in the vicinity, and took the $400 in discharge of the debt.

monstrated the rapid progress thus far consternation for a time. nade, and which, in the language of the Directors' report, far exceeded their mos! and allotment of shares in the capital the congregation of the Index at Romeffis John stock of the Society, already amounts to a Stuart Mill's Principles of Political economy. during the ensuing official year.

the profitableness and security of invest- ceive their grants of bounty lands. nts made in such institutions, and upon the advantages offered by this corporation. The sale of Dry Goods, &c., at Jackson's They speak with feelings of pride, of the commenced yesterday, will be continued to-day position, wealth, and influence of the suband influential list of assured members—detention occurred at Point Clair, but of what were smashed to places, a can of wathat this example of personal retaliation is the commencement of the high respectability of the various.

In relinquishing the trust with which they of his hats were smashed to places, a can of wathat this example of personal retaliation is the commencement of the children to and of the high respectability of the various | nature we could not learn. Local Boards and Committees of Management established throughout the British North American Provinces. the Society greatly in detail. After the reading of the Report, the proper sustenance.

upon the Science of Life and Health As- gentlemen. All the London papers of the 17th effected, on account of the inconveniency of the pate in their revelries. By these miserable its operations; its importance and walue which the Duke of Cambridge has acted in this building for five years. It was in a very delapto all classes of society, of whatever class, case. His lordship not anticipating the summary ideted state, but by the judicious expenditure of themselves. its operations; its importance and walue which the Duke of Cambridge has acted in this Temperance, they took a lease of the present regiment, and to drive them out of it, to make creed, or degree; the security and stabilicy; illustrated briefly its benefits, and thorities. The Times says:-We need showed that the engagements contracted therefore, congratulate Lord E. V. Tempest of by the Society had always been fulfilled being rid of his suspense, the 4th Light Drain consequence, its success had been great having had the good sense to apply a speedy and scientific works, at a cost of upwards of remody to a cryingfaril and rapid, and a firmly-established reputa- | remedy to a crying evil. tion for honorable action obtained, which It has been officially announced in Great total of 1,701 volumes, for the benefit of the At the election in Saugeen a young man tion for honorable action obtained, which It has been officially announced in Great members; and to the Reading-room have been insanity, the responsibility of his having by the polling place in Sydenbam, fell from his allowed to go at large must rest elsewhere. by calling upon the members, shareholders, ern will be launched about the middle of April burgh Scotsman, Anglo-Saxon, Leslie's Illustraand agents of the Society present, for an next. Her boilers were to be ready before the ted Times, Scientific American, Punch, Household business of the Society.

exander Dufresne, Esq., Louis P. Fontaine Brunel, had matured his plans for her launch. from the Institute. Esq., A. L. Graveley, Esq., James Bureigh, Esq., Donald M.Kay, Esq., P. R. IUR MANUFACTURED BY STRAM.-Mr E. Meriam amount of reading. The number of books nd various other members and sharehold- | ufacture of ice :-ers present. After the adoption of the This afternoon I have been engaged in exam- The Debating Class was not carried on last Directors' report, the meeting proceeded cold by artificial means. The mechanic after to the election of Directors for the ensuing having worked for an hour brought down the room available in the old building; but, having clared by the scrutineers duly elected: - ty-four degrees below zero, which was the low- is to be hoped that the members of the Institut Charles Daoust, Esq., M.P.P., J. G. Bi- est degree marked on the scale. I cut an apple during the ensuing winter, will take a warm in Lafrenay, Esq., James H. Phillips, Esq., pass through a vacuum, and in a few minutes it | With regard to the financial state of the af V. P. W. Dorion and P. E. Picault, Esq., was frozen. This machine has been two years fairs of the Institute, although the balance ex-M. D .- Montreal Pilot.

days ago, which shows that this world is is separated from the others by what may be ourselves as being in a very favorable position to make a narrow, unlit channel; action-"By a reference to your books and, steering a little too far to the north, you will find, sir, that you did so; for of a light at the Brandy Pots; and it af- I regarded it as a loan; and at my request rds an illustration of the necessity of that you made a memorandum of the amount. which we have before urged; the proper | The retired merchant consulted his papers ective lighting of the River and Gulf. and found that his German friend was prose it was not! The loan; in twenty-seven years, had till daylight, hence explained how well he could afford it) . The steamer Advance, we paid to the benefactor of his youth over nd passengers to Quebec. The We doubt whether the money afforde d part of the passengers, destined half as much pleasure to the recipient a ached this city yesterday the recollection it called up of the past, the following particulars of the loss of the Allan

Buchanan. Pennsylvania and New Jersey have in bringing five of the crew safely ashore, before decided in his favor. The result in New York | the vessel went to pieces, being assisted by Mr I is doubtful; the indications were that it had or four vessels in harbor dragged their anchors. | into Port Rowan, where they were hospitably and one, the Lilla Dancy, of Goderich, was driv- | treated by Mr Stearne, of Stearne's Hotel. en ashore on Point Frederick.

held at the Society's large and commodious fell crashing through the hurricane deck and Matthew Doyle, and Joseph Rinsley, seamen. ms of the Society in its various de- scalded to death, and two gentlemen were se- with a cargo of some 250 tons of valuable Bos- in the regiment. All this was done in the nts were submitted, which fully de- verely scalded. The passengers were in great ton merchandize for parties all over the west, most insulting and offensive manner. So fa

POLITICAL ECONOMY .- Among the books recipations. The subscription | cently prohibited to Roman Catholic readers by

Among the immigrants who arrived at New y state that the whole of the re- served in the Crimea in the British army. They naining shares will be subscribed for, and came in uniform, and were landed with their the final issue of shares fully completed knapsacks on their backs. They were received by Mc Webb, of the British Consulate, who will Their report dwells particularly upon conduct them to Canada, where they are to rescribers to the capital stock-of the large P.M. did not reach the station till after 5. The to submit the following Report:

The Report enters into the business of Society greatly in detail.

The Report enters into the business of died from exposure to the weather and want of the foot of Queen street. He had evidently hope that its usefulness and prosperity will be the foot of Queen street. He had evidently hope that its usefulness and prosperity will be the foot of Queen street. He had evidently hope that its usefulness and prosperity will be the foot of Queen street. He had evidently hope that its usefulness and prosperity will be the foot of Queen street. He had evidently hope that its usefulness and prosperity will be had committed and a literal and the first provides the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and a literal and the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and a literal and the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and a literal and the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and the first provides and prosperity will be had committed and the first provides and provides and provides and provides and provides and provides and provides are also and provides and provides and provides and provides are also and provides and provides are also and provides and provides and provides are also an

and addressed the meeting at some length | missed from the army for conduct unbecoming | then occupied, no permanent progress could be sources or the dispositions, or both, to particiwarance; the principles recognized in all October notice with satisfaction the manner in premises; and, in conjunction with the Sons of means they endeavour to disgust them with the ty of the system; its nature and tenden. pense in which he was kept by the military auwith the most scrupulous exactitude, and his Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge for expression of their views relative to the close of the present month. The propelling Words and Harper's Magazine. The Readingmachinery was in good progress. The plates on Room is now furnished with twenty-seven pa-The meeting was then addressed by Al- her hull were nearly all fixed. The engineer, portant addition to the benefits to be derived.

afrenay, Esq., J. G. Bibaud, Esq., M.D., describes a machine made in Ohio for the man-

The following gentlemen were de- mercury in the thermometer to the line of twen- fitted a room in the new premises on purpos and placed it on the outside of one of the metal | terest in this, one of the most useful branche baud, Esq., M.D., M. P. Ryan, Esq., P. R. pipes in which a current of other was made to a Mechanics' Institute. in being brought to its present state of great | hibited by the Treasurer's statement, which forwardness. It is worked by steam. It freezes annexed, is small, yet the Committee congratuwater forming blocks of ice twelve inches by late the members on the institute being An incident occurred in this city, a few six-that being the size of the metal cells in free from debt, and as we have not rece not as cold-hearted and selfish as many called a flue. A large number of these cells are It will be seen that the receipts from placed in what may be called a square cistern, have amounted to £62 7 2d this year, being One of our citizens, the young repre- and of sufficient number to produce a ton of ice more than double the receipts as compared One of our citizens, the young repre-at one operation. Clothing of persons coming with any previous year. sentative of a rich and generous family, to Quarantine in vessels can be frozen by this. There have been added to the Institute di miners in this city. But he has now tilence. It can be made to frost the entire inside the number previously subscribing, will make ince withdrawn his fortune from the of a ship in, a few hours, and thus purify its hold the total number of members to be 146; and apartments from everything that can engender mittee to forward the usefulness and general Poughkeepsie. From there the flames spread to silence a decision which we cannot help cons

Lord Brnest Vane Tempest.

Murney BEGAPITULATION Votes for Mr Murney Mr Short

Trent Election.

Wave, of Pigeon Bay, Captain John perceived, got under weigh and went to her asntident of the election of sistance. Capt. Anglum fortunately succeeded learn manners before he came to theirs." who lighted a fire and sided in bringing the

The Wave brought the survivors of the crew Wave went out next day in search of the bodies afortunate men who were drowned, but did not find any of them. Much credit is due Although the Wave is but A rather unusual steamboat accident happen- | sel aground, about going to ber assistance. The tributary to Chicago.

Mechanics' Institution.

held on Tuesday evening last, when the report in the evening when he arrived there; and, wriof the doings and state of the Institution for the thing under the indignation to which he had which is £100,000; and the Directors York on Wednesday last were soldiers who had past year was read. The following gentlemen As he was opening the door he heard voices at

President-George Davidson. Vice Presidents-James Moore, Wm. Irving. Corresponding Secretary-H. C. Millar. Recording Secretary -J. Danson.

Committee of Management-Messrs. McColl. Armstrong, A. Davidson, M. Down, Wm. Irwin, Jr., A. McAlister, T. Drummond, R. M. Horsey, N. McNeil, R. Elliot, J. Ramage, E. Boyd.

the present year, the Committee of Management | ing-glass was smashed to atoms. Two sticks feel much satisfaction in adverting to the im- and an umbrella were missing. The evidence, shot his wife, a male person to whom she was mass of flame from end to end. The An old man named John Donaldson, was proved condition of the Institute, with respect it is asserted, will conclusively demonstate who > about £54 on the part of the Institute, they have been enabled to make the premises suitable for them in every respect; and by the re-letting of some portions, are under but a trifling

> £50, have been added to the Library, making a

The Librarian's return exhibits an increased been 1,500, being an increase of 400 over last remaining in hand of £11 1s 3d.

in which Lord Eruest Vane Tempest has most, disreputably figured, and for which be has very roperly been dismissed from the service. BRIGHTON ...

child of a gentleman of independent property. a bye-word among all nations. The difficulty le.

We are informed that the facts which will be at- was that all men were impatient under the con-nest Vane Tempest, who, it will be remembered, always existed in Canada. Here the law has his connection with which disgraceful proceedand his son were washed overboard and drownto get ashore from the wreck. The him?" also whether he " walked" up to mess at the barracks? [One of Cornet Ames' horses] on the grounding of the Allan Gilmour being ed to save money?" And further informed him that he. "ought to go to the serjeants' mess to length Cornet Ames very naturally refused to answer any more of the insulting observations officer that "if he did not answer he would give) him a good lieking directly he got him out of tions were unbecoming an officer and a gentle-A large and influential number of members otherwise it might have gone through the ves- gard to the safety of the propellers Sun and Ii- held them up in his hand, exclaiming, "Here's sel. In its descent it also broke off the head of linois of the A. T. Co's Line, and the Northern a lot!" an exclamation which was greeted with The Secretary read the report of the steam cylinder, allowing the escape of a Directors, and detailed statements of the large quantity of steam. One little girl was and was bound to Chicago from Ogdensburgh ges of Cornet Ames were decidedly the finest grant and was bound to Chicago from Ogdensburgh ges of Cornet Ames were decidedly the finest grant and was bound to Chicago from Ogdensburgh ges of Cornet Ames were decidedly the finest grant and was bound to Chicago from Ogdensburgh ges of Cornet Ames were decidedly the finest grant gra the transactions occurred at the Lewes-road

Barracks, where the mess was held. But Cornet Ames was on duty at the Pavilion Barracks, and as soon as he could escape from his barbarous persecutors, he put on his coat The Annual Meeting of this Institution was and returned there. It was about ten o'clock been subjected, he repaired at once to his roon. cended the stairs, and forcibly entered Cornet

On accepting office at the beginning of the they very frequently annoy in this way their President, James H. Phillips, Esq., rose Lord Vane Tempest and Cornet Birt are dis- while the Institute remained in the rooms they class, and who lack either the pecuniary re-

> Mr E. Meriam suggests in the New York Commercial Advertiser the use of lights, such as are They have been enabled during the present | sels, as a precaution against collisions, which year to make important additions to the Libra- he thinks can be made available and be of im-horse, and striking against a stone, he was in-

The Brogdin Case.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. From the Leader.

ists are always in a barbarous or semi-barbaas has been stated, but is the only preme. California has, for this reason, become wait for its tedious processes. Each man did what seemed to him right; and passion played 21, on which occasion he sat next to Lord Er- the part which properly belonged to reason.

been supreme. Individual retaliation has playnot found admirers. But although this has not next assizes.-[London Freepress, Nov. 1. SHIPWRECK.—The Globe of yesterday gives lings he was "punished" by his relative the late been the case in the past, we do not see all the commander in Chief, by being promoted from guarantees that could be wished for the following particulars of the loss of We regret to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished of the brief A Cilian Correspondent that discreet and distinguished of the brief A Cilian Correspondent that discreet and distinguished of the brief A Cilian Correspondent that discreet and distinguished of the brief A Cilian Correspondent that discreet and distinguished of the brief A Cilian Correspondent to a corr Callantine, dated River du bow, the very clouds made brilliant with the reflected by a correspondent of the wreck of the brig A Gilmour, E.J. Brown, it is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact to be informed by a correspondent that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact that discreet and distinguished officer's services. It is asserted that shortly after the dinner compact that the regiment which is an admission, as far as it goes, or the regiment which is a service and distinguished officer's services. We regret to be informed by a correspondent of the wreck of the brig A Gilmour, E.J. Brown, bow, the very clouds made brilliant with the reflected hues of a good deed.—Albany Argus.

We regret to be informed by a correspondent of the wreck of the brig A Gilmour, E.J. Brown, bow, the very clouds made brilliant with the reflected hues of a good deed.—Albany Argus.

We regret to be informed by a correspondent of the brig A Gilmour, E.J. Brown, and two seamen, it is asserted that shortly after the dinner commenced, Lord Tempest, who is only himself a menced, Lord Tempest, who is only himself a menced, Lord Tempest, who is only himself a most persons who are free from the local excitement which seemed to bear everything before in the containing observations in an an under riety of insulting observations in an an under were drowned in endeav- drink champague was that it was too dear for with one of those deadly weapons upon his per-His lordship asked him whether he had "walk- wharf, seeks him out, and shoots him through At | well be imagined—the seduction of his wife excitement of the first discovery, the verdict which the jury has rendered might have passed without being challenged. sanity; but although the prisoner's Counsel prowent with Brogdin down to the wharf, swears that he "did not appear at all excited;" and othminutes before the commission of the fatal deed. Brogdin was engaged in a light conversation about speculations in village lots, counting up A rather unusual steamboat accurate to the Bay State, running bedescribed for the Assurance of Life and Health, for the election of Directors and Health, for the drawal Health, for the drawa the transaction of general business, was tons, suddenly broke in two in the centre, and bald at the Society's large and commodists.

Birt and Lord Tempest then held him down on Brogdin, immediately before the fatal shot was med 'The Orkney Lass." The new vessel is bald at the Society's large and commodists. Monday, the sixth day of October, 1856, it broke the main after guard beam, a very hear greeably with the Act of Incorporation.

The evidence, we are assured, ces, purchases a revolver, carries it on his perwill show that his lordship took these scissors, son, and practises the use of it for six weeks, son, and practises the use of the beat size of the and with them cut off the whole of the left side and the left side mind to take the life of the person who had in- she was fitted out: jured him, without further provocation. When he had surrendered himself to a constable, Brogdin exhibited an anxiety to know if his victim were dead; and declared that he should be sat- know not that we would be warranted in isfied if that were the case. And, moreover, it | saying that the torch of the incendiary has

> Although, as the Chief Justice remarked, was given, and on enquiry it was found there was nothing to show how far Mrs Brogdin might have been guilty in the seduction-whe- that the stable in rear of Mr Niles' Hotel, ther she was solely the victim of Henderson's on King street, was found to be in flames. wiles or to some extent guilty of seducing- By prompt exertions, however, they were there is nothing to palliate the conduct of the decased, Henderson. His baseness, in the seducrecognized as those of his brother officers who had just been so cruelly ill-treating him. Not in returning to a place from which his conduct the same premises were found to be on being anxious to come into contact with them had outlawed him, are alike beyond the reach of fire, and the general belief is that both any more that evening, he descended another excuse. His whole conduct had been such that fires were the incipient attempts of some every body would have been prepared for a vergentlemen," whoever they may have been, as- dict of manslaughter. In any case, even if the dastardly villain intent upon burning up Ames' apartments. After they had left he went one in which the representative of the Crown King street. We would fain hope that The sale of Dry Goods, &c., at Jackson's commenced yesterday, will be continued to-day.
>
> The Montreal train, due here yesterday at 2
>
> N. McNeil, R. Millot, J. Ramage, E. Boyd.
>
> The General Committee of the Institute, at the punishment should be there, and found the whole of his things turned topsy-turvy. The candlestick was thrown out light. Most people, distant from the neighbor-of the window, all the doors of an elegant little hood of the tragedy, will think that the safety wardrobe were wrenched cff, and his linen and of society would have been better secured if another alarm was sounded, and the exsaddlery were scattered about the room. Two Brogdin had been sent to the Penitentiary for a tensive wooden buildings in rear of the

> > to see on what grounds the jury rested the ac- School were demolished, and the fire thus quittal of the prisoner. The sole defence set up prevented from spreading to the noble ediity should be allowed - and in that case it might | charge of the premises, were consumed justify the verdict-it would result that there was great uneasiness somewhere; for it cannot be supposed that Brogdin was destitute of friends who might have advised him against the perpetration of the rash act which he committed: or who, if he had ceased to be morally responsi ble for his conduct and insensible to the influence of mild counsels, might have seen that the case was one for restraint. So that if Brogdin is to be acquitted on the ground of temporary insanity, the responsibility of his having been

From the Montreal Herald.

BAD MORALITY AND A WORSE PRECEDENT .- It ARREST OF AN ALLEGED SHOPLIFTER. - For some | will be seen by the report of the trial, which we time past the clerks of Mr Edward E. Bowen, publish this morning, that Mr Brogdin, of Port dry goods merchant, of No. 130 Broadway, have ' Hope, who recently deliberately slew-we must missed large quantities of valuable silks just af- | not say murdered -a person of the name of Henments. After making some purchases she pre- standing the able, judicious, and to our mind, This Company is one of the most respectable at the store, a search warrant was procured from | laws of his country, but thus create a precedent | North American for the prompt manner in whi ination resulted in the discovery of a large in us to attempt to add to the force of Sir John | without delay .- N. Y. Tribune. number of setts of valuable sable and ermine Robinson's reasoning on the particular case, in | S. Rowlands is agent for the above-named furs, quite new, three rolls of costly black silk | which an Upper Canada jury have declared de- | Company in Kingston. Office No. 4, Wilson's velvet, a large quantity of black and various liberate and, most assuredly, "of malice afore- Buildings, Wellington Street. colored silks, in rolls and pieces, all of great | thought' killing, no murder; but this we will | value, a splendid India crape shawl, quite new, say, that-excepting under very peculiar cir- Life Insurance.-The British together with a large tin box containing silver | comstances of falsehood and deceit, which cer- | Life Insurance Company of London, established and gold plate, diamond pins, rings and brooch- tainly no not appear to have occurred in the pre- in 1820, capital and assets over one million es, costly watches set with jewels, and many sent case—the word seduction is utterly inap- sterling, affords the highest security to persons other valuables, the whole worth many thou- plicable in the case of infidelity on the part of a desirous of insuring their lives. Bankers, Glyn, sands of dollars. The whole of this property | married woman-nay, we will go further and | Halifax, Mills & Co. Proposals for Assurance was taken to the office of the Chief of Police, maintain that, if there be degrees of guilt in such in the above-named Company received and all was, some thirty years ago in, mercantile machine, and thus divested of the germs of phe- ing the past year 96 new members, which, with and Madame was escorted to the Tombs --- (N.Y. cases, the heavier amount must ever and always information given by S. Rowlands, No. 4 Wilter is a painful and disagreeable one, either to LARGE FIRE IN POUGEERPSIE --- Loss ESTIMATED contemplate or discuss, but even at the risk and other apartments, and it is capable of redu- the Committee would wish to impress upon the ar $15,000 .- About half past ten on Friday offending the delicacy of some and the good erils of commerce, and after living many cing the temperature of stone warehouses so low minds of members that a punctual discharge of night last fire was discovered issuing from the taste of others of our readers, we have felt it our ears in the country, returned with his as to free the goods stored in the refrigerated their current subscriptions will enable the Com- cooper's shop, owned by S. Barns, in Water street duty, as public journalists, not to pass over in five dwelling houses, owned by William Davies, dering as having been dictated by weak and ef-

HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- Yesterday afternoon man named Nicholls and two of his sons, all of whom reside on the 7th concession, Nissouri, were brought before L. Lawrazon and L. Ridou Esqu, charged with highway robbery. It arno other. The people among whom it thus ex- on Wednesday last, and was returning home a ter transacting his business, having with him his waggon his wife and child. When he had rous state. California has long been perhaps reached a spot between the 5th and 6th conces We are enabled, from a reliable source, to pre- the best illustration of this latter condition. sions in Nissouri the team was stopped by three late disgraceful occurrences in connection with late disgraceful occurrences in connection with the officers of the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the officers of the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the officers of the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the officers of the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the officers of the 4th Light Dragoons, now state the 4th Light Dragoons, bands of his brother officers, is not the son of a listed, those which are entitled to be called suleaving Mr Fitzsimmons to get home with the reto be proved before the court-martial trol of regular law. They were unwilling to had been a bourt and the result of the court-martial trol of regular law. got the worst of the bargain, resorted to the A happy contrast to this state of things has The magistrates and possession of the animal. rious a nature to dispose of in a summary manner ed no part. The "wild justice of revenge" has and the delinquents will take their trial at the MASONRY .- The Grand Lodge of Massachu setts refuse to recognise as a Grand Lodge that body of brethren calling themselves "The Grand Lodge of Canada." 1st. - Because being within most part acknowledging the authority of the of revolution when oppressions become intolerable, has always been recognized by the Anglo-Saxon race, from Runnymede to the present day. But in Masonry there is no such necessity; there can be no long continued oppression; for with certain bounds the will of the majority is absorlute-there can be no temptation to tyramay because nothing can be gained by it." The Gran Lodge of New York has also sustained the Provincial Grand Lodges of Canada, and repudiates the new organization calling itself an independent Grand Lodge. The resolutions of the Gran Lodge of Massachusetts are as follows :- Resolv. ed,-That this Grand Lodge feels itself compelled to refuse the recognition asked for, and to protest against the continuance of any such e body, it being, in our view, an act of rebellion against a sister Grand Lodge. Resolved, - That jurisdiction are hereby strictly forbidden to hold any Masonic communication with said illegal body, or with any Lodge or individual having connexion therewith .- Transcript.

MORE ALLEGED INCENDIARISM .-- We appears from the evidence that when he had got again been in our midst, yet strong fears his hand in, he was quite ready to take another life; for when he was threatened with arrest by are entertained that such has actually been the brother of the deceased, he said: "D--n the case. On Sunday afternoon, hetween two and three o'clock, an alarm of fire verdict had been wilful murder, the case was the whole range of buildings fronting on bearing its fruit. A negro in the west has since play in, were found to be in a complete in conversation, and finished the bloody work wind was blowing strong at the time, and have to deplore, the circumstance naturally any portion of the buildings were unavail-Such are the facts of the case, as developed ing. Through dint of exertion, however, in the course of the trial; and it is impossible | the fences connecting with the Central -Hamilton Spectator.

PORT OF KINGSTON-IMPORTS.

Schr L Powell, Port Stanley .- 12000 bushels wheat, Rowe & Brothers. Schr James Gordon, Chicago, - 11140 bush wheat, Holcomb & Henderson.

Str Napier, Cape Vincent,-6 bbls ale, 2 lots hides, 275 kegs butter.

Special Notices.

INSURANCE .- Mr Ambrose W. Thompson, No ter the visits of a Madame Leon to the store. derson, with whom his (Brogdin's) wife was liv- 10 Well Street, has been appointed agent in this Yesterday afternoon she again made her appear- | ing in open and adulterous cohabitation, has | city of the Farmers and Mechanics' Fire and ance, and a watch was kept upon her move- been acquitted by a jury of his country, not with- | Marine Insurance Company of Physdelphia pared to leave; but one of the clerks having | entirely conclusive charge of the Chief Justice. | Philadelphia, and has the Hon. Thomas P. observed her secrete a large roll of valuable. We cannot record this decision without at the Florence for its President. It has complied with black silk, she was detained, and Mr Clapp, one | same time recording our condemnation of the | the law of this State in regard to companies of the clerks, called to his assistance Officer | conduct of the jury, who, by their verdict, not | belonging to other States, and has provided as Keefe of the Chief's Office. The officer took her only maintain the right of an individual to place | accruing trust Fund of $100,000 with Messra into a private room and divested her of the roll, himself-and for the sole and only purpose of Duncan, Sherman & Co. Messrs. Bushing & Co. which was valued at $100. Leaving Madame | wreaking his revenge on an enemy-above the publish a card of thanks in the Philadelphia Justice Osborne, and Mr Keefe paid a visit to which cannot fail to inflict a most grievous in- this Company settled its losses on their estabher residence, No. 135 Grand-street. An exam- jury upon society. It would be presumptuous lishment, thus enabling them to resume business

HAIR RESTORATIVE .- In our columns to-day will be found Prof. Wood's advertisement of above article, to which we call attention. What it has done, we have witnessed upon several of our acquaintances in St. Louis. Hair once gray met our view, black or brown as the case might be; chief, if they will try it? We think so .-- Jack onville Constitutional, October 5, 1854.