SPECIAL NOTICE.

FRANGIPANNI.—Mr E. W. Palmer advertise the genuine Frangipanni—a most exquisite perfume. Its name has a history which we copy from Notes and Queries:—

"There is in Rome a family bearing the patronymic of Frangipanni, as famous in Italy as the Plantagenets and the Tudors in England. The origin of the name of this family is traced to a certain office which an ancestor filled in the church—that 'of supplying the holy bread, the wafer in one of the ceremonials. Frangipanni literary means 'broken bread,' and is derived from Frangi, to break, and Panus, bread. Hence we have the Frangipan puddings, which good housewives know are made with broken bread. One Mercutio Frangipanni, who lived in 1493, was a famous botanist and traveller, famous as being one of the Columbus expedition when they visited the West India Islands. The sailors, as they approached Antigua, discovered a delicious fragrance in the air. This, Mercutio told them, must be derived from sweet smelling flowers. On landing they found vast quantities of the Plumeria Alba, in full bloom, rendering the air redolent with rich odor, and from this plant, which the present inhabitants of Antigua call Frangipanni flower is distilled that exquisite fragrance which is now so popular in fashionable circles."

A good-looking friend of ours who is on this side of forty, though somewhat hoary headed, while absent from the city a few days, used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and on his return called to see his lady-love, but was amused to find she did not recognize him; and immediately determined to pass for a cousin of himself, but was eventually chagrined to find he was supplanting his former self in the affections of the lady, which caused him to make himself known: but the lady still says that she likes the counterfeit better than the original, and insists that he continue (if necessary) to use the Hair Restorative. To be had at the druggists.—[St. Louis Morning Herald.

Dispepsia and Fits.

DR. TRACY DELORME, the great curer of CONSUMPTION, was for several years so badly afflicted by Dispepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given by a mere child while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia. The ingredients may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. RECIPROCITY TREATY.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

I. C. O. CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT,
Toronto, 21st March 1858.

WHEREAS "Instructions to Collectors and other Officers of Customs," dated February twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight, have been issued from the Treasury Department of the United States, prescribing certain Forms and Regulations to be observed upon the importation into that country, from the British North American Provinces, of goods claiming exemption from duty under the stipulations of the Reciprocity Treaty—Public Notice is hereby given of the same, for the information and guidance of all persons exporting articles of the growth and produce of Canada to the United States under the Reciprocity Treaty.

The Forms and Regulations aforesaid being of the tenor following, viz:

CIRCULAR INSTRUCTIONS TO COLLECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS OF THE CUSTOMS.

Treasury Department,
12th February, 1858.

Collectors and other officers of the customs of the frontier ports are instructed, that, on all importations from the North American British Provinces claiming exemption from duty under the stipulations of the Reciprocity treaty, the proof prescribed in section 3, article 9?2, of the growth or production of the merchandise, is required in all cases where the actual value of the merchandise shall exceed the value of one hundred dollars, and where there is no Consular Officer at or near the port of exportation, the oath prescribed in forms Nos. 278 and 279 may be taken before a local magistrate, duly authorised by the laws of the country to administer oaths, which oath so taken, shall be accompanied by a Consular certificate in the following form:

I certify, that ——, the person signing the above certificate as a magistrate, is duly authorized by the laws of this province, and that I believe the statement contained in the above certificate to be true.

[D.S.] ——, U. S. Consul.

The oaths prescribed in forms Nos. 280 and 281 are dispensed with.

In cases of parcels or packages of Merchandise of a value not exceeding one hundred dollars, the same may be admitted to entry without the plaresaid proof, provided the Collector is satisfied that they are the growth or produce of the said provinces.

A Consular certificate of the origin of the merchandise, in form following, may also be received by Collectors as sufficient evidence of origin to entitle merchandise to entry under the Reciprocity Act.

I certify that the goods or merchandise described in this invoice are of the growth or produce of the province of ——, and of the value within stated.

——, U. S. Consul.

HOWELL COSE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

SECTION 3rd.

Proceedings on entry of articles claiming exemption from duty under the Reciprocity Treaty.

ART. 922.—On Entering on from North American British Provinces claiming exemption from duty under the stipulations of the reciprocity treaty, the affidavit of the owners is required as to the place growth or production of the merchandise; and when the same is imported from a place where there is a Consul, Vice-Consul or consular agent of the United States, the oath must be accompanied by a certificate of such officer in one of the following forms, as the case may require, showing the place of growth or production.

FORM No. 278.

Foreign owners' oath, where goods have been actually purchased to be taken before Consular officer of the United States in the British Provinces.

I, A. B, do solemnly and truly swear, that the goods, wares or merchandise, described in the invoice now produced and hereunto annexed, or for account of myself and partner in said purchase; and the said invoice contains a true and faithful account of the actual cost thereof, and of all charges thereon; and that no discounts, bounties, or drawbacks are contained in the said invoice but such as have been actually allowed on the same; and that said goods are the growth or product of the Province of ——.

[Signed] A. B.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, at the day of A. D. 18, and of the independence of the United States of America the

And I do further certify that I am satisfied that , who subscribes the foregoing oath, is the person he represents himself to be; That he is a creditable person; and the statements made by him under said oath (or affirmation as the case may be) are true.

——, U. S. Consul.

FORM No. 279.

Freign owners oath, in cases where goods have not been actually purchased to be taken before a Consular Officer of the United States in the British Provinces.

I, A. B, of , do solemnly and truly swear, that the invoice now produced and hereunto annexed, contains a true and faithful account of the goods therein described at their market value at , at the time the same were (purchased or manufactured, as the case may be) and of all the charges thereon, and that the said invoice contains no discounts, bounties or drawbacks, but such as have been allowed, and that said goods are the growth or product of the Province of

(Signed) A. B.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, at the day of A. D. 18, and of the independence of the United States of America the

And I do further certify that I am satisfied that , who subscribes the foregoing oath, is the person he represents himself to be; that he is a credible person; and that the statements made by him under said oath (or affirmation, as the case may be,) are true.

A RETIRED PHYSICIAN

Seventy five years of age, whose sun is of life have nearly run out, discovered while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send to such of his afflicted fellow-beings as request it, this recipe, with full and explicit directions for making it, and successfully using it. He requires each applicant to inclose him one shilling—three cents, to be returned as postage on the receipt, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement.
