THE LAUNCH OF THE ACACIA. To the Editor of the BRITISH WHIG SIR, - Some time ago I told you it was Smith's Falls, it having been announced PLAIN and COLORED, consisting of Reschooner Acacia would take place on Tuesday, the 5th July. Notice was given that the Brockville and Ottawa and C. C. Railroad would run excursion trains from all points on their lines at half fare. The crowd began to collect about ten o'clock, and at half-past 2 p.m., the time appointed for the launch, the number had increased to nearly five thousand. At two o'clock Just at this time the Councillors of Smith's Falls, with their Reeve, H. Gould, Esq., at their head, stepped on board, and presented the owners with a beautiful flag, accompanied by a neat and congratulatory address, which was appropriately replied to by Mr. A. Ayerst. The flag was then hoisted with three hearty cheers from the STRUCK. - The Cross over Light house, sketch the more prominent features of my immense number of spectators, the band a few miles above Brockville, was struck journey in a series of letters, and try to playing "Rule Brittania."
