All fears respecting the safety of the potato crop appear to have vanished, or the old love of our national esculent has prevailed over the doubts, any remained, for as great an acreage has been planted this year as there was previous to 1847. For several succeeding Saturdays hundreds of cars have come from the westward of the country into Ennis for seed, and the quantity of potatoes that has changed hands is almost fabulous. An enormous stock yet remains on hand. and we are aiding the growth with large quantities from Gort and Kinvarra, where the price is some 20 per cent, lower than in Ennis. The prospect of peace has rendered the demand for fat cattle dull, and great confidence is exhibited in the results of the auctions for fat stock coming on during the ensuing fortnight.
