The Parliament of Ontario is drawing to a close, altho' a great deal of business apparently remains to be done. It must close on the 15th of next month, and in all likelihood, will close a full week wie that day, so as to enable all parties to prepare tor the Domicion Session.

The chief business matter remaining undone is the apportionment of the surplus revenue, amounting to more than Three Mil. | majority of twenty-two. lions of Dollars, with a yearly surplus over expenditure of nearly One Million more. Of this sum one million and a half are to as loans or bonuses, not yet known- sent no Warden could be elected. the' probably the latter. It will be this opportionment that will cause the trouble, for all parties will be claiming their share. . As to the Railroad to Pembroke, we hardly know what to say. The Bill is not yet before the House and may not be this Session. Nor can it be before the Domin ion Parlian ent for some time after it opens The scheme is viewed with great favour both at Oltawa and Toronto, and doubtless some means will be used to keep back a. large portion of the Grant. But even if the whole million and a half be distributed this Session, plenty of money still remains and more will accumulate in another year, to doull for the Pembroke Railroad what it can reasonably ask for. 'So that the matter may be considered settled.
