PARLIAMENTARY.

Toronto, March 3. Mr Dorion having moved for a committee of the whole on the subject of education in Canada East-

Mr Drummond said the superintendent of ed ucation had just made a report on this subject, which had not yet been brought before the House, the committee would therefore be premthought, to postpone the subject.

House on several points which had been constantly recommended by the superintendent of education in Canada East, persisted in his motion, but after some conversation consented to postpone it for fifteen days.

Mr Fortier meved an address to his Excel-

Mr Drummond said that the government were always ready to enforce the law against all holders of patents who do not comply with their conditions, but to suppose that the Government, without any process of law, could take back men's lands, was to suppose that Government would expose itself to ridicule. He hoped the motion would not be persisted in. Dr. Fortier, however, at first persisted, but afterwards withdrew his motion.

Mr Ferres moved for the reading of the journals relative to the petitions of John McGuire, Stables, Shed ., Cooper's Shop, &c., &c.. ring them to a select committee, which was
