MORTON .-- On Tuesday atternoon at three o'clock the above veteran company proceeded to the residence of James Morton, Esq., headed by Frazer's Saxe Hore Band. the Chief and Assistant Engineers and Officers of the Company, to receive a present of a beautiful Banner from the fair hands of Mrs Morton. After the Company and their friends had par taken of a bountiful lunch laid out on the lawn. Mrs and Miss Morton appeared, accompanied by Mr Morton and his cousin Mr McLaughlin. The latter gentleman on behalf of the fair donor, Then presented the Banner, with an appropriate address, which was replied to by Mr Thomas Palmer, the Captain of the Company. Mr Morton then replied for Mrs Morton, rather briefly but pointedly, after which a few timely remarks were made by Mr J.B. Rogers, and Mr Keeley, and successive cheers given for Mrs Morton, the Fire Department, &c., &c., when the spectators broke through the circle, anxious to obtain a near view of the costly gift. The Banner itema large one, of blue silk, edged with gold. On one side is the portrait of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, sorrounded by a wreath of oak leaves, with the figure of a beaver at the left hand corner --- the motto being "True to our Queen and Country."
