CIVIC HOLIDAY, -- Lindsay is to have its civic holiday on the 1st of August. Cobourg is to have a civic holiday on Wed-When nesday, the 6th of August. Kingston to have its civic holiday ? should have one soon.

THE EXCURSION TO OGDENSBURG. -- This morning the steamer Rechester left for Ogdensburg, loaded down to her guards almost with excursionists, patrons of the | Hali,-$1.25. Y. M.S.B.A. Society, on its annual trip. Scott's new Band was there, Man. and the people seemed happy, as well they might be over escaping from town on such s hot day.

THE LATE MR. DONALDSON. - Pittsburg lost one of its oldest residents and most respected farmers in the demise of Mr. Robt. Donaldson, which we announced on Saturday. He has been long ill, and received in his infliction the heart-felt sympathies of his neighbors, who now deeply mourn his death. To-day his funeral was largely attended.

BASE BALL. -The Base Ball Club of Cobourg will be here on the Royal Mail Steamer to morrow morning to play our St. Lawrence Club, in the afternoon at 1:30. They will stop at the American BLACK CROS CRAIN SILKS, Hotel. The match is expected to be a good one, for Kingston will do its level best to keep the championship right here. The Cobourgs were lately beaten by the Guelph Maple Leafs.

BANDS. - The Belleville Ontario does not want to detract from the honors attained by the Kingston Garrison Band at Large Variety, Cheap. Alexandria Bay; but should like to see the 15th Belleville A. L. I. Band matchagainst them. So should we, but it would make the 15th feel badly when it is over. The Ontario staff should just hear the Battery Band toot.

WHILE the other Bands at Alexandria Bay, as well as the people, fully conceded the prize to the Kingston Battery Band on its merits, without a shadow of doubt, the Oswego Band is small enough to let the following appear in the Times of that city. Fie :-"The 48th think the judges felt bound to give the $100 to a Canadian Band and did so irrespective of merit." POST OFFICE NOTICE. - Perhaps most people are not, and perhaps they are aware | TNGRAVINGS, hat when they post two papers together under one cover with only a two cent stamp, they rarely ever' reach their destination. As many as 500 papers per
