He referred to several instances, including Sheriff l'owell, of Carleton, and Mr. Mc-Lellan, School Inspector for Ontarie. Hon. E. B. Word, in reply, referred to the interference of the Dominion efficials in the Unitario elections notably to the case of the postmasters of Kingston and N agara. He contended that such abuses of official authority were fir more glaring on the part of the Dominion than of Ontario officials.

Mr. A. W. Lander alluded at length to the Pro o coutrage. He said that land valuators of Wellington, Grey and Brice had used their influence in the elections, and the power of those efficials was far greater than that of custem house or post office officials. Mr. Jackson was defeated in Grey, and Mr. Higginbotham was elected in North Wellington, chiefly through the influence of the land valu-ators.
