VOL. XLI.] KINGSTON, CANADA, TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 16, 1872. [NO. 165.

"Lights and Shadows of New York Life; or, the Sights and Sensations of the Great City." A work descriptive of New York City in all its various phases. Its Splendors and Wretchedness; Its Inner and Outer Life; Its Marble Palaces and Dark Dens; Its Attractions and Dangers; Its Rogues and Frauds; Its Leading Men and Public Institutions; Its Adventurers; Its Mysteries and Crimes. By James D. McCabe, Jr.

The National Publishing Company of Philadelphia, have just issued one of the most remarkable and attractive books of the day, bearing the above title. It is comprised in one large octave volume of 850 pages, and illustrated with nearly 200 fine engravings of noted places, life and scenes in New York.

To Mr. McCabe is due the credit of having produced the most complete and graphic account of the great city, and its busy and varied life that it has been our fortune to meet with. His book is term full of solid and useful information, and abounds in descriptions of the various public buildings of New York, its palaces, prisons, hotels, churches, stores, hospitals, etc.

The work sets forth in glowing colors the noble work for suffering humanity which is going on every day in the great city, and reveals with a bold hand the terrible crimes; the dark mysteries, and the hidden sins of metropolitan life. We are introduced into the home of the Fifth Avenue millionaire, and carried with equal interest to the squalid cellar of the Five Points beggar. We are brought face to face with the good and the bad, the high and the low, with leading merchants, bankers, editors, and actors, with burglars, thieves, detectives, and murderers, with working women, ballet girls, adventuresses, and a host of others, and we seem to be listening to their stories from their own lips, so thoroughly does the author enchain our interest. Our warmest sympathies and our deepest contempt are alternately aroused by the thrilling recital of their deeds of virtue and vice. The history and frauds of the famous Tammany Ring are related with great force and candor, and this portion alone is worth the price of book.

In short the books is New York in Miniature. The author has penetrated, under the protection of the police, into the darkest and most dangerous haunts of crime in the city, and has thus been enabled to obtain accurate information on the topics whereof he treats. Visitors to New York, cannot hope to see or know as much of the city as they may learn by a perusal of this book. To all who contemplate visiting the great Metropolis, we cordially recommend it, both for its information and for its powerful warnings against the dangers of the city. Those who cannot see New York for themselves will be in a great measure repaid for that privation by reading this work. It is published in both English and German, and by subscription only, and the publishers want agents in every county.

SUSPENSION OF THE NEW YORK STANDARD.—The Daily New York Standard, after sinking all the capital put into the establishment, and after superhuman efforts on the part of its friends to make it pay expenses, has finally suspended publication. This makes about 100 daily journals started and suspended in New York within a quarter of a century, after a precarious existence. The capital sunk in them has not been less than $25,000,000. John Russell Young started the Standard as an Administration organ in opposition to Mr. Dana's Sun, but it never obtained much vigor, and lost money every day of its existence.

We copy the following from an exchange, which is important, if true:—Chronic diarrhœa of long standing, also dysentery, and all similar complaints common at this season of the year, can be cured by the use (internally) of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We know whereof we affirm.

☞ After wear, pestilence and intemperance—colds lead to the greatest destruction of human life, mainly, because it is considered by many to be of no consequence and hence systematically neglected until a simple, curable disease, is converted into a fatal pulmonary one. Everyone troubled with what is called a slight cold or cough, should immediately use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers—they allay irritation at once, and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cts. per box.

☞ Did you ever think that what is termed a common cold, when systematically neglected, often leads to that most fatal and distressing disease—consumption—but when attended to at once is generally easy of cure. If you are troubled with a cold or cough, "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers" will be found to be the most efficacious in removing it. They give immediate relief, and generally effect a cure when used in time. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

☞ Every pleasure has its necessary pain.—This maxim of the Greek philosopher is daily verified during the summer season, when our pleasure in eating delicious fruits is somewhat dulled by the doleful prospect of colics, cramps, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera, and other disagreeable consequences of an over-feed. But the pain of anticipation vanishes and the present pleasure alone remains, when we reflect that "every bane has its antidote" and that all diseases of the bowels are checked and cured by the timely use of Ayer's Arsica Anodyne.

Office of Evans, Mercer & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Montreal November, 1871.—Mr. James I. Fellows. Dear Sir: We have a large and increasing demand for your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and there is no doubt as its valuable properties become more generally known, its sale will still further increase. The best proof of the efficiency and high character of the preparation is that medical men are largely prescribing it; and we hear from Dispensing Chemists that prescriptions for Syr. Hypo. C. Fellows are daily on the increase. We are respectfully, EVANS, MERCER & CO.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition, the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times, and does not require that the horse be kept from work. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hurd & Co., is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

THE GREAT POPULARITY OF DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALISAYA is owing to its perfect reliability in building up constitutions run down with diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, which arise from Dyspepsia or Feeble Digestion, and result in poor blood and breaking down of the general health. It effectually relieves pain or a sense of fullness in the Stomach after eating, Heart burn, Flatulency, Constipation from torpid liver, Bilious Headaches, Irritation of the Kidneys and bladder from the red deposit in the Urine, irritability and restlessness followed by nervous prostration and general debility which inevitably arise from the one common cause—Dyspepsia or feeble Digestion. All those delicate constitutions that lack energy and vitality, and are unable to arouse themselves to any exertion or undergo any fatigue, will be astonished at the rapidity with which the whole system is raised out of this prostrate condition and energized and vitalized under the use of this preparation.
