Poisoning in Austria.

A remarkable case of poisoning has re-Vienna. It appears that some years ago a young girl, Cecilia Gast, and a sword attached to each other. The parents the girl, finding their entreaties were o no avail to break off the intimacy, resolved sifted and objected, but was finally com-Otto. But the intimacy with her ola lover was still kept up. At length Cecilia instituted proceedings for a divorce, but as that is a slow process quicker and simpler to put the husband out of the way by poisoning him. Cecilia procured two ounces of poisonous lye er phiogiston, with which she sensoned her nusband's food. She put it in the soup, the vegetables, the brandy, and in a meat pic. Notwithstanding a constitea and wine at first, but as this did not have any effect, a large quantity was given | most moderare terms. in a powder. Otto's system was deranged Early in the day the lover appeared, exsurprised, and beat a hasty retreat. After 'he had left Otto asked his wife what Schatzinger was coming there for at such an unusual hour.
