Execution in San Francisco .-- On | Sailing of the Ocean Steamships. the last of May Nicholas Graham was oung in San Francisco for the munier of N. American ames Brooks, on board the steamer ('o- | Africa Governor Johnson had granted Fulton, him a reprieve of four weeks, during which | Ca ime he did not appear to indulge in a hope of pardon. He left a confession, of which Capade the following is the material portion :--

I desire to publish to the world the par- Africa, uffer death. My name is Nicholas Gra- Indian, did not design to kill him. He had threat- | ory Frid ay morning. ened several times to beat me, and had challenged me to fight him that evening. went on shore expecting to meet him, but did not do so. I was afraid to fight him, as he was more powerful than myself. mped up and ran on deck; I followed one of the toasts of the evening:im and stabbed him again. I acknow- Mr Cameron, in returning thanks, observed besieged place.

all men, freely forgiving all who ever strong; and, while the Americans always spoke, arms. Lord and Saviour.

NICHOLAS GRAHAM.

in the establishment of Mr Joice, No. 387 to the ends of the earth. (Cheers,) Broadway, corner of White street. He was in the habit of opening and closing the they were surprised to find it unopened. we presume. obtained to the munier.

the 8th instant. The ordinary head of the throng, would be made upon him to speak. ammunition having run out, the atter were comthe child is of the natural size, and has a This he did by rapping the meeting on the pelled to submit, and, having given up their really beautiful face; the superfluous head knuckles for spending their time in discussing up to the military prison, where they were projects from the right side of it, and is the merits and demerits of his potent self and lodged for the night. Thus ended one of the about the size of a man's fist. The child the Hon. J. A. Macdonald, instead of the state most fearful days ever spent in Nenagh. has four eyes, four ears, and two mouths, of the Province; and then he fell into the same but there is no chin to the smaller head; category himself, by drubbing Mr Gowan for his injury. Three of the soldiers were wounded; the mouth is deformed, and the eyes have alleged inconsistency in coming there to help one of them had his thighbone broken; a penbecome useless; they have lost their lustre | the government, after having, at a late Bramp- | sioner, named Gibbons, residing in Pound street, | includingand are falling out of their sockets. There ton convention, before receiving a government was shot dead while looking out of his house; is an internal connection between the two commission, declared, "that rather than support heads, for when one mouth works, the oth- | the present government, he would let his right er works; when it cries the sound issues hand be cut off." He then boasted of having the military barrack for the purpose of holding from both; and when the child is fed, the taken the seat of government to Toronto, and an inquest on the bodies of the persons shot second mouth moves as if craving food; dived into the sectarian School Bill, the Romanand we beleive it may be fed at either. ists, the Grand Trunk, the North Shore Road, Up to the present time the child has thriv- and such other pleasant topics, resuming his giment; and Peter Gibbons, Pound-street Penen, and the faculty are divided as to its seat afterwards, with, no doubt, most self-comprospect of existence, some holding that it placent feelings, "amidst the most enthusiastic may live about a fortnight longer, while cheering." others seem to reason why its days may After a series of criminations and recriminations are recriminations. not be prolonged to the natural term of tions from both sides, Mr T. Brunskill, a highly looking young fellow, about 28 years of age, and quench the fire. It appears the fire criginated Cabinet could not unite to fix upon a permanent found hanging in Jackson's Bush, beyond selves. No reason had in his opinion been shown Curley. the Heights, Hamilton. The jury return- for a dissolution of parliament, and he therefore ned by the Coroner. I was in the military bar- liament building ought to be established in any cause a blunder, or typographical error. The body must have been hanging for some time, as it was much decomposed. The deceased seemed to have been of a rather to any schemes of a mere party or factious charflorid complexion, about fiv feeet nine or actor; and tooking upon the turmoil of a general ten inches high, middling stout, with black election, and the agitation of the people, when hair, and whiskers inclined to be sandy. __ no great interest is at stake (laughter), no great and definite object in view, and naught but There was nothing in his pockets but an mere personal feelings to be gratified, as injur old pipe, tobacco and matches. His clothes ous to the progress and prosperity of the Pr were respectable, as follows :- A straw hat | vince, hereby resolve to abstain from any expresa greyish drab coat, plush vest, with false som of opinion until they see some great obj sides, stripped blue and white shirt, linen prosperity and peace of the Province promoted pants, and boots. The neckerchief was thereby. was black silk.

Louisville Journal, is everywhere affected by it in Kentucky. It is shorn of its strength and rendered utterly powerless, and rendered utterly powerless, great enthusiasm."

I also ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran away. I should not know the man who fired the shot. When it was said the man was shot the Militiaman and the people ran was afraid to bring forward in his place in market closing firm with a fair business.

After some further evidence.

Rever Floure scarce and in request at better vote is the greatest. The defeat of Mr indication of the bias of public opinion in the Buchanan is a fixed fact. His party was metropolis, and will be made use of by the of gunshot wounds inflicted by some person on Millar, and after a strict enquiry into all the already greatly in the minority in the North would-be leader and his fellow agitators and and this reent defection from it has been echoers as additional capital for the summe so immense, so beyond all calculation, that | campaign. there is now not the slightest proability After a long discussion the following original e given to its candidate.

Havre, TO ARRIVE. Liverpool Boston. Havre, Liverpool, intervals for the past two years. At the Single copies of the Chronicle and News ings is taken from the Neuagh Guardian of Wedtime I killed Joseph Brooks I had been on sontaining the news of the week may be had, in nesday :-

the steamer for nearly three months. I vrappers for mailing. Price 4d, each, Issued

SATURDAY NORNING, JULY 26.

trophe. (Cheers.) England could afford to ture A murder of a most horrible nature was | concede, and the world would be spared the

The Hon. Dominick Daly, late Provincia store, and for that purpose slept in it at night. On the night in question it was closed as usual, but when the electronic and for that purpose slept in it at vernor of Prince Edward Island, has had the ly, occurring.

Secretary of this Province, and now Lieut. Goparty returned to the party returned to the to their business on the morning of the 18th

They knocked, but got no answer. The | The long threatened public meeting came of door was then opened by force, and the in Toronto on Wednesday evening, where the whole place was covered with blood, and advocates of the immediate dissolution of the Burke dead in a small room adjoining the Parliament carried their resolutions to that efshop. The place bore evidence of a fierce feet; but not without a tolerably fair show of with the regulars. Before the soldiers proceeded the fire broke out. struggle. The supposition is that he was dissent. George Brown, of course, is in ecsta- far down Castle-street they were received with a attacked while sleeping in his bed, and cles, and fills no less than three whole columns then the struggle was continued until the of his paper with the speeches made on the ocdeceased was despatched by repeated casion. Mr John McMurrick moved the resolu- fire, -which was responded to by another dis- most of it was safely removed. His body was greatly mangled. | tion (which we give below), which he support | charge from the Militia. A continuous roll of His skull was broken and his throat cut. ed by reiterating the various charges of corrup-The whole affair is involved in the greatest tion and incompetency of which so much capi- that the line, inot wishing to take away life, £200. mystery. Not the slightest clue can be tal has been made within the last six months, there being many persons in the streets at the and with which most people are familiar. Mr | time, fired into the air. While this was going | nent danger of Mr Gibb's store being burnt, he George Holland, in seconding the resolution, on in the street a strong party of the military did not move his stock, and it was uniquired. Two-HEADED CHILD .- The birth of a pursued the same strain, and was highly ap- Here they fell in with a body of the Militia, who on in removal. child with two heads has created much plauded. The principal speakers on the side of | took to the fields, and threw themselves into skir. gossip during the last few days in the lo- | the administration were Messrs. Bowes, W. B. | mishing order, displaying the utmost coolness | short cality of Temple-street, Bristol, and indeed Robinson, T. Brunskill, D. B. Read, Duncan Mcwherever the intelligence of the arrival of Donell, and Geo. Platt, all very good men in this curious little stranger has reached. | their respective stations. George Brown said The mother is the wife of Mr. Lock, be only went there as a spectator, but hee ould baker, 120 Temple-street, and the child, a not resist the repeated "calls" which he knew, boy, is living, and was a fortnight old on when his "braw beed" was seen towering above ing, to retire also. After a feeble resistance, their

Where's respectable merchant, characterized the promoters of the meeting as " nothing but political and not married. On Thursday a man name unknown was adventurers-men desirous of serving them-

That the people of this meeting, consisting of "The amendment was seconded by Mr Mc-Donell and, on being put to the meeting, only it. When the shot was fired I heard that a sol- suage the sufferings of the unfortunate man; The Democratic party," says the obout twenty persons stood up for it. The dier was killed. The man who fired ran away. I should not know the man time to live.

The Democratic party," says the obout twenty persons stood up for it. The laso ran away. I should not know the man love the remainder of his speech to a condemnation lowe and Wisconsin; $6,60 a 7 for common to of Mr. Brown who he said stated things to that the vote of a single Northern State will resolution was carried by an overwhelming ma-

Whereas this meeting have witnessed with re-, dated last night, contains the following particu- Dinner to the Ministry at London, C. W. themselves, and they resigned. When His Exgret and indignation recent proceedings of the lars :-Provincial Legislature and Executive, and being fully 19 of opinion that if an appeal were now made to July 23 | the people a change of policy must ensue - be it lug. 2 Gevernor General, praying His Excellency to 'Aug. 16 dissolve the present Parliament, and to cause warrants to be issued for a general election, and June 21 that His Worship the Mayor do sign the said me 25 | memorial in behalf of this meeting.

The Mutiny in the Tipperary Militia.

man on the steamer Columbia at various bad at the counter of the publishing office account of Tuesday's and Wednesday's proceed- entire in file into the base used more discount of Tuesday's proceed- entire in file into the base used more discount of Tuesday's proceed- entire in file into the base used more discount of Tuesday's proceed- entire in file in file in file in file in the base used more discount of Tuesday's proceed- entire in file in file Dunalley, Mr R. Gason, and some other magis- zation and redistribution, leaving small balances knife, and stabbed him several times; he ent, and is thus reported to have responded to prevail on the men to unfix their bayonets. some form other, and it is but fair that those who The shops were all closed, business was suspen- promote it should have their money.

pirituous liquors is the cause of my com- which arose from the kind and fostering hand more, and were halted opposite the church. Here and if the notice of my execution and the they had broken the fetters that galled them, ed admittance. There was no reply—it was a fellow creatures from following in my foot- their resources, directing their energies, siding single file and surrounded the barrack walls. steps, and induce him to refrain from the their enterprises, and conferring upon them the Fortunately, not a shot was fired at the military. use of man's greatest curse-Rum-I feel | inestimable boon of self-government. (Cheers.) | There was here, however, only a small portion lonies possessed at the time of the Revolution, conded by Lord Dunalley, succeeded, after some rate of 1,629 per annum. I die in peace and good will towards their attachment to England was steadfast and difficulty, in getting quiet possession of their siderations of humanity and religion must be in- wounded, and he died shortly after. The othvoked, and concessions made to avert the catas- | or man's wounds are not of a very serious na-perpetrated in New York on the night of spectacle of the two great Protestant nations of streets of the Militia. On arriving near the mar- tions. the 17th, or on the morning of the 18th the earth warring against each other, and wast- ket-cross they were fired at by some of them, who inst. Bartholomew Burke lived as porter in peace might extend religion and civilization streets. The officer got his men into skirmishing streets. The officer got his men into skirmishing order and succeeded in dislodging the Militia from their position, and drove them into Poundstreet Barracks. Having effected their object, the on Tuesday night. party returned without any casualty, fortunate-> command of Major-General Chatterton, K.H., ornament to the neighbourhood. who, accompanied by his Aide-de-Camp, Major |- Mr Lazare was insured in the Phoenix to th Foster, and Colonel Muller, Deputy-Assistant- extent of £1,250. We trust this will cover his Adjutant-General, had just arrived from Limer- loss on stock, but his furniture and other housetremendous volley from a body of Militia, who was fully insured. had again stationed themselves at the marketcross. The front rank of the Line returned the on his stock in the London and Liverpool, but musketry was then kept up for about five min- Reilly's Saloon. It was insured in the London utes, and the result must have been awful, only and Liverpool for £500, and in the Monarch for and duty. All they asked was that the publi were despatched up by the new Court-house. and determination-it may be added bravery-in their encounter with the Line. They were, however, soon overcome, and had to beat a hasty retreat. The military then proceeded round by had rooms at Reilly's, and lost nearly every-Cudville to the Pound-street Barracks, where thing, as did Miss Phillips, the actress, who they met the street party, who had compelled the lived in the same house. Militia at the Market-cross, after some sharp firarms, they were made prisoners and marched we regret to say that this last engagement was attended with serious loss of life and personal and two children were more or less injured.

"INQUEST ON THE BODIES. On Wednesday Mr T. T Abbott proceeded to dead the previous evening. The following are racks here yesterday. I attended as a migistrate posed, to remove some money which she had in consequence of a munity among the Tipperary privately laid up, but the flames were so great establish the Seat of Government in that sec-Regiment of Militia, and offered my assistance in she could not get out again. Mr McAnally, her tion of the Province in which they were most you wonder at the general accuracy of restoring order among them. With regard to husband, tried to get her out through a win- interested. Mr Wilson, it was probable, would newspapers? Knowing this to be the the death of the soldier Curley, I saw the occur- dow; he being outside, the fire surrounded him have voted for London, if he were present. fact, you will be more disposed, we hope, to rence take place. I saw a man dressed in red also, and during his attempt to save her life the (Laughter.) Quebec, however, was carried. come up to the small door of the barrack en- roof fell in, and precipitated her from his grasp Now I bring to your recollection that the build- excuse than magnify errors of the press." trance and discharge his firelock; the man that into the burning ruins of the building. Cath- ings used for Parliamentary purposes had been fired was within a few yards of the deceased at erine O'Connel then succeeded in dragging him burned down, and I may state that we ought to the time. The deceased was only in the act of en- out of the flames, but was seriously burned in restore them, and at the same time we thought tering the gate when he was shot. The man the effort. She then removed the burning par- that their re-construction would but tend to the then fell. The soldiers closed round him, and ticles of his night-dress, but he appeared to be prolongation of the alternate system, we brough the perpetrator disappeared. That is all I know no more than a living mass of matter. But to in the estimate in obedience to the vote of the about the matter. Who the person was that fired give a full picture of this dreadful tragedy House. the shot I cannot say.

"The jury returned a verdict 'That the de- sister to lament his death.

THE MUTINY AT NENAGH.

" NENAGH, Wednesday.

"The town is quiet to-day. It is said that bands last night will be tried by the civil power. A great many deserted last night, taking their arms and appointments with them. The terrific. It was there all the damage was done. | ed to about 115. The number of Militia wounded in barracks is six, and it is supposed many of those who went away are wounded. Eight or ten soldiers of the Line are wounded. In the case of Peter Gib-The Irish journals bring full details up to a bons, who was shot by one of the 55th Regi- ty's Canadian Administration," and in doing so

"Yesterday morning the Militia stopped the | More Amusements.—The citizens of Kingston | France, and taking into account her advantages Limerick coach, and searched it, imagining it and of other places as well, owe a deal of gratimight be conveying away ammunition, but tude to their American cousins for the variety nadians were priest-ridden; they bowed to the Tache was a prominent member—This Col. on its journey. We learn that they have been of amusements and novelties introduced from Pope only in spiritual matters; and quoted some running bullets the greater part of the day. time to time for their especial pleasure and en- acts passed by the Lower Canadian Assembly They carry their arms with them through the streets, and fire them at pleasure. At half-past joyment. With Panora was Circuses, the Bear-lies were as tolerant, if not more so, than Eng-At a dinner given in London by the celebra- I o clock all the men from Pound-street passed Woman and theatricals, their surplus quarters lish Protestants. and became intoxicated. I went on board | ted American Banker, Mr Peabody, on the late | up to the Summerhill barracks, armed. Lord | are kept bright by constant alternate centraliin that state. Brooks was lying in his berth; I went up to him, and drew my lond. J.H. Cameron, of this Province, was pres-earned for liquor, and have drank deeply. harsh stepmother; she had coerced and chained sident magistrate, to Summer hall barrack, each to sident magistrate, to Summer hall barrack, each ton, and let the principle of agriculture be put tenor of our way; and now, gentlemen, I am forth and carried on, and the day is not far off write this for publication after my death; into their souls, and in their anger and despair reaching the barrack-gate the Coloner demand- think themselves perfection. She sings well, happy to see that the wisdom of our course has cool as it he were going to a review. On her bust takes the shift of the barrack-gate the Coloner demand- think themselves perfection. She sings well, happy to see that the wisdom of our course has cool as it he were going to a review. On her bust takes the shift of the barrack-gate the Coloner demand- think themselves perfection. She sings well, happy to see that the wisdom of our course has cool as it he were going to a review. On her bust takes the shift of the barrack-gate the Coloner demand- think themselves perfection. She sings well, happy to see that the wisdom of our course has cool as it he were going to a review. On her bust takes the shift of the barrack-gate the Coloner demand- think themselves perfection. cause of the commission of the crime for and severed the chain that bound them. To moment of dread suspense! He placed his hand and dances better than any she bear ever the opposition thus thrown in our way, we sucwhich I suffer, should deter but one of my the new colonies she had been a gentle and on the gate and it opened to his touch. He adshown here or elsewhere. Go see her by all ceeded in obtaining the consent of Parliament on the gate and it opened to his touch. He adnursing mother, assisting them to develope vanced, followed by his men, who opened into a means.

Look at the advertisement-"Theatre Royal"

POPULATION OF HAMILTON .-- The census of Hamthat I shall not have lived and died in vain. And mark what has been the results: with of the Militia, from whom Lieutenant-Colonel ilton, just completed, shows a population of nearly a million of people more than the old co- | Maude and the other Tipperary officers, ably se- | 21,855, against 18,596 in 1854. Increase at the few words respecting these measures. It is well injured me, as I hope to be forgiven. I when about to visit the Old World, of "going on a considerable number of the Militia from the Pound- was given by Mr Peabody, at the Star and Gardown and obtained from the house £900,000 for the construction of that great national work, the am deeply and sincerely repentant, and when they crossed the seas, "coming home to street Barracks were prowling outside about the ter, Richmond, to upward of 100 American and a the construction of that great national work, the humbly ask for mercy from God, whose laws I have broken, relying on the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our blessed and mediation of the Jesus Christ our blessed and mediation of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed and the continent of the Jesus Christ our blessed a without a shudder; but men must not shut their longing to the 47th and 41st through the key- pendence of the United States. The grand it was an absolute necessary. After pointing eyes to the possibility of such an event, and con- bole of the gate. One of the men was mortally dining ball was fitted up for the advantages of their work with the Grand every particular. Not one of them but is better busts of the Queen and of Washington, the A merican eagle, the standards of England and "An officer's party was then sent to clear the | the United States, and other appropriate decora- £2,000,000 now about to be raised in order to

The Late fire.

We give a few further particulars of the fire Mr Romain was insured in the sum of £2,000. which will cover his loss, -one half was in the "Shortly, after 8 o'clock 200 men of the 21st | Monarch, and the other half in the London and arrived from Parsonstown. Having joined the Liverpool. We hope he will give us, in place of tailed account of its inception and objects. This ble of governing the city, and least likely to ob-Templemore troops, the entire body, under the the burnt building, something which will be an

Mr Johnson, who occupied the adjoining shop, Mr Hugh Ross, grocer, was also fully insured

Mrs. Savage owned the house occupied as Though there appeared to be the most immi-His furniture, insured in the Phoenix, was brok- capabit of discharging our duty by those who robe and books. He re-opens to night. Mons. Opposition for resistance to the London and St and Madame Bouxary, attached to his company, Mary's Railway Bill.

The Monarch had £150 on Fuller's carpenter | are ready to resign.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

ing the contemplated visit of His Excellency the | the promptness with which the Ministry had ings ago, a lady to whom this gentleman was in-Governor General will be defrayed out of the But | private resources of the gentlemen of the committee and other spirited citizens, and not, as on a previous occasion, out of the taxes squeezed from the small incomes of petty householders, MANY POOR WIDOWS.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE .- A MAN AND HIS WIFE BURNED TO DEATH

NEAR NEWBORO-INQUEST. house was on fire about a quarter of a mile from | he need say nothing more in reference to that sioner. Curley, the soldier of the 41st, had on- the Village of Newboro. The fire was first dis- subject. But he would take the bull by the ly recently returned from the seat of war, having covered by Catherine O'Connel, who was an in- borns in regard to that awful matter, the £50,000 laklava. He had three medals for his services Mr and Mrs McAnally, being in bed, got up, and friend the Attorney General and himself had has left a widow and three young children. The two Militiamen were each about 25 years old, wind, which then blew a pretty hard gale, the enlisted in different interests. Therefore the column of a newspaper contains from ten has left a widow and three young children. The in the cook-house, and from its position with place for the Seat of Government, as members would be too appalling to our senses, therefore "Henry Fraser examined .- I live in Nenagh. I must close the description of this melancho I was standing outside the wicket-gate yester- scene. In the meantime Dr Mil'nr was in atday and saw a Militianuan fire a shot in through | tendance, and did everythidg in his power to as-persons unknown; and that the death of the circumstances the Jury returned the following koughnet. soldier Curley, of the 41st Regiment, was verdict:—"That the deceased, Henry McAnal-

(Reported For the Globe.)

Tais event came off on Tuesday evening at the City Hotel, London; the Mayor in the chair-The Ministers present were, Messrs. Tache, Macdonald, Cayley, Spence, Morrison and Vanfiring at 9 o'clock last night in Pound street was | koughnet. The number of those present amount-

The Mayor gave " the Members of Her Majes-

Canada, Lower Canada had no imigrants from Mr Lawrason proposed "the health of the Attorney-General West."

ledge my guilt and the justice of my sentence of death. I am satisfied to die; I feel that I deserve to. The free use of the late of the ledge of the late of the lat Julia Pastrana - what desecration of a opposition offered to government, last session. the French Canadians? Do they wish to drive ing to this disgraceful end. For the past seven or eight years I have worked constantly; I have spent all the money that I sures, the additional aid to the Grand Trunk | right itself. and the North Shore Railroad; the former involving £2,000,000 and the latter, 4,000,000 "The Press," which was responded to by Mr W. acres of public land. And now, I would say a Talbot of the Prototype. known that we did not initiate the Grand Trunk. We found that road commenced and in progress of completion £3,000,000 of the public over seven millions of dollars. The New York money being sunk in it. We subsequently came | Hera'd says :-- 'The people of London, Paris, Trunk, the hon, gentleman proceeded to say, governed, better kept, better managed, and at a that even taking the very worst view of the less cost, than the metropolis of republican case, and that the Province had to pay the complete the road-still, the Province would the genius of our republican institutions has have made a magnificent bargain. They would been violated and destroyed by the rogues and be in possession of a road worth £12,000,000 for bullies who have of late years controlled our which they would only pay £5,000,000. They would be in possession of an arterial line of railway, which would, he fondly hoped, but I e the party nominations has excluded from office the beginning of a series of improvements which men who could have procured us an efficient and would render Canada the wonder of the world. economical government, and placed power in With reference to the other scheme - the North Shore Railroad—the hon, gentleman gave a de- the hands of the very men who were least capagreat Provincial line was composed of five lines, ject to spending our money." which, separately, would not pay, and it was in order to induce English capitalists to invest their money in the undertaking that the great | pocketing a package of gloves, while making Provincial line from Lake Hurch to Quebec was | some purchases, accused of the theft, and with ick, proceeded to take possession of the Pound- hold articles were uninsured and were all des- projected. This great line embraced all these tears handed out a $20 bill to pay for the stolen

"To their faults a little blind, circumstances, he maintained that even had we to give away eight million acres of the public domain, we ought to be well content with the bargain, The hon, gentleman then proceeded having acted from the best and purest motives.

and should never swerve from the path of honour to say that the Government were conscious

And to their virtues always kind. We do our best, and when we are found inplaced us in our present responsible position, we

Mr Anderson gave "Public Improvements and Mr Nickinson's loss is $600, mostly on ward- | the Inspector General," and condemned the few days. Canadian bonds had reached the high- was all consumed before they reached port. est pitch at which they had ever sold. Last spring they had reached 104, last July 110, and sprung forward to meet their habilities had much to do with the accomplishment of so much. In | tion : the matter of the Grand Trunk enterprize, I saw nothing to regret save that we were obliged to assist the contractors and shareholders, although | Ply. we did so in a manner which we deemed most compatible with the interests of the Province. And I must say that I fear we may have again to appeal to Parliament on the same case, although I hope my fear may prove a groundless one, and that the work worthy of an empire will be carried out without further provincial Lake George. aid. The North Shere Railroad was also alluded to by the Attorney General, and as gentle-On the morning of Saturday, the 19th July, men present, besides hearing his remarks, were

> Mr Horton proposed "the Spread of Knowledge and our Educational Institutions." Hon. Mr Spence, in responding to the toast, nearly sixty years of age, and has left an only Mr Schram proposed "Our Municipal Institutions," to which Hon. Mr Morrison responded that I would be of some service, and was asked to come forward, and it was with great reluctance I did so. I took office from the same view that have prompted you to give this bauquet. I knew the Opposition had not the country's interests at heart, and I concluded that if I could not aid, my bounden duty was to give up the project. If my friend Col. Tache had taken a course, as he was personally entitled to After the usual loyal toasts had been propos- my confidence, and had a character unstained. it was my duty to aid him; at the same time, knowing that I could resign at any moment, when the need of it arose. Some of my friends said I was joining a priest-ridden party by athem; I was born in the County of Armagh, Ireland; I do not remember my look was shot by one of the both Regimagh, Ireland; I do not remember my look was shot by one of the both Regiment, the jury returned the following verdict: was born in the County of Arlook warmly in favour of the Grand Trunk, late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the

late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the look warmly in favour of the Grand Trunk,
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the
late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the late hour on Wednesday, 9th, at which time the late h honestly for a living. I have been a fire bad at the counter of the subjoined bad at the subjoined bad at the counter of the subjoined bad at the counter of the subjoined bad at the subjoined bad at the subjoin account of Tuesday's and Wednesday's proceed- cretion in firing into the house of a respectable making a political speech, but entered into a denecks? Is the Colonel to be accused of bigotry because he is a Catholic? And by whom? By John Wilson, the member for London, who of the Province. He denied that the Lower Ca- support the very Government of which Col. Tache, who has a name unspotted, whose glory has been tested on the battle plains, and who now stands up for his country's good. Could this Opposition form a Government with the assistance of Lower Canada? Mr Mackenzie will say "dissolve the Union, let Lower Canada have no share," and by system we shall be placing the Roman Catholics under our heel, Mr Attorney-General Macdonald, after some preliminary observations, said :- This province and try to keep them out by a band of excluis now, as it were, at the threshold of nation. Sion. But when the time came the words would hood, knocking to get in. And we will shortly be "oh, if you will take us in we will join you." be admitted and take our place among the na- Now, we wish to act like men, and face the tions of the earth. Nor will such a proud posi- matter. We wish to reconcile the two Proal proceeded to comment on the nature of the olics. I ask them what they intend to do with been so much approved. Notwithstanding all Canada; but if these factions continue it will to the passage of those two most important mea- and do an irreparable injury that may never &

The hon, gentleman concluded by proposing

This was the last toast.

The taxes of New York, for 1856, will foot up America. What is the reason? Simply that A lady, in Cincinnatti was recently detected street Barracks, where the Militia seemed resol- troyed. Mr Martin Lazare, who resided with small lines, and would, it was conceded, be the package. The merchant took out $5 and gazare. ved to make a determined stand and fight it out him, saved nothing but the clothes he wore when most effectual means of opening up all the waste her the change. Subsequently be discovered lands lying in its vicinity. Now, under these that the $20 bill was a counterfeit!

The large steamship telegraphed as having passed River du Loup at 7 p.m. on Saturday, proved to be the screw transport Taurus, (No. 23) Capt. Langlads, which arrived at noon yesterday, in fifteen days from England. She has on board heavy ordnance stores and ammunition for Quebec and Halifax, and the wives and families of three officers, as passengers. The Vulcan is now fully due, and may be hourly expected. The Vulcan has since arrived .--- Quebec Chroni-

The New York Herald of Monday, says :- The sloop Julia, seven days from Bermuda, came into Barnegat Inlet on Wednesday last, with three soldiers of the 26th Regiment of the British army on board. The vessel was seized by the Custom House officers at Barnegat. It is supposed the soldiers are deserters, and have stolen Hon. Mr Cayley, in speaking to the toast said, the sloop: They had no compass, and started that one of the best proofs of the success of their | with no other provisions than four loaves of public improvements was, that within the last bread and about ten gallons of water, which

A good anecdote is told of Ali Pacha, the Sul-Sin: -It is to be hoped the expenses attend- now they are at a premium of 118. No doubt tan's Grand Vizier, now in Paris. A few eventroduced at a soiree, bazarded the naive ques-

" Is the Sultan married?" "A great deal, Madam," was the Turk's re-

It is said that in their concert tour of the last ten months, Mdlle. Parodi and M. Strakosch have netted over $50,000. They have given togethes two hundred concerts in various cities of the United States, closing their tour at Toronto, C. W., by a concert last week, and they are now at FATAL ACCIDENT .- One of the hands their names :- Dennis Toohey and Patrick Tra- inst, about two o'clock, a cry of fire was heard aware that the same course was pursued with belonging to a barge, loaded with iron ore, cey, Tipperary Militia; Patrick Curley, 41st Re- from the premises of Henry McAnally, whose that scheme as was applied to the Illinois line, was last night killed. It appears he went down into the cabin, and was in the act of been at the battles of Alma, inkermann, and Ba- mate of the house, and who gave the first alarm. grant, and in relation to which his honorable heavily loaded, fell in crushing him instanlighting his pipe, when the deck, being taneously. We have not heard his name. - Ottawa Monarchist.

However, they succeeded in removing a good of the Seat of Government, and he for one be- to twenty thousand distinct pieces of met-"Lord Duralley was the first witness exami- deal of their furniture, bedding, &c., after which lieved that the time had not come when the Par- al, the displacing of one of which would

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Thursday, July 24-2 P.M. Flour, &c. - The Flour Market is 5 a ten cents better on common and medium grades with a fair demand for export and a moderate inquiry for home consumption

Sales 10,000 bbls at $6 a 6,10 for common to. good superfine State, (one lot sold as high as congratulate I London on the promising display bulk of the sales at $6,25 a 6,30). $6,10 a 6,50 $6,15)$6, 25 a 6,50 for extra State, (with the

Rye Flour scarce and in request at better prices. Sales 409 bbls at $2,75 a 4,75 for common fine to choice superfine. Mr Cooper proposed the health of Mr Van- firm at $6,25 for Pots and $7,75 for Pearls. Ashes-Are in fair demand and the market is caused by a soldier of the North Tipperary Mill- ly and Ann McAnally, came to their deaths by Hon. P. M. Vankenghnet in acknowledging er with rather more inquiry; Sales 350 bbls at being burned in endeavoring to save their of the toast, said I have been long an attentive ob- $20,12 a 20,25 for mess; and $17,37 a $17,50 fects out of their dwelling-house, which was server of the struggles of the Government. I for prime, Beef steady; Sales 100 bbls at yesterdestroyed by fire on the morning of the 19th | watched their course, and also that of the Op- | days quotation; Beef Hams firm with sales of A second edition of the Limerick Reporter, July, 1856, and that the jury have no evidence position. I saw the late Government adopt a Indiana at $15,50 and Chicago a $16.50; prime plan, the only one they equid do in honor to mess Ecof nominally the same.