Holloway's Ointment and Pills a certain remedy for E ysipleas. -Thomas Hilton, of Toronto, was a most severe and hopeless sufferer from Hall Stoves, Fenders and Fire irons, cut crystal this powerful and irritable disorder for upwards | China and Earthenware, Superior Feather Beds, pitiable, large purple blotches came all over his body, and made him a complete object of horror to himself, as well as to all his friends. consulted many medical men, in the hope of being benefitted, but without success. Determined not to be baffled, and in spite of what the faculty had told him, he determined as a last resource, to commence using Holloway's Ointment and Pills :/these two remedies, used conjointly, for a short space of time, effected a perfeet cure, and he now enjoys the most robust health, after years of intense suffering.

The following, clipped from a recent English paper, shows strikingly the effects produced upon personal appearance by a recent discovery, well worthy of being called the greatest discovery of the age. But to the quotation.

"In the fall of 1853, a distinguished friend of ours, Lord C -, visited the United States, and while there spent some time in the city of St. Louis, where his attention was called, by means of a circular, to the testimony of a well-known and distinguished statesman of Illinois in favor of a restorative for the hair, together with the testimony of many other distinguished gentlemen and ladies, all going to the same point.
