THE FASHIONABLE SKASON--QUEBEC ABLAZE -BEAUTY, WEALTH AND FASHION-THE RIVER BAGUENAY AND. WATERING PLACES ON THE LOWER ST. LAWRENCE -WAR, ETC., ETC.

Quebec, June 80.h. here on the 1st met., is unquestionably one old historic city. From the early part of candidates, however, have seen fit to hawk chat. One of these charming widows, besides a large fortune, is blessed with eleven changes in dress for eleven different watering places, without wearing the same dress the second time. The fine steamers "Magnet" and "Cutaract" are plying between Lawrence. The trip from here to Ha! Ha! Bay, which is at the head of the steamboat navigation on the River Saguenay, is beauti ul beyond description. Baynard Taylor and other well known writers have often tried, but in all their writings they never could exhaust the beauty and wonders which are to be found on the Lower Lawience and the River Saguenay. The ery of war which the Fenian fermentation have kept up so long has entirely died away. Never did a country look more tranquil and harmonising than this does now. Her Majesty's steam frigate "Constance" is lying at anchor in the stream the Citadel, quietly waiting for something that they have missed one of the mos charming and interesting places on the line of the great fashionable pleasure tour of America. The beauties and natural attractions in and about Quebec are unbeautiful, and the influx of people en- who is troubled with the Silver nuisane
