 The New Cabinet,

With the addition of Mr. Scott, of Ottawa, the Ministry will comprise men every creed and nationality. It may be noticed that Ontario, notwithstanding the prejudicos which it has been endeavoning to excite against her Liberal party, has sacrificed one seat in the Cabinet in order to afford a more complete representation to the Maritime Provinces, who now hold five seats instead of four which they I eld the late Cabinet. This is a very large exaces of their quata in proportion -Dr. Van Cortlandt is anxious to be their population, but the pacrifice has been made very cheerfully. Even asiath important place would have been at their Dout up in this city at the undermendisposition for an entinent New Brunswick member had he felt himself at liberty to accept it.
