SPECIAL NOTICE.

Ill open at the City Hall next week. The English and Provincial journals speak of it

ST. LAWRENCE WHARF.

FOR SALE. IUST ARRIVED, 500 Barrels Superfine Flour,-Choice Brands Kingston, 17th July, 1858.

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 17, 1858

Letters and Telegrams.

P. M., Napance; E. J. B., Toronto, (2,) C. & R., Montreal; P. M., Toronto.

Letters from the Editor-No. 3

Mr. Whig,-

Lodge, the Installation of the Grand Officers | proper manner.

by a portion of the British Empire, and by a very large proportion of the Grand Lodges of he United States of America, demonstrates that the Grand Lodge of Canada, organized on the 10th October, 1855, and known and Grand Lodge of Masons of Canada ecognized as aforesaid, by the style and title of " The Grand Lodge of Ancient Free cas to be regretted, to the anamoly in Freemasonry of the erection in one and the same territory of a second Grand Lodge, styled

"The Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada,"
"The Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada,"
and exercising jurisdiction ever a period of the Universe; and that are held by us.

In attendance, and more are expected today. Among the visitors are the Grand by which we are led to contemplate the goodness, wisdom and power of the Great Architect of the Universe; and that arts are and exercising jurisdiction ever a period of the Contemplate of the Universe; and that arts are and exercising jurisdiction ever a period of the Universe; and that arts are and exercising jurisdiction ever a period of the Universe of the Uni and exercising jurisdiction over a portion of who holds a high-office in the Grand Lodge Province, and the means by which it was the Canadian craft, it is necessary for the institution, and in accordance with the previous resolution, that the said a Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada and Should be dissolved; therefore the same is should be dissolved; therefore the same of the clerk. Howell, Green, and that whenever it shall be dissolved; therefore the same of the clerk. Howell, Green, and that whenever it shall be dissolved; therefore the same of the clerk. Howell, Green, and that whenever it shall be dissolved; the d new dissolved; its officers (as Past Grand of the Clerk, of the lodges) and its members and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the Clerk, of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodges of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodge of the lodge those great moral doctrines and lodge of the lodge o according to their respective rank and sister, beautiful and sister and siste Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted in which scenes without parallel have been | "The Queen and the Craft;" "The R. W. the | the cause of masonry in Canada.

proper time had or had not previously arriv- me, showing very plainly that, unless a with impunity; and the general discipline on the 30th June, but in consequence him and his party, he will fail to gain by a more rigid adherence to the rules of the that interesting occasion. of all the eventful circumstances attending other fortnight, but an influential mem- the order and are really desirous that it Montreal district. As this was the first

E. J. B.

From the Colonist. he acknowledged by the entire Canadian The annual communication of the Grand he should be able to instruct the craft, not that it would have been neither wise nor Kingston Gas Light Company : eraft, and should be, and is hereby declared Lodge of Canada, Col. Wilson, Grand Lodge to interfere in You have presided over this Institution from the measure could be urged on the second to be the Grand Lodge of the Fraternity in and throughout Canada.

Resolved also,—That the diversity of opinion heretofore mentioned, which in value opinion heretofore mentioned, which in value opinion heretofore mentioned, which in value opinion heretofore mentioned in the fraternity in and throughout Canada.

The Particular of the Masonic affairs of that distant territory. It is very true that the British possessions, and illustrated by it symbols. He should be able, also, to convince his brethren that the same time and throughout Canada.

The Particular of the Masonic affairs of that distant territory. It is very true that the British possessions, and illustrated by it symbols. He should be able, also, to convince his brethren that the same time and throughout Canada.

The Particular of the Masonic affairs of that distant territory. It is very true that the British possessions, and illustrated by it symbols. He should be able, also, to convince his brethren that the British possessions, and illustrated by it symbols, and illustrated by it is commencement to the meeting the discommencement to the meeting the di ous ways relarded the union of fraternity gates from various parts of the Province are all science and all art, legitimately directed, occupied ground, as no Grand Lodge has well knowing how inadequate it is in value to as there was at present a bill and it was decided upon the grounds and station bouse having given rise, amonst other circumstan- in attendance, and more are expected to- are but lines that radiate towards the great yet been there established, but I did not your deserts for the valuable time you have necessary to go on with its first. and its members and lodges Grand Chaplain, the Rev. M. Tremaine, virtues which he inculcates within its walls. Sir. in presenting section by the orange of the employed of the orange of the common data and the employed and a section of the Grand Lacky or Accepted. Account of the common data of the employed and a section of the Grand Lacky or Accepted. Account of the employed of the son was responded, to in a deeply interesting completely will the correctness of our posi- or to the fraternity and to the Order-many manner by R. W. Brother Morris, who read a tion be established. In evidence of the who are not only masters of men but v health was next proposed and drank with all the masterly and unanswerable, arguments | teemed as the cream of the Craft. honor. This was ably responded to by Bro. Stephens, who suggested that a medal should be struck to commemorate the Union of the Struck mportant proceedings, and its recognition mined to carry through all their measures, on their duties and obligations; for as their from abroad, I felt that it required some position in the craft is exalted, so are their consideration before finally deciding upon The following are the address and reply shut up on that day at 11 o'clock responsibilities great. To become the mas- it; but I must admit that the idea of thus on the occasion of the presentation of a Silciency and zeal the duties of that important influence upon my mind, but after a con- which have now been handed in for published should be his most auxious desire.— sultation with a distinguished brother, and cation: These duties are not confined to the rene- upon carefully considering the question in tition of a few phrases learned by sote, but all its bearings, I arrived at the conclusion be replaced by a more regular warrant of Private Lodges, not at present of the division was taken. Among these constitution.

duct command the respect and esteem of by the Grand Lodge.

I have much pleasure in announcing that present of the order of truth, under the policy of the first order of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the policy of the private of the content of the policy of the policy beholder the beauty and grandeur of Russell's Hotel. The brethren, in number about grand lodges we have many warm friends, masonic library, which embraces several she does require, and will insist upon the clear- North West Transportation Company; to ing. Mr. Dorion moved that the said rethese when placed within the reach of all. His tinction either in race, class, religion or color, Railway Committee a bill to incorporate the first time on the motion for the second readthat wonderful country, and a full represention of the events which have converted the Plans of Hindostan into a vast battle-field, one hundred, sat down to a sumptuos repast at the who have not only inevery lodge-room. After discussing the does require, and will insist upon the clear which have converted the valuable volumes contributed by himself, est and most irrefragible testimony that all past nine of clock. After discussing the with us in all our struggles and trials, but incorporate the River St. Blass and Two which has attended one efforts to a recognition as members of the fraterniruable in masonic literature. G. Lodge of Ireland and our sister Grand In my last annual address, when refer- The financial affairs of the lodge are man- ranted lodge. Another matter which, for some Lodge of Ireland and our sister Grand Lodges"—responded to by R. W. Bro. Kivas ring to the discussions to which our moves aged by such a master with prudence and many brethren may be brought up for your considerable of head been poured forth properties. The regards debts due either by sideration during the session. I allude to the the craft, including the former ancient Grand which had been poured forth upon this im- or to his lodge peculiarly as debts of honor, establishment of "District Grand Lodges," Lodge,? responded to by R. W. Bro. Cumber-land, in an eloquent speech, which demonstration and in an eloquent speech, which demonstration and lodges of England. With reference to this sub-law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and Lodges of England. With reference to this sub-law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and Lodges of England. With reference to this sub-law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and Lodges of England. With reference to this sub-law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and Lodges of England. With reference to this sub-law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged. The brethren loving the man and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged and law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged and law are law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged and law are law, by some of the ablest writers of the day, ranged and law are law, by some of the ablest ted the entire sincerity and fraternal indissoluble union lately consummated; "The M. W.

the Grand Lodge of Vermont, and our distinguished could be well added, and that nothing either new or interesting could be well added, are ready at all times to aid him in his efthe Grand Lodge of Vermont, and our distinguished consummated in the entire sincerity and fraternal indissolution of the abeliance of the Whole to consider his respecting his authority, submit to his design of opinion that the subject had been nearly exhausted, and that nothing either nearly exhausted, and that nothing either nearly exhausted, and alacrity, and nearly exhausted are ready at all times to aid him in his efshould our lodges continue to increase in the guished Brother Phillip, C. Tucker, G. M."—acknowledged by M. W. Brother Tucker, in a hutors in Lower Canada. As retrenchment lost, and ultimately the remainder of the knowledged by M. W. Brother Tucker, in a hutors in Lower Canada. As retrenchment lost, and ultimately the remainder of the knowledged by M. W. Brother Tucker, in a hutors in Lower Canada. As retrenchment lost, and ultimately the remainder of the was the order of the day, he wished to do tariff was adopted. The House then admorous and learned speech, comprising a his opportunity of reading that able and logical The cement with which he has bound the ure may not only be expedient but necessary. away with a useless office, and thereby save journed a little before two o'clock. tory of the order from the earliest times indicating considerable masonic research and an intimate knowledge of the jurisprudence and intaliance indicating considerable laws of the craft. The carnest and ber of the Masonic Quarterly, and the additional inaliance in the pen of our distinguished friend and brother, Dr. McKay, of South Carolina, which appeared in a recent number of lodges in a recent number of lodges to anthorize that an appropriation to the School Funds under the such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, it is a sufficient number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, involved a voting of public money, which are recent number of lodges in every masonic district which contains within its limits a sufficient number of lodges to anthorize such a proceeding. I would suggest, however, in the lodge of the print of order. The canada at Halifax. distinguished brother stated he left his home at much inconvenience, in order to be present at this eventful meeting. M. W. Brother Tucker this eventful meeting. M. W. Brother Tucker able and much esteemed Grand Master of was loudly applauded during and at the conclusion of his speech, which was an intellectual clusion of his speech, which was an intellectual clusion of his speech, which was an intellectual clusion of his speech, which was an intellectual conclude. I would suggest, however, that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from the character of the model Master. I must the character of the model Master. I must the datics of the office of Grand Secretary have clusion of his speech, which was an intellectual been discharged during that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from the character of the model Master. I must the character of the model Master. I must the datics of the office of Grand Secretary have been detained to a proceeding. I would suggest, however, that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message from that the whole matter be referred to a special could ealy be initiated by a message fro Brother Robert Morris, D. G. M. of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky." This toust, cloquently proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the M. W. the G. M. Brother Willis proposed by the Cauada and the main points or her news were published on Tues-day evening, via Cape Race. poem inspired by the recent events, and com- truth of this position, I cannot deny myself | work, and who are indeed entitled to the posed imprompte. M. W. Brother Stephens' the pleasure of directing your attention to proud distinction of being regarded and es-

ook place, which occupied the whole time | The volunteer toast of the Grand Lodges of | Among the important masonic events of duty of visiting our lodges. My report, | the efforts which have been made to secure a | was not sufficiently matured on the subject | rates were obtained. took place, which occupied the whele time of the sitting. I procured a copy of the important masonic events of the United States was also duly honored by the greater that the past year, one has recently transpired which must excite a thrill of pleasure and large proportion of Lower Canada was a light in every true masonic heart on this light in every true masonic heart on the following of the thought about it.

I appoint a true following of the following of the entire of the union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the schole Gandam reeff. I all and perfect union to the the union to the true following the constant and the cons light in every true masonic heart on this consecration of our longes at Paris and continent. The unhappy divisions which Newbury, and visited also "St. John's working under English warrants, directing their in toto. It was quite out of the question to ton has arrived in harbor, but cannot come to to which she can justly lay claim. The The Grand Lodge meets again this mornthree in the State of New York, and which the fostering care of our intelligent and this grand lodge for their guidance. It is not dock until the Canada leaves. The Arabia will Grand Lodge honored the new Calaraqui ing, but as it has only some reports of Com- have been a cause of reproach to our noble was impossible for the Superintendent of probably sail about 2 P.M. Ledge, in appointing its Master as one of mittees to receive, in all probability the at- order, now no longer exist. The demon of most prosperous condition. In February 1 into any detailed account of the various at- Education, unsupported by a staff of qualifiregional Stewards.

Proposed by R. V. Bro. T. D. Harrington, seconded by R. W. Bro. W. C. Stephens:—

Strict opacing an official visit to each of the following lodges:—

Strict opace which has taken to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and received, and the Masons of the hands of the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Strict opace which has taken to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and received, and the Masons of the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and received, and the Masons of the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and received, and the Masons of the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and the details of the second the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been conditionally given and the details of the second the Grand Secretary, and are open to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been condition with the cach of the correspondence which has taken to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been condition with the correspondence which has taken to each of the correspondence which has taken to each of the following lodges:—

Warm grasp of brotherhood has been condition with the correspondence which has taken to each of the correspondence white the correspondence which has taken to each of the corresponden Whereas the past condition and future relifered of Freemasonry in Canada rendered it absolutely necessary to organize and absolutely necessary to organize and absolutely necessary to organize and the latest that I spent an hour or so at the that State are again united under one banders. May their union be perpetual! And apparently flourishing. On the 24th of may the memory of their past differences lighted to say that I believe your communities, and the brands of the Grand Secretary, and are open to your inspection should be superiotended by others to your inspection should be superiotended by others. The New Orleans papers of Saturday contains details of Mexican news; there was an lighted to say that I believe your communities, and the brands of the Grand Secretary, and are open to your inspection should be superiotended by others to your inspection should be superiotended by others. The New Orleans papers of Saturday contains details of Mexican news; there was an lighted to say that I believe your communities. establish a "Sovereign Grand Lodge" for visit. The dull topic of debate was the only remain as an additional incitement to and a large number of brethren, I laid the acting in strict accordance with the letter and ration with the Superintendent, for his im- June, which was very disastrous; 50 lives are, the reasons, and on the basis set forth in Tariff, when I had an opportunity of hearing increased exertions in the Great and Glori- corner stone of a new school house in the spirit of your lastructions, have been met in pression was that they were left to them- far as known, lost. enlated, the correctness of which has not four of the chief speakers in the House, and breakers in the House, I bave much pleasure in appointed to brethren with whom they were appointed to brethren with whom they were appointed to a server of the chief speakers in the House, I visited "Brant" Lodge, where I had the been refuted, although there has existed a diversity of opinion as to whether the prodiversity of opinion as to whether the proper time had arrived for severing the connection with the mother Grand Lodges of Great Britain and Ireland, without further Grand Ireland Ireland, without further Grand Ireland I efforts being first made to obtain such nefew minutes, the ear becomes wearied But at the same, time, truth compels me to

Mr. Des cessary concessions as would tend to amel- and long for repose. Mr. Cayley is add that all were not in an equally prosper- dedicated a new and commodions lodge add that all were not in an equally prosper- ous state. In some few instances I heard were not in some few instances I heard were not in an equally prosper- both parties, have labored to effect this great motion. and which diversity of opinion has been not appearing to possess confidence in him- with regret that the regular communications with regret that the regret th sterests of Freemasonry in the Province, self, and consequently failing to impart that was often in that neighborhood I had the pleasure of unbounded pleasure which it will give me. and thereby to militate against the advances ment of the entire order, by creating, as it has done, antagonistic bodies claiming. has done, antagonistic bodies claiming separate and independent jurisdictions—by causing division amongst brethren bunds together by strong and mutual ties, and by strong and mutual ties, and by their D, G, M, R. W. Brother Captain interfecting here and elsewhere with that a general apathy and want of interest with the work; and that a general apathy and want of interest with whom I had much pleasant interpolated to the effect that it was advisable to have a superior class of Academic Schools in each of the steamer have been sold conditionally to the with whom I had much pleasant prospect, I will now leave you to discuss and to decide upon the various in the London district I was accompanied by their D, G, M, R. W. Brother Captain the had apparently led to this strange and until ties, and by their D, G, M, R. W. Brother Captain the had apparently led to this strange and until ties, and by their D, G, M, R. W. Brother Captain the had apparently led to this strange and until ties and ledge to proceed with the work; and the lodge to proceed with the work; and the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant interpolated to the superior class of Academic Schools in each of the superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant interpolated to the superior class of Academic Schools in each of the superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant interpolated to the superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant interpolated to the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant prospect, I will now leave a superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant prospect, I will now leave a superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant prospect, I will now leave a superior class of Academic Schools in each of the lodge of Michigan, with whom I had much pleasant prospect. terfering here and elsewhere with that Papineau. Mr. Gult is the best practical natural state of affairs, I found that it origiin the landmarks of the Ancient Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Institution.

In the landmarks of the Ancient Institution.

In the landmarks of the Ancient Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Institution Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Institution Institution Institution.

In the landmarks of the Institution Inst And Whereas, the anxious and generally expressed desire for consummating an union of the Fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim Lord, here is thy talent laid up in a number of the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim and punishment which was heaped upon that careless and unfaithful steward, who could be in the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim and the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim and the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim and the fraternity under one governing and only exclaim and the fraternity under one governing and the fraternity under one govern supreme authority, testifies that whether the the Great John A., but he did not speak to the by-laws were allowed to be broken on the 30th Israe, but in anapkin," but he able to advance humbly. nasoury should possess its own Grand newspaper man goes the entire hog with the possess its own Grand newspaper man goes the entire hog with the possess its own Grand newspaper man goes the entire hog with the possess its own goes the entire hog with the possess its own goes newspaper man goes the entire hog with the possess its own goes newspaper man goes newspa painful state of affairs can only be remedied | Province, I was unable to be present on |

M. W. Bro. W. M. Wilson, G. M., comprising which has attended our efforts to advance as it embodies nearly all that really is value been regularly initiated, passed and raised in a duly constituted and properly warto aid and advance the interests of this Grand Lodge, entitle him not only to this acknow-

The business with which the Grand Lodge | tain resolutions to regulate the License | being drawn from the level, and active steps And Whereas the maintenance of the that gentleman's personal favor. "Tib- order, and by the exercise of a stricter dis- are been taken to repair the break at once And Whereas the maintenance of the dignity of the Grand Lodge of Canada for zarsh," as we used to say in Malta. cipline on the part of those in authority; and over two or three days. the future must be an object of equal inter- From what I can learn, the session of I would earnestly entreat the officers of such | to open a lodge there, under the authority of and received. The basises of union were also toxicating drinks.

W. Wilson, Esq., President of the City of

FAILWAY COMMITTER

TIMBER LIMITS. Mr Loranger brought in a return of all timber limits, licenses, &c., on the shores of Lake Huron, Georgian Bay, &c.

Mr. Tenill said that it would not be pro- ending 30th June, show a decrease of over led gment from me, but also the favorable consid- per, in his opinion, to dispose with the five millions sterling. School Inspectors, and it would be very im The various matters to which I have now di-rected your attention, although all possessing prudent to follow out: the system proposed Council affirmed the decision of the Lower Court holding the steamer North American be struck to commemorate the Union of the Craft, which proposition was most loudly applauded, and will no doubt be carried out in a proper manner.

I be struck to commemorate the Union of the Craft, which proposition was most loudly applauded, and will no doubt be carried out in a past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of plauded, and will no doubt be carried out in a post Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of plauded, and will no doubt be carried out in a past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of plauded, and will no doubt be carried out in a past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of during the past year, to devote quite so subject which will at an early period of the session be brought up for discussion. I allude to the past year, and his own opinion market on Friday was very active, and full the past year, and his own opinion with the comment of the committee of foreign correspondence.

Mr. Desaulniers would vote against the

The motion was lost on a division. ACADEMIC SCHOOLS.

"LICENSE LAW.

its organization, its priority, its subsequent ber assured me that Ministers are deter- should flourish, to reflect more seriously up- application of the kind I had received the selling of his line the affernous by a state of the line of the line creasing or diminishing the tax.

Mr. Cameron said any abjections against the rule of Jacques Felix Fincennes, Esq., Miss Huff and Sister, Bloomfield; C A equivalent to the recognizance which he has L Freeman, Schenectady; E B Foremo on a House of only 84 members-Yeas, 37

Whole with a view to substitute ad valorem for specific duties on such articles as are now charged at these rates. After much debate, in the course of which Mr. Brown advocated the adoption of the principle direct taxation, and Mr. Cayley again de-points or her news were published on Tuesday evening, via Cape Race.

Mr. Loranger disapproved of the motion. The British Revenue Returns for the year

The Judicial Committee of the Privy

Albany, July 14.

New York, July 16. an embankment of thirty feet. Nine person were killed, viz: Mr. and Mrs. Brown and sor of Tioga Valley, Louisa Cary, Miss Child, of Mr. Bourassa disapproved in part of the | New Orleans, Mrs. Adam Roy, W. Childer, boy, and H. Hood. Forty-seven were wound-

New York, July 15, Mr. Cimon proposed several resolutions | It is now stated authentically that the Cof-

The Peace Commissioners in a despatch to the Government, state they have settled the difficulty between the United States and Utah The despatch substantially confirms previously

Schencetady, July 15. A brenk occurred in the Eric Canal, about Mr. Cameron moved the House into a 10 o'clock this morning, half a mile west of Committee of the Whole, to consider cer | about 75 feet of the bank gone. The water is

It is Resolved,—That an impartial review | Parliament will not last longer than an- have any regard for masonry, if they love | March last by the R. W. D. G. M. of the completion. license in towns at £25, in the country at | eral warrants have been out for some time past f quor on Sunday, and obliged the taverns to Charley Brown, while passing Mr. Thomp Mr. J. S. Macdonald thought there was no | couple of pistol shots at the house, and M ter of a lodge should be the ambition of extending the power and authority of this every brother, and to discharge with efficient and Lodge exercised at first considerable on the occasion of the presentation of a Sil on the occasion of the presentation of a Sil necessity for the law. The existing made of pistol shots at the house, and Mr.

Robinson came out and returned the first considerable of pistol shots at the house, and Mr.

Robinson came out and returned the first considerable of pistol shots at the house, and Mr. of regulating taverns sufficed for all the groin of a lad named Bushell, Mr. Robinson purposes required. The municipalities, as followed O'Harra down to Brock-street, where the matter now stood, had the right of in- with the assistance of policemen, he was secured in a Mr. Moore's yard, and safely locked up. [News.

ARRIVALS AT IRONS' HOTEL.

B. F. Davy, Belleville; L. L. Cooper Adams; G Groves, London, England, I