MILTONIAN TABLEAUX in the City Hall this afternoon and evening.

Fairs and Cattle Shows.

Kingston Electoral Society Show, F. Provincial Fair at Hamilton, Tuesday

esday, Oct. 7th.

ual exhibition at Town Hall, on Tuesday, 6th October.

MCGEE ASSASSINATION. The Trial of Whalen.

the details of the assasination bereliminary investigation. He said the sider that another man has also in the prin elaborate argument to show the danger | ing the distinctions that he had made by een true. He traced him down to La- Were those visits for a friendly purpose? her son's ; Mr. McGee wore a white hat, portions of Turner's evidence to show that the arrangements were made as well as they go down to his grave with delight to the Russell House. Whelea did not go that Parliament House with that weapon, for which pectation, looking very pale, with black cir- | weak, and that the evidence was not suf- | shadow passing as he was approaching his | der, this lurking about where McGee used to | cles under his eyes, and a peculiarly haggard | ficient to warrant twelve men on their outle of the prisoner trembling | be seemed also undoubted. No doubtexists that | by the herculean efforts that had been made, within one moment Thos. D Arcy McGee then you must bring him thinking of McGee, For several nights sentence was deeply moved. to obtain most eminent counsel for the des was no more. Who saw the prisoner said excitedly, "Well, ting so foul a crime, showing that they against the prisoner before the trial commence "luminaries." In the glory of this calm light he said that Whelan and Doyle were in the were not at liberty to refuse, but were ed, and if they did that no matter what the the black deed was then perpetrated, which habit of conversing was undoubted. That country was to give that verdict according vidence might be divided into three of his manhood and greatness had been foul- able to concoct such a tale and tell it in the " attaching undue weight to the first, learned friend between circumstantial and man fell, and with facts as parrated by other fortifying his position by numerous exam- direct or positive evidence and he admission with sesses. It was said Lacrotx should not ples, and having set aside the present cir of prisoner himself. He then traced the pris- be believed because he did not acquaint to cumstantial evidence as unworthy of oner back to the time when he lived in Que- authorities with what he had seen, or go redit, he proceeded to take up the direct | bec, under the name of Sullivan. That was to the aseis'ance of the man who had been widence of Turner as to threats, showing the first knowledge the jury had of him from shot. He (Mr. O'Reilly) would leave it to mprobability, not to say impossibili- Quebec; he was traced to Montreal where the jury whether, if any of them were in a

it was concocted after the evidence of language as the prisoner had used at chat in | deed ; John McGee had been heard, who gave regard to Mr. McGee, was lat from J common ant vidence at examination after him, and even in the most heated political struggles. then for the first time stated the circum- | He (Mr. O'Reilly) referred to the evidence of tances of Whalen coming to him and re- | Fauikner, who heard prisoner call Mr. McGee reiving the letter to the Chief of Police. a traitor and threatened him with death, and Whelan that I was fire the shot that night, he was where the control of of Lacroix to show how highly improba- habit of practicing. Going a little further to break down Lacroix's evidence by a man as he touched them at all. Mo t of the ble it was, the contradictions it involved, gard to these threatening expressions of the holy gospel in another, and told to speak the and brilliant address from his Lordship, reone seeing him at the very time members | Inglis, who spoke of conversations he had intelligence of the jury by asking them to give | The jury retired at a quarter to a were leaving the house; and when the with the prisoner in which he had spoken no credence to evidence such as that. He o'clock, and the court adjourned until the road, although Labelle, Robert, the would. There could be no question about anything of that kind, were not admissable two police, and another witness were in the evidence of these two witnesses. His but | sesume that what they spoke was not true. He particular of where he was or whom he statement before the police magistrate was saw. He showed contradictions in Lanot as full as that he had made here. Could called God to witness as to the truth of state.

with great fortitude, and when he average is the called God to witness as to the truth of state. eration with Mrs. Trotter's evidence and | his statement? He thought not, He here read whoever fired the shot could not ly making threats against Mr. McGee, showhave fired it from the direction in which | ing the subject was always in his mind, that | ld a man swear to the identity of Wha- | night. Un one occasion he became enraged swears that McGee were a on reading a speech of Mr. McGee on Fenian-

It was improbable that conspiranot the life of the foremost man a should plot as openly as Wade y did in Duggan's house. He ed that the prisoner's statement, ed there by a sudden whispering, carried on the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
against the prisoner and fully bore out his
ed that the prisoner's statement,
ed there by a sudden whispering, carried on the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
against the prisoner and fully bore out his ed there by a sudden whispering, carried on the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
and Whalen were confederates, and that Doyle
and Whalen were confederates, and that Doyle
ing, to be again resumed in low tones.

The prisoner who had the same hag are lowed to contract the evidence of the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
and Whalen were confederates, and that Doyle
to the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
and Whalen were confederates, and that Doyle on by fits and starts, but quickly subsiding to the Bench. (Mr. O'Reilly's) charge at the opening, groundwho had the same had been taunted with it by gentlemen on the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the
and Whalen were confederates, and that Doyle on by fits and starts, but quickly subsiding to the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the and Whalen were true that Doyle
on the Bench. (Prisoner referred to the on by fits and starts, but quickly subsiding to the Bench of Cullea and Hess. If live the prisoner is the beautiful the prisoner is the prisoner who had the same had not been taunted with the prisoner is the constant to the prisoner is the prisoner who had the same had not been the prisoner in the prisoner in the prisoner is the prisoner in the prisoner is the prisoner in the prisoner is the prisoner in t that he went straight home, had not been disproved. While vengeance was pursuant being the crown was that any one with the companion of the crown was that any one construction of the con ing Mr. John McGee; and the was not carried out it was because Provi- his country and to its spirit of justice, and be fate would be known, and, as the tension | Gee). I respected him as an able man. AcGee's house, with other dence interfered to prevent Mr. McGee's house, with other dence interfered to have relaxed and buzzing con- but we, Roman Cathelios, are always trial at the next Assizes. gainst him. As to the admis- did not appear that the landlord Buggan, at | dulge in any figure of speech, but would sim- the entrance of the jury restored the of feelings that should not exist in any carried away by the eloquence of his learned | there by Buckley who gave him the tickets. | andfilstinct and the police and other witnesshe seen? He was seen waiting in the inside | bended. It is suggested that the language two o'clock in the mothing. Him goin ; and so, they must give effect to thoir convictions. whole object of the community and the pub- ed suspicion. Well, that night he was seen, the Crown. His Lordship then said there Ottawa, Monday, Sept. 14. | lie press was to lay bure every fact that said (Mr. O'Leilly) first sent to go down the seems to be some facts not disputed, and Nearly an hour before the opening of the would throw light upon the dasterdly deed; | centre walk from Parliament buildings. Mr. among them are these; that he carried a pistol the scuts were pretty nearly all filled | if he (Mr. O'Reilly) had been the humble | Mothes followed. Soon a large crowd fol- loaded with a ball the same as that with exactly with the statements of Mrs. Trotter in decation, it is your duty to give the prisoner is regard to the manner in which the murdered the benefit of the death, but not the

He (Mr. O'Reilly) would not insult the | tired about eight o'clock in disgust. have been there, had his story paid visits to Mr. McGee's house at night, having been tound in the prisoner's possession rue. He traced him down to La- Were these visits for a friendly purpose? with one chamber, which had evidently been dootrine, and not applicable to the admis-(Mr. O'Reily) now came to the testimony of Turner, who his learned friend said was not too well the value of an oath. If he and liess it was, and when the jury was distinct the best of the charge of the Chief Justice, long too well the value of an oath. If he and liess it was, and when the jury was distinct the best of the charge of the Chief Justice, long to the best of the charge of the Chief Justice, long to the best of the charge of the Chief Justice, long the best of the charge of the Chief Justice, long the best of the charge of the cha black one; a man could not conceal that the prisoner had not given expression not believe, then the blood of an innocent most important questions and facts there were decided contradictions. Mr. Came-were decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions and facts there was a tree-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions and facts there was a tree-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions and facts there was a tree-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions and facts there was a tree-wise decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions are decided contradictions are decided contradictions. Mr. Came-wise decided contradictions are decided contradictions. ron gave a searching analysis of Lacroix's McGee, as a loyal man, felt it his duty to evidence and impeached its credibility. Sure to his country, above price. Its name doors are to his country, above price. Its name would go down to posterity with the exectable would go down and placed in the middle brought down and placed in the middle election contest. The statements of Wade and Turner, if true, would show a settled purpose in the mind of the prisoner. But Wade was a man, sprung up at eleventh hour, without anticodents, telling of he ultimately acted on his word. Then there was the evidence of Wade, which also wanting, there was a man in the adjoining ble. As the last name was heard, there have scorned to treat as they treated me, that he would shoot him like a dog if mobody must say that the evidence received in this I here and came | and to this the murdered man described. | 94c to 95c for No. 2; rejected 92c to 95c. else would do it. The prisoner was restless; case had been creditable to the witnesses. In Montreal, where I remained 12 or 18 of whom you spoke yourself, paid a just Oats steady at 53 to 10 54c. Rye $1 20 between Devlin and McGee, but only that they were as well treated under the Sc to 54; sales at $1 67 to $1 70 for that I was taken to become scrutineer. | laws of this country as it was possible for | 2. Provisions dull; mess pork $29.25 to

that ended my election. I came with Your religion has not only equal rights. of the onter door. He was looking then | used on this occasion was a repetition of the stands superior to the stan into the lobby in a distance where Mr. Mo- evidence given by Turner. They had better ing, but I did not like the place and came | established and having powers above any | No. 1 Can-da wheat, 0,00 to 0,00; Su that I could not earn a could living and higher privileges than they have possessed | No. 2 Western wheat, 0,00 to 900 knew that the man who committed that fiend- | was die there for ? He (Mr. O'Reilly) went | thing Turner said. But the confessions made | make money, so I took a house at the ish act that night, who tracked Mr. McGoe on to point out other suspicious freedom. The evidence for the o.og to 0 oo; Spring, 0.00 to 0.00; West stances in Whelen's conduct. His going to the gaol should be most satisfactory to their ten several letters, telling her I intended crown leaves no doubt that you did use per 0,000 to 0,00. Ost - per 00 los, 00 minds, as, from the position of the prisoners, to be down by Christmas, and on Christ- strong language against McGee. It has | 00: Barles -- per 48 lbs, 0,00 to 0,00. his blood, ought to receive the just reward acquaintance; and on another occasion his they were unable to bring up evidence to reof his great crime. He (Mr. O'Reilly) be. visiting Mrs. McLannes and staying there ill bute. If they believe the conversations were the train went out at 1 80, and I reached pone; that you paid frequent visits to the to one. Ashre-pors, 0,00 to 0,00; pour la went into was, I think, Mrs. Scanlon's. buildings, is beyond a doubt; and when Prime mess, 00,00 to 00 00. Prime, 00,00 I was at a house, but not a dance, as has no jury could disbelieve in your guilt. | Rye Flour, 0.00 to 0,00.

collection that he had shared in an act of way but took the centre walk. Who saw no satisfactory explanations given to this car loads at about took the centre walk. Who saw no satisfactory explanations given to this car loads at about took the centre walk. Who saw no satisfactory explanations given to this car loads at about took the centre walk. The hall was, however, inconveniously crowd barrel was recently covered with grease, at the other side of a board from us, and dreadful course, consider while there is previous rat s. Provisions unchanged; in the section by Mr. Cunningham, which struck down Thos. D'Arcy McGee. He he cross the bridge on his way home with and that one ball was placed there subsequent through the board heard a conversation yet time. The verdict leaves you only one time. At 9.15 his Lordship Judge Richards took | wanted no other reward; it would be a any person? Did any one witness that that Mr. McGee's house was to be burned | alternative. If this sentence be ratified, attention in in price. his sest, and the names of the petty jurors | crime before Heaven to slow a man, who | Who saw him after that it will be, by were called over, and the prisoner was then did that foul deed to escape just retribution. McGee saw him after that, and if Thomas suppose that he filled it up. But the Crown friend, and we agreed to go up. He never public opinion, that, without possibility brought in, after a painful interval of ex- it was said that the case for the crown was D'Arey McGee's while I was in with Mr. Mc- of reversal, while life is left to consider look on his face. He appeared now to res- declaring that the prisoner at the bar was perceptibly.) Mrs. Trotter heard the conversation between his brother and pare to meet your God. It is now my lize the awful position in which he was plac- the guilty party. He would recapitulate to These were the foot-steps of Mr. McGee who ence to Mr. McGee who After some formal business of the jury, briefly and successfully as possible heard the steps of the law, -that on the 10th of the facts of the case, and after they heard tively felt the danger, and was fiyng from the door. He was waiting for me December next, between the hours of 9 Mr. J. H. Cameron rose, and, after a that statement he thought there would be no assessin. The noise she beard was the noise she noise she beard was the noise she noise s doubt in the mind of an honest man as to made by Mr. McGee in his excitement to get other hand that I place of detention to the place of execuwhe of the amount of prejudice raised | the guilt of the prisoner, unless, indeed, the bis latch key that I did not deliver the letter direct, but I did not deliver the letter direct, but I did not deliver the letter direct, but I igainst the prisoner, for whose condemna- prejudice to which his learned friend had re- ceed, but before he did so, and my neck until you are dead, and may the ferred was the other way. That there was derer was within five feet of him, the pistol for him and other witnesses to swear falsely. Lord have were forced to use Lord have were forced to use Lord have severy on your soul. some such prejudice of this kind was shown was pointed to the back of his week, and If you believe that Lacroix saw the prisoner caution. I returned here to work, never | His Lordship during the delivery of the tence and he was very much afraid that the The God of Heaven saw him, and witnessed next consideration. That hangs on Turner's got three or four, perhaps five, tickets | Lord, that sentence does not make me object was to carry away in triumph bim the deed. (Sensation, the prisoner again evidence, the tenor of which was given, and from Buckley, and went on the 6th of guilty, I feel that I am innocent in my dence. He proceeded to defend the conduct of himself and other counsel in undertaking the defence of the prisoner at the bar, who was charged with commit | unsuffied by anything they had beard for or | ven was lit up with the brightness of Heaven's | the witnesses. With respect to the admissions, | several times to come down stairs. Dr. first-class workmen. Sweetland can testify to the cause, he has | wild expression in his eye, that seemed as | bound to defend a man accused even of a prejudices outside were they would do their to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other wise would be their to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other wise would be their to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other wise would be their to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other wise would be their to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more that they other to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more than they other to bring down the vengeance of God from they said more than they other they would be the vengeance of God from crime so abhorrent to haman feelings, duty unflinchingly before their God and Heaven upon the cowardly and detestable au- have done if they bad not supposed they were than three or four minutes out each time. He was then quickly managing and DAY AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock, to been purchasers. against whom heavy prejudices existed, country and return a true verdict. No mat. the Ware-Rooms of MR. F. C. is well as one on whose behalf popular ter whether it consigned the prisoner to be neither gloryfying in his deed nor de- all the time I swear I did not hear Mc- him in charge, and as he turned to leave CLINE, corner of Princess and Ontario favour had been excited. He paid a high murderer a doom or allowed him to go forth an ignorant Frenchman, unlettered and boast but he former of Princess and Ontario ful, according to his learned friend, but he it known. Taking in conjunction with my back to the land he seemed almost to be covered by manufactured for the Hamilton Provinhad given evidence in that box which few of other facts, this would assuredly bring home door, as Buckley says. I thought be was an asky paleness, replacing the former of them could refuse to believe. If that evi- conviction, if you believe them. Looking at | coming out, but had again occasion of na- flosh dence was manufactured, if Lacroix made the all the ficts, do you believe the prisoner ture to go off. I saw Sir John's carriage. who was in the prime of his manhood might story out of the whole cloth; then, instead of guilty? You will say as you think. After Passed on. I went down the sidewalk, as manner in which he had conducted the be cut off, they must at the same time con being an ignorant, stupid man, as he seemed, all you have beard in his favour, if the evi- I always did, for I never used the centre- SIR N. F. BELLEAU IN MONTREAL. he must be a man of singular shilty to be dence leads you to believe him guilty, say so, walk. The clothes I wore that night The Lieut. Governor of Quebec arrived Ist, circumstantial, 2nd, direct; ly and treacherously sisin. He (Mr. O'Reilly) menner he had done. His descriptions talled you have reasonable doubt, after every consi-

went to the Town Hall, but was not ad-

but only waited a few minutes, and went next to Trotter's, and from that to my own shop. At night I went to the S ciety, with my revolver in my pocket, ramrod and box of cartridges. In the Society I sat down, not thinking f Mr.

I then went to Mrs. Quinn's charge after speaking six hours and a half, Mr. Cameron's masterly effort lasted two hours and a half. Mr. O'Reilly spoke for an hour and a half. A slight recess was of the supposed conversation over he was found taking an active part in the. strange city and saw a similar circumstance then taken, after which His Lordship deelection between Mr. McGee and Mr. Devlin enacted, they would act in the same way, livered his charge. Just think of it-six heard in the glass pantry between Doyle It is true that at such contest hard words whather they would not have fled rather than hours and forty minutes were occupied in all I went about. I was at Mrs. Mcand Whalen being concealed by Turner, were often said and violent epithets applied if he had really heard it; but he believed by one side or the other or by both but more than become suspected of having done the half an hour however of the whole Kenna's twice; the first time I went suspected of having done the half an hour, however, of the whole and because this poor ignor period was devoted to comments on the two in the morning. I was two nights Frenchman who like his fellow- evidence, the remainder of the time was at Mrs. Trotter's, I swear I did not countrymen of Lower Canada was simple consumed in reading over the testimony know Mr. McGee boarded there or where honest, peaceful, and afraid of broils, came itself. Here and there His Lordship he lived. Boyce took me there. commented on it as he went along, but excuses of which jurors sometimes avai themselves. His lordship concluded

The pit-oner was then removed.

not believed that the jury was looked up agree, but b cause they desired to soon the night in deliberating carefully upon the The prisoner looked more excited to-day than any day since the trial commence ed the Chief Justice at the close, askin Jury, he startled the spectators by the lond

EIGHTH DAY. Verdict and Sentence.

EXCITED SPEECH BY WHALEN.

waited till dinner and came away, the river (referring to Lower Canada.)

Gee. John McGee was not present at seriously what lies before you, pre-wear, and cap. There are no outside on Tuesday morning at Montreal, and pockets, but I have a pistol pocket, which | was received at the wharf by the Mayor I had put in it. When I came out I and Corporation, who presented an ad. went straight down to the Russell House dress of welcome. The Lt.-Governor to see Doyle, whom I had seen the eventhen proceeded to the Crystal Palace and TABLEAUX! leave Eagleson's. He said I should not, formally opened the Provincial Exhibition, which is the best ever held in Lower speak, to him Canada, He is the guest of the Mayor.

about it, that, I swear was He held a levee yesterday, and attends a public dinner to day in St. Patrick's Hall. A telegram from Washington we give for what it is worth : 'Mr. Thornton, the British Minister. not Sir Edward, as the papers will insist ready. I often before have done the meuts. Information has been received Gen. O'Neil, are about ready to move on Paradise Lost! Canada, having twenty thousand stand their old arms converted to the breechloading principle under a new patent.

DOMINION STREET.E MATCH. The Tournament Opened.

which eclipses all others."

rairie to-day. About 15,000 volunteers The weather is most There are 400 entries for the days, and the Tournament about ten upon arrival, detached to tents already 16th and 17th Instant. everything is seemingly well organized.

FROM OFTAWA. men of Ot. Famine in Red River-Whalen Ontrageous.

A true bill has been found against attendance.

ions, they must be received with great ions, they must be received with great audion. He referred to the conversation. He referred to the conversation audion. He referred to the conversation why they addressed the prisoner as Suilivan and Smith instead of Whalen. The use of the large restored the conversation why they addressed the prisoner as Suilivan truly try, and a true verdict give as they came in the conversation of the large restored the conversation whose house the conspirators niet, was more than a mere tool of their's, for he wondered which I was a mere tool of their's, for he wondered to six why they addressed the prisoner as Suilivan truly try, and a true verdict give as they came in the conversation than a mere tool of their's, for he wondered to six we are made the victims, and for which I have now to suffer; and this spirit exists in the conversation truly try, and a true verdict give as they came in the conversation than a mere tool of their's, for he wondered to six we are made the victims, and to the conversation truly try, and a true verdict give as they came in the conversation than a mere tool of their's, for he wondered to six we are made the victims, and this spirit exists in the conversation try, and a true verdict give as they came in the conversation than a mere tool of the prisoner even to the conversation than a mere tool of the spirit of party—of which I have now in the conversation to the conversation than a mere tool of the prisoner even to the conversation to the conversation than a mere tool of the spirit of party—of which I have now to suffer; and this spirit exists the conversation to the conversation than a mere tool of the party—of which I have now to suffer the conversation of the conversation to th Chiengo Markets.

but I did go and put down some names | terms with every other here and across | Montreal Markets-Yesterday Montreal between 12 and I o'clock on | neighbourhood of the lodgings of Mr. | 0.00 to 0.00. Gold in New York at 12 Christmas morning. The first house I | McGec, hovering about the Parliament o'clock 1441. Pork Mess 00,00 to 00,00; Under the supervision of Mr. William I remained three or four days in Montreal. to all this is added other testimony, to 00,00. Peas, per 66 ibs 1,074 to 1,124.

been so often said, with another man, And I can only warn you of the Flour-receipts moderate; a small busi- Fight K reputation of these Planes is fully The admissions were all by ticket, and means of drawing forth these facts, he would lowed and went out by the east entrance to which you are placed. | ness done at unchanged rates ; market | means of drawing forth these facts, he would lowed and knows well dreadful position in which you are placed. | ness done at unchanged rates appre-I tell what is true. I heard a conversa- | Your natural imperuosity and violence of heavy but not lower. Grain -wheat $1.50 in | outed throughout the Province, and still

On Sept. 16th, the wife of Mr. F.

MARRIED.

Sept. 10th, 18t8, by the Rev. J. rigan, Mr. John Halligan, to Delia Halligan, of Canajoharie, N.Y.

In Brockville, on the 9th inst., James Moon, Esq., aged 46 years.

cial Exhibition. Prof. Carlo Mora, the accomplished Pianist; will preside.

Kingston, Sept. 16, 1868.

TO-DAY. MILTONIAN

THIS CELEBRATED SERIES

COSTLY PAINTINGS By three of the best English Scenic

MILTON'S GRAND POEM

Artists, illustrating

Will be Exhibited in the CITY HALL Kingston.

Wednesday

EVENINGS,

A MATINEE For the Encouragem at of Agriculture,

THURSDAY.

AT HALF-PAST TWO ON

An able LECTURER has been engaged, who will deliver an Address on

MILTON AND HIS TIMES.

Beserved Seats 50 cts.

Doors open at 74 P.M. Lecture commences at 8 P.M G. D. LAWSON & Co.,

Shandy, Nasby Popers, &c., &c., PATERT IRON-SLAD Piano Fortes !! F. C. CLINE, Manufacturer,

At the original and principal Factory, rner Princess & Ontorio Sis KINGSTON. ONT. Conningham, whose name appears on

AND EQUALITY OF TORE, BLASSICITY AND INSTANTANEOUS REPETITION OF TOUCH, which ance of rapid passages. In addition to these the Aigraff System has been introduced, extending throughout the Scale. Another great improvem at in the action of these Pimos is the bushing of all pivot bearings, which renders the action perfeetly notseless after being in use for

The public and intending purchasers are respectfully invited to visit the factory b ar the examination and give satisfaction to the most critical judges.

This Manufactory possesses the follow ing advantages ;- The exclusive use of Fox's Iron-Ctad Sounding Board, the adoption of every known and the introduction of many original improvements, and

Each Piano is guaranteed by a written been attending me for the complaint; I | if he was fast losing the restraint he had | THE Musical Public are respectfully | warranty, and references can be given to King ton, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Great Credit Sale

2in220 | Horses, Cattle, Farming Implements, Lumber, Household Furnivire.

DRY GOODS, GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES, JEWELLERY, &c. &c. THE Subscriber has received inscree-I tions from MR. RICHARD BURS-

On Thursday, October 1st, the following, viz :--One Handred Thousand Feet of Pine & Hemlock Lumber, I Span Iron Grey Geldngs, weil matched, I six years old Mare, 3 Cove, I wurham Bull, Full Bred Leices. ter Sheep, I Leicester Ram ; Lot Pigs (Yorkshire, Breed), 1 Spring Waggon, Lumber, do., I Single Spring Waggon, Buggy, I bett Bob Sleighe, I Double do. Seit Lumber Harness, I Sett Carriage do., Lot of Straw, and a quantity of Farming Implements, &c., too numerous to An assertment of Household

The following, imported from England :--A number of handsome Paisley Shawle, English Lever Solver Watches, 1: Gold Chronometer, Ladies' Gold Watches, and a quantity of first-class Jewellery. TERMS-Under $20, cosh ; from $20 to $50, three months; over $50, six months, by furnishing approved endersed Cy Sale at I o'clock P.M.

Furniture, Bedding and Wearing Apparel.

Kingston, Sept. 15, 1868. For Sale.

LOT No. 318, corner of Queen and Sydenham Streets, in the City of Lingston, containing one-fifth of an Acre. Alto, Park Lot No. 7, East aide of King Street, in the Village of Portsmooth, containing about 41 Acres. TERMS CASH. Apply to GILDERSLEEVE & WALKEM, ELECTORAL DIVISION SOCIETY Horriculture, Manufactures and Works of Att, &c.

CITY OF KINGSTON

Kingston, Sept. 15, 1868.

TABLE AUTUMN SHOW of the Society 1 will take pince in the KINGSTON SKATING BINK

KING STREET, On Friday, September 18th. the Afternoon, and 7 and 10 in the

Between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock The Exhibition will consist of Entries in ture, Agriculture, Works of Art and Manu-Entries of Articles may be made with at the Skatting Rink Building from 10 till 4. Positively no entries will be taken till 10 ø'eleek.

bers 25 cents : Children built price. N.B .- Articles on Exhibition 1