Two Spendthrift Dukes,

The correspondent of the Boston Post, in commenting on London's dissipated noblemen, says : "Let me tell you that Newcastle and Hamilton are cousins, and that in the blood which united them, there seems to be a streak of reckless and extravagant passion. The late. Duke Hamilton, son of the so-called 'Proud ard and roue. His sister, the Lady Susan Hamilton, who married the late Duke of New castle, and was the mother of the present ruined Duke, was divorced from her years.
