The scene at the opening to-day was remarkable, nearly all | filled with the most distinguished men of France. Besides those previously reported, M. Favre and Regniere were in attendance. The calling of their names as witnesses caused a sensation. Basaine appeared in full uniform of Marshal of France, with ribbon and grand cross of legion of honor on his breast. He took his seat in an armchair by the side of his a counsel, and was courteously addressed by the President of the Court as Monsieur Le Marshall throughout the proceedings. The defence is conducted by M. M. Lachaud & Son, eminent advocates, and Col. Villette. The attendance of spectators was not large and space reserved, and was at no time completely occupied. is expected that the next ten days will be , devoted to the reading of papers connect el with the indictment.
