—pardon be—that is, athwart his nose.—To the greatem—which sinks him below the level of the commuch. I at first thought I would not answer monest breading known to American society. It this slip of the pen-I mean Peter's letter, or barrassment of the congregation, however, John monest breeding known to American society. It your letter at all, but the children seemed so anxdid not at once start the tune on this day as appears that some time since, Senator Hale, of ious to see you and hear from you again, that I For the year 1847, you (the author of said letbe used to do, but stood in a sort of confused New Hampsbire, accompanied by his wife and have consented to write to you and make ter to the Globe) received the sum of £75 from way, sometimes blowing at the Pealm book, daughter, called upon the President at one of a proposition, and let your feelings and good-natured Senator himself approached the relatives and native home. Now, it you are dispresence of His Excellency, to salute him, Presi- posed to come here-which is a short journeydent Pierce turned deliberately upon his heel and live with me, serve me faithfully two years, £80, and a bonus of £60. Did you consider the a muckle flea.' 'A fly, John, where is it?' 'It's New York "Times," in referring to this affair, be at liberty to settle among your old friends,

It is said that the cause of offence on the part know you will, in a few years, at farthest, innerof the Senator which so worked on the mind of it considerable from your father. I do not wish the President as to induce him to act in a man- to persuade you against your will, but, situated ner so unbecoming his station, was Mr Hale's in a strangs place, I would be glad to have the remarks upon the annual message in the Senate. services of one that understands my ways as The insult offered by the President, therefore, was | well as you do. The Chi.dren all send their not an accidental expression of malevolenn: feel- love. ing towards a personal enemy, which a man of strong passion might be betrayed into; but it | On the same day that the above ingen out and was a deliberate outrage to a political opponent loving tetter from this she fiend, arrived-Mr who had dared to criticise his acts before the Townsend, Unief Constable of Stratford, receiv-

his message without learning the ground to the regiments playing alternately, God Save the Queen, Rule Britannic, and Partant pour la said Peter having accumulated about Twenty received only £80, when you had received fine a most primitive and penurious conlived in a most primitive and penurious con- insulting those who indulge it, he oversteps the see what she says about going to Cincinati. I Did the Clergy of the Church of Scotland acThe intention, therefore, of us men who live to be not only a bad man but a dangerous remy possession there or the custody of the States tually receive £150 for the year 1853? If they on this globe, and we are assured, of all the deni- ceptagle of power. This circumstance, coupled Marshal in that city, so that I can secure her, did receive it—and that they did is admitted and zens of all our satellites, is to collect and present with others of a like character and bearing, in I w l' pay you the sum of two hundred dollars. known—they were bound to depone that they to the said Peter, of Pickering, a bonus or bag other departments of the Government, shows Should you feel disposed to act in this matter it did receive that amount, and no other. Had full of yellow dross—value unknown—for his conclusively that the present Administration would be necessary for my wife and self to be in they said that they received only £112 10s, they rare fidelity and disregard of lucre; and thus has placed itself at the will and pleasure of sla- Cincinnati at the time she would be there. You would have told a deliberate falsehood. They our determination is strengthened all the more very, in all things political, governmental and might follow her on to that city and trace her received £150 for the year 1853, and not only to give the lucre, just because he who former-social. With a bully President at their head, to where she would stop, and if you could notidid they receive it, but it was assigned and giv- ly loved lucre now hates it, and because he has the South have determined to wage a personal fy me to be there, I would do the rest, and pay en them before their deponing to the amount of plenty of it and takes good care of what he has war upon all free men who have the courage to you your reward, $200. stand by their principles with integrity. The G. STEWART, Proprietor, Boone House, Corner Ot Abdiel, there are strange games and cun- President insults Mr Hale, for political opinion- of Clark and Jackson streets, Chicago, Illinois." Further, some ministers did not receive their ning tricks played in this world. But if you sake, under circumstances most disgraceful to Mr. Townsend very properly handed this letspirit of the border ruffian, as it has manifested | Stewart an evasive reply so as to induce him to itself in Kansas under the nod of Exentive ap- visit Canada, in order to secure his missing proval. When the President becomes a ruffian "property." Had be done Stratford the henor in his manner and treatment of his fellow citi- of visiting it, we can assure him that he would zens, is it to be wondered at that disorder and bave "caught" something which he would have civil war are likely to spread throughout the had good cause for remembering to the last of THE CLIMAX OF FLYTING .- Thomas B. Guest, domain? Is it surprising that the whisky his villainous life. As it is, we can do nothing Reeve of St. Mary's, must be one of the profound- swilling borderers of Missouri trample on the more than to hold him and his vile companion How, then, can your impersonation ask - est adepts in the sublime art of scolding, which rights of others, when their great exampler in in iniquity up to public scorn and execration.

THE FIRST BOOK. - The first book published i vate, Especially in New England," printed at If we were not so busy we would make a Cambridge in 1640. The version was made by sleigh pilgrimage to St. Mary's, (wherever that Thomas Welde, of Roxbury; Richard Mather, apostle to the Indians. The translators seem to penses. have been aware that it possessed but little LANDLADIES AND LODGERS.-There is a story poetical merit. "If," said they, in their preface, told of a learned Cambridge professor which "the verses are not always so smooth and elehas always filled me with the highest respect gant as some may desire and expect, let them consider that God's altar needs not our polish-Finding that his college bed-maker, which is | ings; for we have respected rather a plain transdence some females can resist, he determined to delity rather than poetry." After a second edi- sold in lots to suit purchasers. let her know he had found her peccadilloes out tion had been printed, President Dunster, of Harvard College, assisted by Mr Richard Lyon, He bought two-pounds of tea, one of which he attempted to improve it, and in their advertiseverse." Dunster's edition was re-printed twen-The contents of the caddy, nevertheleess, de- ty-twree times in America, and several times retail dry goods merchant of this city, finding

An Attempt at Kidnapping.

From the Stratford 1 24 Many of our readers will no doubt recalled

They were all in complete drill order, were massed to the Chronicle and News and the news of the week may be had, in the Court of the Tuileries, and part in the person of the said Peter of Pickering. But a perplexing question of Pickering puts me in mind of an old story which is outside the Palace railag. Price 4d. each. Issued ings. At one o'clock the Emperor mounted his bas arisen about personal identity—that is happened a long time ago in a part of our world able. American citizen and all by coulon are thrown open to every respect. horse, accompanied by Prince Napoleon, the Duke of Cambridge, Marshals Magnan and Vail
Duke of Cambridge, Marshals Magnan and Vail
To this extent, then, Senators, and all, by custom, are involved to pay their respects to the Chief Magis ful man, then thought of looking after his wife's Generals de Lamarmora (the Sardinian | Your robe? Were it not for the well-known of a painter who was employed in renovating members of Congress Ministers. Seventarios or they hit now that they hit now the sevent of the sevent as well as a number of English officers. Sir R. As well as a number of English

Accordingly, in pursuance of their plan, the hands of the Commissioners, with the Synod's tempestuous fellow, T. D. Tims-whose grovel- mansion. Mr Greeley, in criticising the official that they may experience no inconvenience ling soul is only sufficiently powerful to put his | conduct of Mr Rust, a member of Congress from | from the operation of the Maine Liquor Law, But says the angel Peter, "Were I to commute base body in motion, for the purpose of commit- Arkansas, gave offence to the slaveocracy, and which is in force in New Brunswick. It is also Rust took the matter of chastising the offender stated that the law is so unpopular that there is in three different payments for 1848—twice £40 but verily the Reeve of St Mary's bears off the bis Creator endowed him with a giant in Providence, R. I., after reading nearly a dozen and once £60 =£140. Whatever minister of the bell from all competitors. Even mother Xan- tellect and a stout heart, he furnished but a notices, seeing some half dozen more before him, Church of Scotland in Canada was called upon tippe, who could use her tongue after a fluent frail castle for their protection and defence remarked that he must read them, as he was not to depone what he had received for those years fashion, when her dander was exalted, never when assaled by physical power. Rust, who is in his ewn desk but thought it really whicked

United States Consul at the port of Labaina, died there, after an illness of three days, on the 5th of rament will be removed to that city. We hope M.P.P., J.R. Forsyth, T. Kirkpatrik, J. Waudby some aver, neither do I believe that his concentration of the prejudices and caprices of many years in Maine, which State he has represented in Congress. "Yankee Sollivan" is recompanion to the King in bar-rooms billiard If this spirit prevails - how long, let us in- saloons. He has given two public a litions to full houses. They complain of a very dull business season at the Islands; but few vessels in, and generally with light cargoes. Two English man-of-war ves.els, but no American, had touched at the Is and in the last four months.

Springfield (Mass.) Republican reports that on being asked what his object was in lecturing so may be) to osculate the garment of Thomas B of Dorchester; and John Elliot, the famous F-A-M-E, which is the short for fifty and my ex-

THIS DAY.

Sale of India Rubber Shoes. a ILL be sold by Auction at the subscriber's sale room, 20 cases containing 1000 pairs of India Rubber Shoes, assorted and of the best quality, and will be Terms Cash. Sale at 11 O'clock. JAMES LINTON.

Feb. 7th, 1856

WYHE Lady who took a Bouquet Holder and a Handkerchief by mistake from the Ladies' Dressing Room at the last Assembly, will please send it to the office.

Auctioneer.

Young Men's Christian Association.

HAHE regular monthly meeting of the

A. C. LECKIE,

JAMES AGNEW