HOW MURDERERS DIE.

TWO EXECUTIONS OUT WEST. Chicago, March 15. - George Driver, who killed his wife by shooting her with a pistol borrowed from his son, was executed in the County Jail this afternoon. Last night was spent mainly in prayer, his attending physician being of Presbyterian faith. This morning a Jesuit Father visited him, but he declined to follow his advice. He said that he was once another murderer who is confined in the jail under sentence of death. Driver spoke with him long and earnestly, advising him to make peace with Heaven. Bafferty laughed at him. The children of the deemed man acted unfeelingly and strangely. They talked and laughed with 21st. strangers as if at a levee. Driver was taken from the cell where he was praying and brought to the seaffold, which he mounted firmly and without hesitation.

He ing while attempting to protect two ladies Two Weeks Only at Auction had the name of the 'h indsome traveller' from the insults of a drunken ruffian. Mr. Putnam before he died made an ante-mortem statement, in which he narrated the circumstances of the assault, and recognized William Foster as the person who committed the cowardly attack upon him. the facts of the case, as published at the time, were as follows: At eleven o'clock on Wednesday night Mr. Putnam, a merchant doing business at No. 68 Pearl street, accompanied by Mme. Duval. modiste of No. 762 Broadway, and her way and Seventh avenue line, to ride up town. Mr. Putnam and the ladies took seats in the forward part of the car, and at Sixteenth street Foster, an ex conductor of the road, got on the front platform.
