Scald Heads in children, and eruptions on the skin .-- A certain remedy for these complaints. Mrs Marston residing in Quebec, had two childrec afflicted with the most inveterate scald heads; they were also much disfigured with eruptions on the skin, the parents had recourse to a variety of remedies for the alleviation of the little sufferers; many things were tried, but all unfortunately made the children worse, and and at the lowest market prices, mry indeed the virulence increased and spread nearly all over their bodies The parent eventually determined to try Holloway's Uintment and Pills, which she commenced using in accordance with the directions, and by persevering with them for eight weeks, the children were both effectually curad; they have since enjoyed the best of health, and have not had any return of the complaint.

Dr James McClintock's Sucess in treating diseases or the Lungs and Throat, while at the hand of the Philadelphia College of Medicine, has given him a world-wide reputation.
