Under this title the London Morning Post gives insertion to the following

Szn,-I wish to call your attention to an extraordinary fact which is beginning to attract attention at the Service Clubs, and is naturally denounced on all hands as reflecting the greatest discredit on those whe are responsible for it. It is that the militia of the whole Dominion of Canada, constituting the entire military forces the Provinces of Quebec, Ontario, New Brunswick, Neva Scotis, and British Columbia, are omitted from the list of local or auxiliary forces of the empire in our army list (it being the rule, which i. observed in every other case, that the local corces of the celenies should be inser et. This has been whispered about and fierly commented on for some time pat. and has been by many classed with such notorious and discreditable incidents as that of the Canadian Militia being charged by the Home Government for the use of and damage to the rifles which were lent them to repel the Fenian invasion, and with others of a similar kind, as indicating a settled intention to regard Canada as a Where the keen Winter's slave silvef webs foreign country. But the circumstance which has new brought into prominence Where the bleak, bitter blast sweeps o'er and made it the talk of the clubs is the by the rules of the various Service (1 da. officers who are not mentioned in the Army List are not eligible for the honorary membership of these clubs, and that a distinguished Canadian offi er who has just arrived finds himself thus excluded from them. This officer is Lieutenant-Colonel Denison, who is the author of a standard work on modern cavalry, Our president, the Duke of Manchester, who, as a cavalry efficer and the commander of a volunteer regiment of cavalry, knows how much the service is indebted to Colonel Denison, has received him with marked attention, and will undeubtedly do all in his power to procure a proper recognition of him; but meanwhile he is thus excluded from the clubs, which appear to be powerless in the matter, and prop tanto from the society of his brother officers, very many of whom wish to make his acquaintance.
