FUNERAL .-- On Sunday afternoon a youn member of the Choir of All Saint's Churc was interred, the choir and churchmen in a body paying their last offices to the leparted chorister. At the evening service, the Rev. Mr. Windsor, Pastor, preached a funeral sermon, highly eulogistic of the deceased's christian character.

CRICKET .- The eleven of the Kingston Cricket Club leave to-day for Ottawa, where they will tose the bat to-morrow with the Ottaws Club.

JUDGE OF PETERBORO', .- The Ottawa Times understands that Robert Depoisto Esq , Barrister, is about to be appointed Judge of the County of Peterboro' the place of the late Judge Boucher, deceased.? Mr. Denniston's appointment will give very general satisfaction, as he is a gentleman of high character and ability. and confessedly stands at the head of the profession in that part of the country. _
