ried on with great vigor, the Committees of both candidates being busily at work Owing to the unhappy dissentions in the County Council, of which Mr. Calvin has been Warden for the past two years, he is not so popular with the Conservatives of Frontenac as could be wished, and many of them may possibly stay away from the Polis on Monday, though they won't vote for the Grit Candidate. Now we entreat of these Electors to look at this matter in its proper light. Whatever may have been Mr. Calvin's conduct in the County Council, that ought not to affect him as the Conservative Candidate for Frontenac. He has been fairly called to that position, and he should be supported in lt. The County for very many years has been Conservative, and Government Patronage has always been extended to that party. should be kept so; for should it un fortunately fall into the hands of the Grits, it will be lost to the Conservatives for ever, parties being so balanced, that the Government patronage will give the pregonderance. Therefore, if through the supineness of the Conservatives, Mr. Britton carry the Election, he is young, active and energetic, and he will keep his seat. There is nothing against Mr. Calvin as a Conservative, except these Council squabbles, and they won't be mended

The matter is fairly before the Conservarive Electors, and if they lose Frontenac, by suffering it to fall into the hands of the Grits, it will be their own fault, for which they will be sorry when too late.
