LETTERS & TELEGRAMS. - J. H. Toronto; C. T. P., Montreel; J. J. S.,

The Toronto House of Assembly Ontario, altho' the only Legislative body the Province, does not appear abound in talent, unless it be to speak long time, which all the members are dis posed to do whenever they get a chance This remark is most applicable to the Opposition leaders, who do nothing but talk. Their would-be leader, Mr. Blake, possessus the art of saying nothing and taking a long time to say it, in great per He has a powerful gift of the gab, almost as much so as the Rev. A Punshon, but unlike that reverend gentieman, his flowers of oratory have no smell-when heard they are forgotten. In time he might become a most usefu gislator, for he has ability; but thrusting his crudities before the public as he does, and being always in the wrong, is simply a long-winded nuisance. the prophetic admonition is applicable to ed).
