A charge of selling liquor was next preferred and the case is Tony Butler.

A LIBRE. - The London Base Ball Club Farm Ballads. was so badly beaten here that the players have no policy but to vent the following throughout the country, and if the charges made against them prove true, no respectable club will consent to have anything do with them." This is a fool libel club that is respectable, and gave Londo as fair and friendly a game, on very short notice, as it could wish. If that is London style of returning a compliment, by all moshs let the Tecumelia stay west. Kingston olub bas made friends this year with hosts of clubs, and has offers for matches here at least twice a week more than it can accept. But it is too many for
