> Post Office Robberies. A DISHONEST CLERK AT HALIFAX. Halifax, Oct. 24.—The investigations which have for a long time been in progress respecting the loss of money letters in the post-offices of Nova Scotia, have at last been successful. The perpetrator of the robbery was John C. Campbell, a clerk in the Halifax post office, who has served long, and been deemed a most trustworthy officer. Some days ago the beries were committed in the Halifax post office, and Halifax detectives were employed to seek out the thief. Campbell's style of living attracted suspicion, and the detectives shadowed him closely. As
