we believe, free from blame, as regards the | ther notice. emigration of these coolies. When a ship is about to sail with emigrants, the negotiation is made with the "head men," or superintendents duly appointed. These head men select the persons suitable, in their opinion, for the voyage-make the arrangements for the voyage, and it is their

It is believed that in the case of the Sea Witch, the preparations made for the pas- every Friday morning. sengers were quite equa! to that made for the like number of emigrants from Europe. It is conceded that her passage was one of unusual length, which in part might be accounted for by her having a new captain, who was shipped at Rio by the Consul of that place .- N. Y. Commercial.

Tariff twenty-five per cent. The surplus | not positively known by what they were caused revenue last year is only twenty-two thousand. Well, we are a great country! We ! wish Mr Cayley may get it! A safe de- some days since to the effect that the Porte had liverance out of his difficulties is what and the country may well pray for .-Transcript, 12th.

ally warm for the season, terminated on ministration in its own independent territories. account from Parma to the 18th ult :--er., The lightning was vivid and the thun- Principalities which should be in any way preder loud. The rain sell heavily for a sew judicial to the sovereign rights of the Porte in moments. The storm was immediately those provinces. Of the former question we succeeded by an increased temperature of bave already spoken. The institutions which the atmosphere, followed in an hour or new rights and a new career must be the care two by a revulsion in this particular, and of the Western Powers for many years to come. in the morning it was quite cool. Soon af- It will be some time before England and France ter eleven o'clock, a violent gust of wind will be able to relax their hold upon Turkey. our reports from that source are somewhat ier, 14th ...

Albany, April 12.

The steaming Austin leaves this afternoon are even now occupied by foreign at mies. aggregate is between 25,000 and 30,000 fluence, and at last under the recognized pro-

Cloverseed is scarce here at 15c, medium, and 16c. large.

Philadelphia, April 13.

different qualities of Rye Flour, Indian not recommend any definite measure. Meal and Oatmeal, the words Rye Flour, feelings of the people, it seems that a desire of the contest whereof Kansas is the arena. Its of the building, is about $150,000. Insurance one-half. branded or marked on each and every bar- Turkey than before, without subjecting the pressive than that of any speech ever before The falling of the walls crushed two adjoints to the condent upon our semsuness; shall be corded of us that our philanthropy acknowledges from which the same is made; and the manner in which the Council has roused itself The galleries were filled, and so many Congressthe fire had made good headway, and proved to unroofed in every direction.

The Senate was fixed and unabated throughout. The steam fi e engine was brought out after unroofed in every direction. the word First, that of the next inferior whose armies were ordered to and fro by the Ale the members were flocking back into the Separe Philadelphia, was blown from the track.

Oswego and Rome Raitroad, in west find that our charity may be offered on the Philadelphia, was blown from the track.

Other alter than that which is built amidst carquality, by the word Second, that of the lied generals, and whose assent to diplomatic again. The concluding portion was given with the Rome and driven a hundred yards from the place where be said of us? No! emphatically, no! Every next inferior quality by the word Third, arrangements it was hardly thought neccessary a felicity and subdued force which I have rarely county, is advocated by an able and interesting they were left, and five of the number were blown Pulpit should echo the negation. Every Preacher Unbrandable; and when the grain from which Flour and Meal of any description is manufactured had been previously kiln been previously k word and letter Kiln D.

Sailing of the Ocean Steamers.

Liverpool, Montreal, Liverpool Boston. Liverpool, Montreal

New York, Southampton. New York, Havre. New York, Aspinwall

R. DEACON, P.M. Post Office, Kingston, 4th April, 1856

To Printers. TATANTED, at this Office, a Compositor, and also a good Jobber.

Single copies of the Chronicle and News sontaining the news of the week may be had, in | not present nor the Diplomatic Corps. rappers for mailing. Price 4d. each. Issued

The Daily News.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 17.

By the Washington

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. THE WAY THE MONEY GOES. By spe- The peace negotiations have received a check, wholesale or retail trade. The provincial buy- will we permit you to build a road across our cial telegraph from Toronto received last which it was found would delay the conclusion evening, we learn that the Inspector Gen- for some days. It had been presumed that the eral had just made his financial statement. | meeting of the 22d ult. would be the last, but, In consequence of the Grand Trunk Rail- according to the correspondent of the London tion in the rate of discount by the Bank of prize, because a wily late prime-minister "chisest on debentures, and perspective liabili- cussion was not so amicable as had been anticities on the Municipal Loan Fund deben- pated. There is every probability, however, of tures, Mr Cayley proposes an increase of the difference being arranged, although it is minding him of the regulation by which brokers

From the London Times, Murch 26. The intelligence which we communicated he refused to sanction in some particulars the pro- M. A. de Rothschild is about to proceed to Alexceedings of the Paris conferences, is now con- andria. drmed. The Council of Constantinople, it is now known, has directed Ali Pasha not to consent to the insertion of the Sultan's late decree A THUNDER STORM .- A week unusu- would bind the Porte to a certain form of ad-Saturday night, with a smart thunder show- | The Plenipotentiary has been also formally orare to give the Rayah subjects of the Sultan

The matters to be determined are important blew ever the city, doing some damage and complicated, and even the most enlightener to signs. The lightning and the wind had statesman must confess that he sees a little bea damaging effect upon telegraph lines, and fore him, in this medley of hostile races, deeprooted prejudices, decaying yet tenacious creeds. intrigue, misrepresentation, and venality. We curtailed in consequence .- N. Y. Cour- may be content, therefore, in some degree, to wait and see how gradual and tentative reforms work in a land where everything has been prescription and immobility for ages. But the question of the Principalities demands a speedy decision. These provines are the most exposed SHIPMENT OF FLOUR FROM ALBANY .- and coveted part of the Turkish empire. with thirty barges loaded with flour. The have been for several generations under the invaded by Ru-sian troops, and at the outset of tentions as regards commercial affairs the war were almost formally confiscated by the Czar. They are, through a large part of their extent, fertile beyond the average productiveness leading English journals, commenting on a corline to the west end of Ontario street, thence and has since been confined to her bed. Mrs night by night, this dauntless gentlewoman, in of Europe; they command the great river of respondence of Mr Secretary Marcy respecting gently curved so as to sweep the harbor fron- May had her nose broken, and her face and head ber fearless conflict with the gaunt spirits of pes-About ten e'clock last evening our city by the new treaty will add to their territory nothing in these criticisms worth reproducing. the last vicinity had the greatest ferred the open bayers of flood and fold to was visited by a most violent gust of wind, the delta and fortresses of the Lower Danube. Admiral Sir Hyde Parker died on the 21st of have been formed than the present one, and a difficulty in rescuing the family from the pile of the secret danger of disease and contagion -the ings, demolishing fences, &c. In the north east section of the city, comprising the forappropriated by Alexander in 1812. A part is under Russian sway, in Bessian sway, in Be armies on the frontier of that part of Roumania being shortly afterwards appointed to command which is still in a manner independent, and naval forces in the East Indies, sailed in the shortly afterwards appointed to command ment, be totally lost to them; as the majority she was attempting to close, FLOUR AND MEAL INSPECTION .- In each may be tempted to violate treaties by the Cato, and was never hear! of after leaving Rio of travellers, during the season of navigation, consequence of the standard for the in- natural desire to extend his empire and the Janeiro, where he put in for water. The baro- will prefer stepping from the wharf on a com- buildings damaged, with their localities, is con- wounded and emaciated body. See her, lamp spection of flour at New York having been nate him. The seizure of the Principalities was who commands the First Life Guards, cousin to lowered, and become inferior to that adop- the cause of this war, and must be the first step the late baronet, and eldest surviving son of the fers the Inspectors here to the New York on a sure basis, and build up a political fabric which will give content to the inhabitants, prestandard for their guidance. The Hon. serve as far as possible the rights of the Porte, Mr Young has therefore introduced into and without giving cause of effence to any by the words Extra Superfine; that of the nians a young hereditary sovereign, with a consecond quality by the words Fancy Su- stitution of the regulation pattern. This plan perfine; that of the third quality by the seems now definitely abandoned. The Moldo-Pollards; and the quality called Farine Pasha, the Turkish Commissioner, had held Entiere by the letters E. N. T., by which out hopes that their wishes would be regarded; latter description of flour shall be under- and regret that the Porte, the ambassadors, and stood the whole produce of wheat when reduce them to the level of a Turkish Pashalic.

dors of France and Austria, and the matter was referred to the Conference at Paris. Shortly after, the telegraph informed the Porte that Lord Clarendon, Count Orloff, and their associates were debuting on the union of the two provinces. This idea had not been brought for- rived in the monetary transactions of the wealexcitement. Meetings of the high dignitaries of long interviews between the French and be should then have insisted that justice should dollars.

Acestrian Ambassadors and the Ministers at the be done his constituents, and as a "sine qua Five houses were utterly demolished, and But dear to me is the s. ng from the tree, advantages of the different plans proposed we our city, and the depot built on our harbor. shall not enter. Whether the Moldo-Wallachians would be better under an hereditary than an little energy Difficulties will vanish. But these several of his colleagues are not only govern- quite heavy, while at others it was light. COMMENCING on Sunday, the 6th instant, events are chiefly wothy of note as showing that the Eastern Mails will be closed daily, (Sat- Turkey is by no means so acquiescent as was ment directors, to look after the Provincial inand the West must prepare itself for resistance keep a sharp lookout after the interests of the and evasion when it asks for the accomplishment of the changes which have been so often 141 tf | promised.

FRANCE.

A Te Deum was chanted on the 24th ult., at bealth is so favorable as not to require any fur- stituents' claims. ther issue of bulletins.

without interruption. ers have up to the time, shown themselves ex-

are forbidden, under penalty of being deprived

"The Auditor Gaetano Fordi has been stabbed with a stiletto in the street of the Genoese. He had been warned some days ago to be on his guard. Magnaui bad received a similar warning, Bordi was struck like him, and ex- | the depot.

The Czar, it is said, will, immediately on the restoration of peace, address a manifesto to his principles of his Government.

of Odessa to establish a banking house at that Within a few years they have been twice in- place .--- This is the first indication of liberal inmer districtiof Kensington, the damage was subject to the dominion of the Austrian Empe ker, whom he succeeded in 1830, and grandson ber of dwellings, barns, &c. The Episcopal touching than that which represents Florance of the Admiral Sir Hyde Parker who defeated would have thus secured a large amount of parsonage at that place was unroofed. Mrs Nightingale passing through the hospitals of Each of these potentates can place large the Dutch at the Doggerbank, in 1781, and who business, which must, by the present arrange-

The Leader of Monday contains a long memo- a very extensive region of country, as well as Lumber yards damaged, - - - - the House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assembly a Bill which proto Europe.

The House of Assem rial from the Directors of the Grand Trunk that a great number of villages derive their Glue manufactories damaged, - - vides that in branding or marking the dif
It is singular how differently the question has cy, for aid to complete the several branches of goods or merchantise will our merchants bring Carpenter shops ferent qualities or descriptions of flour, the been regarded by the Western Powers, by the unfinished roads, and to "forego its prior claim or send over the Grand Trunk, as long as its Chair manufactory same shall be designated as follows, that people of the provinces, and by the Turks. It upon the receipts of the Railway fund, with the depot is so far from their warehouses as it now Nursery, Shareholders of the Company."

The Courier and Enquirer of Saturday last word Superfine; that of the fourth quality by the words Superfine No. 2; that of the fifth quality by the word Fine; that of the fifth quality by the word Fine; that of the Hospodar Prince Ghika, a protest against the admission of Kansas into the Union as a free the fifth quality by the word Fine; that of the Hospodar Prince Ghika, a protest against the Admission of Kansas into the Union as a free the first of the Union as a free that of the Union as a free that of the Union as a free the first of the Union as a free that of the was accompanied by a half sheet supplement, building, at the junction of Portland and Sud- Slaughter house destroyed, - - sixth quality by the words Fine Miadlings; proceedings of the ambassadors at the Porte. state. The Washington correspondent of the high, occupied on the lower floor as a domestic Number of persons injured, - - -N.Y. Tribune thus discourses on the subject:- extent. The upper storey were occupied by Gov. Seward's speech to-day appeared to be Messrs. Sanborn, Carter & Bizin, book publishgenerally regarded as the great argument for the ers, who employed about sixty bands, and who roofed, and several demolished. In the North admission of Free Kansas. Less complete in its have lost $40,000 in stercotype plates, presses, to history of the Kansas controversy than Judge paper, &c.; Messrs Barnard & Dillingham, furni- stripped of metal roofs in a few moments—and ground, excepting the coarse bran and They talk of themselves as "Roumains," and of popular sympathies than Gen. Wilson's, it stands pianoforte makers; A. H. Allen, cabinet furniunsurpassed in its political philosophy, and un- ture; Mrs Bolles, sewing machines; Messrs.

The Grand Trunk Railway.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Sin:-It appears that another crisis has arthy contractors of the Grand Trunk Railway.

It is announced that the state of the Empress's fested a delicacy in pressing strongly his con-

The Paris Presse of March 25th, says in its favorably situated localities, hence they conmercial activity is universally looked for. The surrounded by the Grand Trunk Railway as with and there is not much more animation either in a connection with the waters of your harbor, nor beneath them. ceedingly circumspect. They wait, before com- track, because the law has armed us with that pleting their assortments, for the official proc- authority; nor will we permit you to derive Immation of peace, and above all, for a reduc- your legitimate benefit from our grand enter- unroofed. Damage $2,000. Berlin, March 22 .-- The Prussian Moniteur pub- | selled" you out of your birthright, by inducing | r of their license, to do any business in shares of their solicitor, may suit the views of the Com- During Saturday not less than a hundred men the canvass, and statuary that almost breathes foreign companies which have not all been paid. pany very well; he may imagine that, in plac- were employed beneath it. The building cost from the marble. The latter recalls the re-The Director of the Bank of Athens is about to ing the depot at the extremity of the liberties of about $5,000, exclusive of the machinery, which collection of those sweet notes which in found a branch establishment at Constantinople. the city, the letter of the law has been fulfilled. But I believe there is a Court of equity in this were unroofed; but throughout the disaster, dying flowers. Province, which, in discharge of its functions, is wide-spread as it has been, the cases of personal The city of Parma and the surrounding coun- governed by the spirit, or intent, of the law, injury inflicted have been very few indeed. among the articles of peace, as such a session This has arisen from renewed attempts at astry bas again been laid under martial law, rather than strictly the letter; to this Court, groads of our City Council intend to appeal.

Many devices have been coined and attempted to be palmed on the public, relative to the and some of the windows were smashed. section of road in this neighborhood, as well as pired a few hours afterward. These murders we have been told that engineering difficulthe building, smashing up the organ and doing though foreign alike to mirth or song, will win Bordi was followed by a soldier, who had not ties exist which totally prohibited the road pasgreat damage. The loss to this congregation our admiration, and, perchance, quiet our fears. even time to recognize the assassin. All the sing through the city. This is too large a bolus will exceed $3,000. About ten minutes before They affirm a principle while they declare a pr judges who sat on the trial of the revolters of to be bolted by men of common sense, that ever the roof fell in, the choir was in attendance, and umph. They represent a virtue which woman the 22d July, 1854, are, it appears, doomed to rode one hundred miles upon a rail. That enginthe building. president of the tribunal, was mortally stabbed. eering difficulties existed there is no doubt, and Gobbi, who performed the functions of Attorney | these difficulties were attempted to be overcome | west corner of Adams and Amber streets, was | they demonstrate that now, as ever, the home General, was desparately wounded; and yes for the purpose of giving this city the go-by. completely destroyed, all the walls being pros- of true heroism, and the spring of real courage. terday was the turn of the Auditor. Bordi The difficulties, therefore, were not to pass tempting to save the children, who were in bed, the pure. rumoured that the Minister, Lombardini, has received notice that he will be the next victim im- which, curves, which must prove dangerous in seriously injured about his head and body, that records of devoteduess, can we discover a fairer

It has also been asserted, that to build the road through the city would require twenty minpeople, in which he will point out the pacific utes longer time to run than the present route, hence a great injustice would have been inflict-The Czar has given permssion to a merchant ed on the through travellers by this detention. can reach the railway station. Be it also re- Dwellings destroyed, - - - - membered, that Kingston is the port of entry of Churches damaged, - - - -KINGSTON.

A Dreadful Tornado in Philadelphia.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY BUILDINGS INJURED. On Saturday night, at about 10 o'clock, a dreadful tornado passed over the city of Phila-Our citizens are very loud in their denuncia- delphia. It lasted about 15 minutes, and during of the empire were daily held, and the result tion of what they commonly call the betrayal of that time the wind blew with tremendous vio- I would be even now; was a formal protest by telegraph against the trust of our representative, because he did not lence. The dust was carried up in clouds, But I'd give far more of my heart's full store palities, as an interference with the internal affairs of Turkey, and a violation of the sovereign above-named contractors, a year ago, obtained roofed, chimnies were blown down, and in Kenrights of the Porte, in those provinces. In spite | the additional £900,000 loan. They opine that sington, particularly, property was destroyed to

Such is the actual state of affairs. Into the non," that the track must be brought through more then one hundred and fifty were more or less injured. Among these were five churches, That human infallibility does not exist on this several manufactories. The panic for a few the Trenton railroad depot, one dye house, and elected chief, are questions which it would be earth, all sensible men admit; that the failing moments was fearful. Many of those who were useless to discuss here No doubt an infinity of to insist on the above condition by our repre- in the streets ran for their lives. Dozens different constitutons might be constructed for sentative was a grave error, none will deny; lence, and several persons were injured in this With a scornful look decide. these states jait is also nearly as certain that no but instead of finding fault, we, should rather, way. We have not heard of the loss of any life, But I'd rather take a hearty shake country to a good and strong, although en- now, endeavor to discover a remedy for the evil. but nine cases of serious injury have been menlightened and patriotic government. The matter | Perhaps we are too severe in the censure of tioned to us. We have no recollection of any must soon be decided, and probably with a our representative, failing to keep in mind that such tornado in Philadelphia. It was preceded by rain, which at some points of the city was

The laure Presbyterian Church, on Frankford The ship owners and agents here are, ordays excepted) at 2 o'clock, P. M., until fur- supposed. The old Tartar obstinacy still lives, terest, but also paid agents of the Company, to road, above Franklin street, has been partially destroyed. The entire roof was stripped off, and carried to a great distance. The main damage "eminent British firm," alias the maelstrom. to the interior was, however, caused by the fal-We should keep in remembrance that he is nei- ling of the gable wall, the bricks from which, ther the paid agent now, nor did he derive any falling inside, crushed the pulpit, and the floor The French Government had become greatly pecuniary benefit from the grand job that was room, occupying the basement. The damage to alarmed at the cattle murrain, which was said at first perpetrated, by which it was said the the building cannot be less than $4,000. The immaculate St. Francis obtained such a hand- congregation held religious services yesterday in an article on the efforts that have been made duty to ascertain that provisions, and all had at the counter of the publishing office of the publishing of the roof and rafters fell into the yard, on the south side. One large piece of roof struck the cantilege for common roads of the roof and rafters fell into the yard, on the south side. One large piece of roof struck the cantilege for common roads of the roof and rafters fell into the yard, on the south side. One large piece of roof struck the some bonus for services rendered. We should in the Kensington Hall. The principal portion to produce a steam carriage for common road The Ministers and other public functionaries enable him to bring a strong pressure to bear on roof and front of an old brick house on the opwere present in uniform. The Emperor was his colleagues. We know he has always mani- posite side of the street, cutting a narrow gash stacles, and will succeed. in the roof, caused by striking it edgeways. The brick wall, between two of the front windows, was demolished. Another large fragment No doubt our peculiar advantages and posi- of the roof was carried about 100 feet from the is no obstruction to Garden Island. Prince Jerome's improvement is going on tion have excited the envy and jealousy of less church, and completely demolished a frame building two storey high, attached to the dwelweekly commercial review :-- No one asking spire against us, and endeavor to deprive us of street. In the lower storey there were three questions of the greater part of the Paris trades- our just rights, educational, commercial, politi- grown persons and six children, all of whommen would suppose that we are on the eve of cal and marine. Will we tamely submit to be escaped without serious damage, though the are they laden with poetry and song. The first lives of three of the children were saved by the breaks upon the view like a procession of picture manufacturing business of Paris is very calm, aboop, and then be told, we will neither form The children were afterwards taken out from art. The second fails upon the ear like a shower

The Brick Church, at Queen and Marlborough to beauty. The former is suggestive of luxury streets, has its roof torn off. Damage about and civilization, of elegance and splendor. The

The Kensington Depot of the Trenton Railroad had about one-fourth of the roof torn off. | words; - one throbs with passion, the other lishes a decree of the Minister of Commerce, ad- your chief magistrate to surrender your char- that presented at the Franklin Iron Works of beauty, which almost disquiet the mind. The Messrs. Sutton & Co., on the wharf. The boiler second discloses views of home which actually Perhaps the interpretation of the law, by shop -a frame structure, 150 feet long by 50 enthral the heart. The former presents to the is supposed to be not much damaged.

Not less than fifty dwellings in this section still dwell in the memory like the perfume of un-

Fourth street, below Thompson, suffered con- sympathy, folds her wings and droops her head,

A three story brick dwelling, at the north- may rise superior to physical weakness, and trated. The occupant of the dwelling, in at- must be sought for in the hearts of the gentle and it is doubtful whether he can recover.

street, were also stripped of their roofs.

occupied by Mr James May, was completely as she, and yet continued calm in the presence crushed by the roof of an adjoining building of the enemy? What man is there who would This, sir, is also very fallacious. If, instead of falling upon it. Mr May's family, consisted of not rather have chosen, with the doomed "six recrosssing the Bath road, adjoining MrAshley's his wife, an old lady, and his six children. Mr bundred," to have rushed into the valley of residence, the track had been kept on the south M. was severely cut about the head and face, death; or to have cheered the victorious eagles

A gentleman from Westchester, informs us the tomb of infection and the taint of the Lazar

Dyehouse destroyed, - - - - -Boiler manufactory destroyed, - - -Stables destroyed, - - - - -Planing mill damaged, - - -

Total damage over, - - - - $100,000 | THE TORNADA IN CAMDEN.

Fences were blown down, houses were unward, two houses in or near Fifth street were honor to one who had achieved a weaponless

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.

At the preliminary Conference of Constantinople the question of the Principalities was departed. The want of hated, but nothing was settled. The want of hated for many years importance can soon be built.—Oswego Times and Journal of the late Chief Justice Reid and the Montreal Insurance, Company, in which a verdict was rendered for memory of the merciful.

Engageria Construction of this link to connect to of our negative to determine at once to hated for many years importance can soon be built.—Oswego Times

The Good Old Plough.

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY - MORE, THAN Let them sing who may of the battle fray, And the deeds that have long since passed Let them chant in the praise of the tar w

Are spent on the ocean vast I would render to those all the worship

To the cause of the good Old Plough. Let them hand the notes that in music float Through the bright and glittering ball, f While the amorous twirl of the hair's bright

Oh, these are sweets which the rustic greets As he follows the Good Old Plough. Full many there be that we daily see, From his hand than to wealth I'd bow,

And the rich and blossoming bough;

For the honest clasp of his band's rough gra Has stood by the Good Old Plough. All honor be then to these good old men, When at last they are bowed with toil; Their warfare is o'er, they battle no more, For they've conquered the stubborn soil. And the chaplet each wears is his silver hair And ne'er shall the victor's brow With a laurel crown to the grave go down,

Like the sons of the Good Old Plough. NEW INVENTION .- Hunt's Merchanis' Magaz " cent invention of Mr Fisher, overcomes all ob

Small boats can now pass through a chann cut in the ice, to the open water, whence ther

Florence hightingale.

From the Toronto Colonist. of music, which night and its stars have attuned latter dwells in the cloister of the forest, and from The Webster Public School House was also the folds of evening sheds its song upon a husbed and weary world.

How dissimilar in association are these two times past woke the night from slumber, and

When, however, we blend these words of magic. meaning, we forget alike the City of Pictures and The Western telegraph lines are all down, the chorister of the forest. The home of art and it will require two or three days to get them | the hymn of nature. We remember only the peerless gentlewoman whose precious name they The St. Luke's Dutch Reformed Church, on express. Imagination, touched by the spell of siderably. A portion of the roof was blown off, in mute homage to the real, the good and the beautiful. The words FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE DOW The roof was cut in two by the force of the wear a household meaning. Henceforward they a meeting was being held in the lower story of has adorned, and record a victory which woman has achieved. They show how moral strength type of bravery than that which has been dis-Four houses on Adams street, adjoining, were played by the gentle FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE? unroofed, and the roofs carried to a great dis- Where is there one who has shed more honor on tance. Four houses on the opposite side of the ber own sex, or provoked more admiration from the opposite, than this gifted maiden? Where The dwelling, No. 160, Shackamazon street, is there one who has faced danger so fearlessly There are a number of editorial articles in the side of that road, and run in almost a straight The old lady received several severe bruises, akoff, than to have followed, day by day, and face of the enemy and the front of the battle to

> Rebecca Smith had her skull fractured in con- Scutari, watching the wasted forms of our solsequence of a shutter blowing against it, which diers, nursing the ebbing life, and hindering, shuttle, and yet, as dilligently weaving, from the warp and woof of charity, a vesture, whose folds should cover her name with blessings, and add new beauty and fresh honor to her sex. See her, like some holy watcher from above, gliding along those dismal passages of suffering. See her, blanched, though not with fear, pale, but not from dread. Look-where she lingers, -stay where she rests, for they are our countrymen. whom she soothes, our soldiers whom she succors. They are the beauty of our bravery, the guardians of our honor, the flower of our youth. Amongst them there may have been a friend, or perchance a kinsman, who, but for her, would now be sleeping in a shallow grave, far away from his manly soul. Let us think of this, and then enquire whether FLORENCE NIGHINGALE has no claim upon us, or whether, we Canadians, should not contribute a few stones to the monument of charity, which in England is being erected to her memory. "What will they say in England," when they

15 remember that Canada, in obedience to the rough appeal of war, contributed so much to alleviate the miseries of the widow and the orphan, and yet closed her hand with a miser's gripe when she victory, to one who, with ungrudging solicitude, had saved the wife from widowhood, by nursing the husband; who had preserved the child from being an out-cast, by care of the father; "What will they say in England" if we continue indif-Accounts from towns in the vicinity of this ferent and send no offerings to the Nightingale A train of loaded freight cars standing near those which start from the ensanguined battle