The Danger of Railway Rings.

(London Advertiser.)

The startling facts brought to light in the United States in connection with the "Credit Mobilier" scandal show the necessity of keeping politics and railways as far as pessible apart. It is to be heped the lessen will not be lost on Canada. There are not wanting indications of a desire on the part of Sir John A. Macdonald and his followers to rule this country by means of railway rings. The mest conspicuous recent example, course, is the Pacific Railway Ring. This an undertaking which, if ever built, must be built by very extensive tax levies drawn from the pockets of both political parties. As usual, the Reformers of Outario will have chiefly to bear the brunt of the expense. Yet look at the Board of Directors recently announced. Not a Reormer among them. It is a purely Tory ring, formed for purposes of public plan der and political corruption. ACCIDENT AT MONTERAL -On Saturday evening a young gentleman named Anderson, while out with a party toboganing, received very serious injuries. The tobogan while decending a steep, hill at a fearful speed, departed slightly from its course, struck a mound of ice and threw Anderson some twenty feet into the air. Falling on his back, it was broken in four places. Two others, named Walter Colquhoun and John Brown, who were with Anderson at the time, were also hadly injured. Colquhoun was thrown some distance, severely injuring his arm and body. Anderson lies in the hospital in a helpless condition. His body from the waist downwards is paralyzed.
