TRADE UNION OUTRAGE. - A trade outrage of a bad type was committed in the brickcroft of Messrs. Gorton, near Man-The croft, which was worked by non-unionists, contained a great number of wet bricks, and 40,000 were destroyed Office, Kingston by trampling. In the kilns several cans filled with gunpowder were found. Had the kilns been lighted before the discovery was made, the consequent destruction of life and property must have been very serious. Three members of the brickmakers' union were brought up on suspicion of being implicated in the outrage, and were remanded. The Superintendent of Police called attention to the discovery of the gunpowder. One of the cans were near the kiln which was almost red hot, and water had to be thrown upon it to prevent an immediate explosion. Num- Government bers of children were playing about.

GIRLS TAKE HEED. - The Rev. Father Damen, of Chicago, is a very sensible and outspoken divine. He has been talking to the girls, and talking to them plainly. He says that paint and powder on the cheeks are a sign of barrenness within. BOUGHT for CASH Much paint, no brains. He says further that they should eschew dime nevels, and cultivate the cook-book, and raise their AST OFF CLOTHING, Second-hand mothers to a level with themselves by | Goods, Furniture, &c., bought for cash sharing their work in the kitchen, and at the Store of permitting them to share their leisure in the parlor. Moreover, he says they must not tell any more "fibs" even as they hope for heaven. All this is very good and 34 Brock Street, next door to G. Offord's very wholesome advice.
