----COUNTY ORANGE LODGE. - The semiannual meeting of the County Orange the Orange Hall on Tuesday afternoon, Bro. Charles Livingston, W.M., in the chair, the object of which was to make arrangements for the celebration of the forthcoming anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. After considerable discussion it was finally resolved to have the annual procession in Kingston, and committees were struck to make necessary artange-

SAD DROWNING. -- Last evening at e'clock, a little toy six years of age, the Ruttan & Baillie. only son of Mr. D. Hagarty, grocer, of Ontario Street, left his home and wandered a block off to the foot of Johnson Street. There he played on the railway esplanade and fell by accident into the water close to the freight depot. No one the accident, and he drowned. About twenty minutes after he was missed, and his sister, after searching, found his hat floating on the water. The alarm was given, and Capt. Crowley, who CRANBERRIES, CRANBERRIES lives near by, at once searched for and grappled the body. Not a minute was occupied in the act, but life was found to JUST be extinct. The family have every sympathy from their friends in this sudden This afternoon the funeral took

The floors of their warehouses at Napanee are covered with finished work, and yet the firm have no expectation of having any left when the harvest is at its height. A business like that is worth having, and we are jealous.

KINGSTONIANS ABROAD. - The success of young Kingston merchants atroad is proverbial. Perhaps it is because the A Cup of Tea, will do well to call at good, quiet-going old city affords less fashionable dissipation and more genuine Scott & Dalton's, industry than places of faster growth and habits and more rapid in money-getting; and get a Sample, as we have just received at any rate, Kingston business men suc- a consignment of the finest ever imported cood both at home and abroad, and fail- into the city, comprising ures among them are a rarity.
