SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 13, 1868.

REMOVAL OF FENIAR ARMS. -- The Montreal Witness is informed by a correspondent, that on Thursday morning thirty cases gomery, and taken East on the Vermont | increased £235,000 sterling since the last re-Central R.R. The arms were seized two years ago by the American government, and have remained in custody till that day, when they were removed, as stated above, the parties so removing them (one of whom is said to be head-centre) having given bonds that they would not be used for an unlawful purpose.

Toronto, Belleville and Brockville are moving in the matter of celebrating Dominion Day, the 1st of July, as a Public Holiday and Day of Celebration. An excellent article on this subject, taken from the London Free Press, will be found in another column.
