HAIR RESTORATIVE .- In our columns to-day will be found Prof. Wood's advertisement of above article, to which we call attention. What it has our view, black or brow nas the case might be, being the color of early manhood; and as fine and glossy as silk, and that without any other application than the Restorative. If it has lone this upon others, will it not do the same for any of our readers whose "frosty pows" were once like the "raven locks" of Lochiel's warlike chief, if they will try it? We think so .-- Jacksonville Constitutional, October 5, 1854.
