TELEGRAPHIC.

PORT COLBORNE.

Per Montreal Line. Arrived to-day-Schr. Trumpff, from Milwaukee with wheat for Oswego. The following vessels are laid up: Schrs Pandora, light; Union Jack, light; N.C. West, light; M.R. Goffe, light; T.H. Horland, coal for Chicago; Columbian, light; An-Saxon, Salt for Toledo; Prop. Antelope and barges Ketchum and Bolton, evening. light; Schrs. Nashua, wheat for Oswego; H. A. Richmond, coal for Toronto. The ing on Friday evening. weather the last two days has been very suft, and if it continues so to-night the evening. down vessels here will make a start to get through the canal. The Prop. Granite State is in the canal coming up. Wind S.W., and rain.

NEWBURG.

Doings of the Storm-A Megular Rearer.

Per Montreal Line.

five minutes.

reports as follows: Telegraph wires pros- reasonable appear the forebodings in which | Chronicle and News. And so say 1; but trated in all directions by the storm. No | we indulged, and the more exigent the net exactly in the same vein. We had pr. ss despatches in consequence.

was not so short as was reported. ---- out, to our regret.

CUSTOMS IMPORTS-IN BOND.

GTR, Terento.-1 cs, C Mee & Ce. 2 bls. 3 cses, Macnee and Waddell; 11

Rubertson & Son.

G T R, Prescott. - 10 trunks, E Rose. G T R, Montreal. -10 bxs tobacco, Browne & Co; 1 cs guns, J Muckleston d

How Rich Men Began Life.

$100 he could call his own. fortune at something like $10,000,000.

success in a little dingy shop on Broadway

parare valued at from twenty-five to thirty which their widowed mother made, at a scrument of which he was himself a mem- when he wrote his prize essay, in a very

Horace B. Claffin, the eminent dry It was an insult, under such circumstances, goods merchant, worth, it is estimated, to the people of Ontario to put Mr. Crawthe world with nothin but energy, determination and hope. with an old pirogue, running between Governor a member of a Ministry driven taten Island and New York, and carrying $3,000 steadily increased until he ac- with the fresh odor of that disgrace. And

York for Glasgow on September 26th, and be difficult to agree upon ; but such diffi- tent. ber. She had only a few passengers, but

R. Beaupre. CRAWFORD. There remains election by THE LIVELIEST TIME ON RECC

REMINDERS.

ALMA MATER SOCIETY. - Annual meet-

TEMPERANCE SOCIAL in Colinsby this

"Opifer per Orbem Dicor."

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 4, 1873.

OUR LIEUTENANT-COVERNORS. We have frequently endeavored to N wburg, Dec. 4 .- A terrible tornade. | trous results likely to follow after the ap- Island. Thirty-five persons were present A 8:30 a.m. this vicinity was visited by a pointments of our Lieutenant Governors including men and boys." It could not farful storm of wind and rain; twelve for a limited term of years; and the have been very influential, for very few of fe t of the roof of D. Hooper's flour mill gloomy prophecies which we reluctantly us heard of it; and Mr. C. was not preson one side was blown off. His lumber felt it our duty to make subsequent ev- ent nor intended to be. Still, the "repile were scaled like lath or chips and ents have only too fully verified. We porter" states, on his own authority, blown into the river. The roof of E. claimed that, in order; that the dignity "Matters looked blue for the renegade." John Black's shed was unroofed; Wil- that the very best class of our public He adds, as a commentary of his own, ham Eaken's stone cabinet shop was un- men might honnorably aspire to fill it, the "That was the reason, doubtless, for adrunfed; the smoke stack of Messra. Rook. five years tenure would have to be aband- journing to Cousins' tavern, so that by id se & Thompson's paper mill was bent ed, for competent men could not readily pouring spirits down they might keep completely double: Miles Caton's lumber be induced to leave active life to assume their spirits up." Would the young sprig yard was desperately scattered; the roof so temporary a dignity, and the necessary of Conservatism (by-the-bye a late imporof Thomas Scott's stone shop was raised consequence would be that the gubernat- tation from New York) tell me, has he four or five inches; the roof of the paper | ional office would become the prey of cor- never imbibed at that same bar? Does he mill was raised so a man could have pass- rupt politicians and Party intriguers. not like the fiquor which Mr. Cousins dised under, so says one of the men working There is but one step from the penses? Does his brother not do so likeup stairs; the top of the cupola of the corrupt procurement of effice to wise! Would he not like to take a smile W. M. Church was blown from its posi- the corrupt prostitution of its du- with our genial landlerd of the "Maskstion and landed in the middle of the pasties, which we seem, from recent man's Hotel" as often as he visits our isoto age, front yard; Silvester Madden's experience, to be in a fair way to realize, lated township? T'bet he would.

small barn was raised from its place three | if the needed reform be not instituted. | Another paragraph I see, apparently or four feet, fences, small out-houses, &c. The experience of the 5th November, from the Napanes Standard, styled fourfully demoralized. The surrounding 1873, in the matter of the Lieutenant- | "Turn Coats," and reading thus: "A THE BRITISH WHIO ALMANAC. - This blushing traffick in the highest Canadian was the man who begged of the House not to morrow by the first advertisments offer. | need of preventive measures. One gover- of the Custom Houses, "There was no renor-to-be sits in the House ready to pay turn." Afterwards, in his election cam-

the cows to spare. Perhaps the hay crop throes of dissolution, precipitated by a smaller and beautifully less, resigned, bevote of non-confidence which declared i fore the vote (that would have condemned) to be guilty of the grossest profligacy. He | could be taken. Thornton; 1 bx, J Reyner; 1 bx, J and supply a loud warning to Parliament to be proud, went dead for Hooper, John Braky; 2 bxs, 1 tub, Rees Bros; 1 bx, and people to see that opportunity be not A., and Corruption. S Hi plondheim; I pkg, J Henderson; 1 given for the perpetration of similarly But the honest farmers of Amherst

G TR, Montreal. -10 bxs tobacco. A virtue and self-respect. If the office of Claptrap Cries" and voted square, ("with Gunn & Co; 10 bxs tobacco, J Harty & Lieutenant-Governor is to be a worthy 26 notable exceptions") for the man who Co: 1 cs samples, G Robertson & Son; object of ambition for our public men to speaks but seldom, yet is always listened 60 caddies tobacco, J A Hendry & Bro; strive to deserve, it must not be auctioned to and whe has brought credit and honour caddies tobacco, J Browne & Co; 25 cad- off among corrupt and needy politicians. to the county of Lennox by accepting ofdies tobacco, Fenwick Hendry & Co; 31 It should essentially be an office of dig- fice as Finance Minister under the first bxs, 7 cses tobacco, G Robertson & Son. | nity, and therein should lie its chief at- | 'purely Reform Government since Con- | Near by Mr. T. Donoghue loses the roofs tractiveness, for the political power at federation." All the other Ministers are of a shed and barn, and Mr. Edward GTR, Coaticooks—1 bx haddies, 3 tached to it by the Constitution is so cir- unopposed; Cartwright alone was singled Braddon the roofs of two buildings. nee & Waddell; 25 bdls fish, 200 bxs hex cumscribed as not to make it a tempting out, over whose corpse we had to fight rings, A Gunn & Co; 67 bxs teas, Geo prize for purely political ambition. But, "Our Political Armageddon." Let me by the recent disgraceful appointments ask the Standard and your contemptible the dignity of the office has been sadly contemporary, the Chronicle and News, sullied, and Mr. CRAWFORD and Mr. TIL- how do they like the result ? We in Am-LEY looked upon more with feelings of herst Island are satisfied, in spite of all contempt than of that respect which it | the obstacles thrown in our path. "We should inspire and with which every loyal pelled for R. J. Cartwright four to one. citizen would like to regard it. It was a To the honest, unbought votes of the yeo-Marshal O. Roberts of New York, is cruel prostitution of power for a corrupt | men this is due. At eleven o'clock the the presessor of four or five million dollars, | end by the late government whereby the | contest was virtually decided ; from that and until he was 25 he did not have the people of Ontario and New Brunswick are hour it was only piling up the majority. badly. George Low, at 45, was a common labor- forced to sneer at, instead of respect the If you can find room in your columns for er on the docks, and at present counts his provincial representatives of the Crown; this, it will, I think, be a sufficient answer but no other feeling can reasonably be en- to all the vile paragraphs that have been Atexander 1. Stewart first bought a few | tertained, as the corrupt bargain and sale | circulated in other journals (not to our deluces t auction, and opened his way to by which the offices were secured is too triment but to their ewn confusion) for plain to leave any room for doubt. | weeks past, -and show to Canada that the Danial Drew, in early life, was a cattle | Everybody knows that Mr. CRAWFORD insulated Tewnship of Amherst Island. driver, at the rate of seventy five cents a sold his conscience that he might become though often cut off from communication day, and he has driven himself into an Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. Every- with the outside world, watches keenly body knows that Mr. Tiller was guilty of all political changes, and now more than movert L. and Alexander Stewart, the a crime similar in kind, but aggravated in ever deserves the "high encomium" which worth from five to six millions of dollars | ber, and got his price when under the different strain from that in which I am ban of conviction of a great political crime new addressing you.

ford to rule over them. It was a still graver insult to the peeple of New Bruns-Cornelius Venderbilt commenced life wick to force upon them as Lieutenant arden stuff to market His $2,000 or | in disgrace from office, be still recking The Ismalia left New best mode of reforming this abuse it may so the citizens can draw en it to any exhas not been seen since the 2nd of Octo- culty does not destroy the fact that abuse exists and calls for correction. The first fairly be uned to give a life tenure of eral Clarke.

A Fearful Gale.

Meeting W Corbett. the people, which has its disadvantages; Auction Sale JE Hutcheson. but imperfect as that mode might be, un- Last night it rained and blew hard, but .JG King. impossible. Whatever may be the best tempest in a teapot compared with the For the Holidays Redden & Rowe. system, which we may perhaps consider hurricane of to-day. The squall set in Special Notice Fellow's. on a future occasion, it is glaringly evi- about 8 a.m., and fairly astonished the cecidents. dent that the one which now obtains is of - natives, who were lulled into perfect conten to serious abuse and stands in grave fidence by the amiable change in the St. John's Lodge-Regular meeting need of being surmounted with checks weather, as indicated by the quiet thaw this evening. Election of officers, &c. | which will prevent the independence of and preceding fine winter days. The BOARD OF TRADE - Special meeting this Parliament and the moral sense of the wind was no passing breeze, either, for it People being so rudely assaulted as they kept up at full force all day, reaching its were on the 5th Nov., 1873, when the highest point about 2 p.m. The oldest unholy sale of two governorships was un- inhabitant has been called in for his opinblushingly consummated by a piece of un | ion, and he declares (and there no one to paralleled political rascality.

office to men like Mr. TILLEY and Mr.

the Daily British Whig. Amberst Island and the Election.

DEAR WHIG: - I observe in last week's ly inserted, immediately after a notice of editorial type," stating that Mr. Cartpoint out what seemed to us the dinas- wright had a meeting 'at' (sic) Amherst of the grave yard are literally leveled with Gevernorships, was one of which Canadians large proportion of the inhabitants of the ground. Fuller particulars cannot be should be heartily ashamed. But the Amherst Island are from the north of hul at present. The squall lasted about more flagrant the abuse of Crown patron- Ireland, and if there is any one kind of Gentlemen even went along trimming age in this matter, and the more glaring political men they abominate worse than their bodies to the wind as they would a the corruption of those who sold their po- another, that one is a turn coat." These No Despathces. - The Kingston office litical souls in exchange for it, the more are our sentiments exactly, adds the necessity for such a reform as will make | two kinds of turn coats to contend with the repetition of such scandalous and un- | in this election. The first and greatest Almanac for 1874 will be issued on Satur. dignities impossible for all time to come. to tie his hands by a resolution, when day next. It will be found the best of its | The enormity of that offence against pub- about to preceed to Washington, as he class ever issued in Kingston, and will be lie morals and the dignity of the Crown could never do anything to compromise given to the subscribers for free distribu- was a shocking death-bed attestation of his country, yet he sold our Fisheries, tion to the public. There is a vacancy of the political wickedness, the utter reckless- gave away our Maritime Highway, and two or three of the best pages of advertis- ness, of Sir John MacDonald; and the donated our Femian Claims; and then, as ments (on the cover) which will be filled more shocking the crime, the graver the my old friend, Thomas Flynn, used to say the price of his premised office with a vote paign, the same man solemnly declared CORROBORATE LAST WITNESS' TESTI- in defence of the most venal political "his hands were clean," although his MONY. The Ottawa Citizen declares that crime ever known in this country. This pockets were filled with Hugh Allan's the Hon. Alex. Campbell did not visit the is certainly a disgraceful position for a po- gold. And then, in a full house, called County of Lannox during the late contest | tential governor to stand in, an unholy | God to witness that all Mr. Huntington's with the purpose of canvassing against the price to pay for the honor of representing charges were false, yet swore in his oath Hon. Mr. Cartwright. This, of course, his Sovereign, who was grossly insulted afterwards that he received the money and fully endorses the BRITISH WHIG'S state- by this shameless huckstering for a gover- telegraphed to Hugh Allan "for $10,000 ment on the occasion of the trip referred norship, as well as the people of the pro- more," "do not fail me this time, it will o, that the Hon. Senator was engaged | vince whose representative he sought to be the last call;" and to wind up with a local purchaser in the buying of be. Another governor-to-be actually, as a his ignoble career after debating the subcattle, and had only been moderately suc- | member of the late Government, advised | ject in a full House for two weeks and seeessaful. The "men of Lennox" had not his own appointment while it was in the ing his vaunted majority growing daily

THE (). Y. B. ASSEMBLY. -Our report | defended that profligacy, was conveniently | Our second class turncoats were of a will appear to-morrow; it is crowded blind to its enermity, and when the death different stamp and a very interesting stroke could no longer be averted; re- phase of Canadian history they will preceived a governorship as the price of his sent to the future historian. Every inblindness and defence. Those sales of gov- fluential man in the township, reeves and ernorships furnish an alarming comment- | magistrates, colonels and majors of miliary on the wickedness of our late rules, | tia, old U. E. Loyalists, of whom we used

pkg, A Gunn & Co; 23 bxs and pkgs, Ex- scandalous violations at once of Parlia- Island (though partly hailing from the mentary independence and of national North of Ireland) do not appreciate "Old noted sugar refiners, sold melasses candy degree, for he bargained with the Gov- Dr. Barker paid it many years ago

So may it ever be. A VOICE FROM AMBERST ISLAND.

Dec. 1st., 1873. THE CHINA TEA. HOUSE. - The grecery store which has made the most rapid advance into public favor in Kingston in Messrs. Redden and Rowe's, Their trade insults, our people cannot but regard tive, capable and courteous in their dealyet been heard of the three missing steam- these gentlemen with contempt, and have ings. They have an unsurpassed stock, ers—the Ismalia, Sirius and Pictou. The their natural feeling of loyal respect and make a good and wise display of it in former is undoubtedly lost, the Sirius is for the vice-regal office dethroned our advertising columns to-day. Their now 42 days out, and there is but small by a sentiment of disgust at the base uses Holiday comforts are tempting, and the serious fears are entertained of the safety to which it has been prostituted. The good quality is well flanked by quantity, > RIEL's CASE .-- We learn from the Menigovernors under confederation were, we toba Free Press of the 22nd inst. that a believe, excellent men, on the whole; issued in the Riel case. If Riel does not went ashore in an easy position. She is and did they still hold effice, it might be under this measure come forward for trial, arged that they should be retained there joutlawry, in his case, will be proclaimed ; colding their appointments during good the will then be spet facto convicted and behaviour, as do our judges. This is now immediately upon his arrest. At least put out of the question, for it could not such are the sentiments of Attorney-Gen-

doubt him) that this is the worst storm on men. And people talk of slavery away off when a feller has to go around the back record here, without a reservation of any in Cuba kind, mental or otherwise. It has too, for he was continually telling his chil $10,000. Chronicle and News a paragraph, cunning- dren of a storm they Rad twenty years ago, and declaring that there was a de-Sunday School Teachers' meetings, "in generacy since the time when he was a boy. He now admits that his former storm must take a back seat in the platform of stirring events. Pedestrian locomotion was interfered with, and business was slack. The streets, however, were scenes of many a rich incident, and over the general discomfort which prevaile. there was an element of good humor. one fellow did lose his hat and see with Jones' machine shop is two-thirds gene; of the office should be maintained, and How does he like the deeper blue now! blank despair its ascent skyward, or with the intricate mazes of the mud puddles in the streets, he gave amusement dozen others who were spectators of the scenes, but who all in their turn had to make their acquaintance the poor, and $41,000 on refreshments for with wind and mud, and afford fun for | themselves. the others, including saperhp the last preceding victim. The Danbury Newsman's hint was one worthy of example. He in a case like this carried a spare hat The name of the victim has not yet transalong with him, and let the old one fly pired. away. Many to-day sighed for a spare could catch them." It was a labor for a lady to walk at all, but many a brave like a good deal of work with their fun.

> of incident and excitement BREAKAGE ON SHORE. The streets bear evidence of the violence of the gale. Here and there are the debris of a shutter, or portions of a slate roof, or of board fences. The prostration of board fences is most noticeable at Mr. Duff's, Princess street, at the Bishop's Garden, and Messrs. Ford & Son's vacant lot, on Brock street. Scarce'y a fence has escaped. In the fall of the bill-board on Brock street a nearly fatal accident occurred. Mrs. Lacey was walking past it at the time and was knocked down by the falling mass fortunately she fell outside of the plank-walk, which protected her from the full weight of the tence. She was taken into Mr. Doherty's Tailor Shop, and is likely to be unhurt by the accident. thoroughly disabled. A couple of large windows in the post-office were wrecked by violent crashes. The metereological observatory has suffered considerable damage. A frame house owned by Mr. Wm. P. Minnes, on Princess Street, near the old Tannery, was blown down, and the vagaries of wind are almost innum

The reports from the country are stil more descriptive of damage. The gale farms, barns and fences are mingled with talegraph posts here and there in a common ruin. Near Kingston Mills a child of Mr. David Henry is said

TO HAVE BEEN KILLED, but by what means is not stated. A barn belonging to Mr. Edward Cunningham was prostrated. A number of G.T.R. the squall while working on the track near by. They heard it giving a sign of collapse, and made a hasty retreat, just in time to save their lives. As it was, one man was slightly hurt. The roof of shed was blown off on the same property

ITS EXTENT. The telegraph wires are prostrated far east and west, showing the extent of the gale. It is even more severely felt west Toronto. A Newburg telegram, the only press despatch received to-day, a single wire alone working, tells of great damage there. The report says that a house in the country was unroofed while the tenants were at breakfast. It is certain a large number of dwellings were ventilated

ON THE LAKE. Here was the grandest scene of all. Old Ontario never was in such a fury. The wind caught the white caps and carried them in a coastant cloud of spray over the whole surface of the harbor. It was a majestic sight. The waves made a clean breast over some of the wharves, and more than one was in danger of a new depar- | moved by a strange fancy, steps short and ture. The wind and wave struggled with exclains: the vessels fastening and it was a battle bat; we may continue for days and nights between them. One vessel got away from and not approach a term; we are not wild the railway esplanade, but was secured. beasts, whose rage is insatiable; were i The barque "British Lion" was at an | not better to be brethers? Hear me chor of Garden Island, but about 9 a. m., dragged out into the stream, and went scudding down the river with two men land ! "And let us drink a toast toonly on board. They after some trouble gether." The toast was "A ROLAND FOR hoisted sail and ran the barque before the wind down the stream to a sheltered spot. where they came to anchor. It was feared that she would be stranded. Several other vessels, including the schooner Bismark, dragged from their anchorage, at Garden Island, but brought up again before they reached Wolfe Island Shore.

THE PERRY STEAMERS. any other boat) to return.

The steamer Pierrepont on her trip. from Gananoque was forced to come to before entering port and land her passengers below Cedar Island. She was in Laird has been returned by acclamation great danger for a few moments, and her despite all efforts made to bring out at passengers were somewhat alarmed. To- opposition candidate. agorrow people may look for a column of

THINGS IN GENERAL.

-The best material for a Sing-Sing convict's suit - Tweed.

- Small-pox has appeared in the New York Foundling Hospitol. -Poland has had 37,586 cases of cholera this year, and Prussia 38,624.

tion of mother-in-law to sixteen abject | zation, defines the Sabbath as "the day -Lady Emma, the famous Pendergast |

-The Verment Central line have lost try has of Sir John and his work. on the river and lakes this season four ed in one year before. -It a fight between John Robinson's which was condemned by Father Allan in circus troupe aud a party of Texas desper- his sermon in Notre Pame Cathedral last adoes at Jacksonville, Texas, three men Sunday.

were killed and several seriously wound-

-Shanghai advices report that a Chi- holm, one of the Representatives of Hamnese mission is to be sent to Cuba to ilton, announced his intention, at the St. inquire into the condition of the Coolies | Andrew's Banquet, of supporting the present Government. Mr. Witton, M.P. employed on that Island.

-The city government of Boston are | was non-committal in this remarks. convinced of the truth of the maxim, "Charity begins at home." Last year they spent $4,000 in providing soup for -It is rumored the Opposition intend running some other candidate than Mr. Bickford for West Toronto, notwithstandmg that he was chosen by a convention.

thing was saved from the sunken Pacific erick Folger to Mary, eldest daughter of hat, while they pursued their errant tiles, mail ship, except two quarters of beef; Mr. William Coverdale. and in vain "wished to G-rits they even all the clothing of the passengers and crew was lost. A Court of Enquiry is to be held. -England puts three thousand street Dec. 4th, after a long and painful illness. woman made the attempt, and they rath- boys under training annually. At seven- ALEXIS ADELAIDE, eldest daughter of MR. er seemed to enjoy it. They sometimes ween years of age they commence a ten WM. McFarlane, of the British Whic. years period of service, and at twenty- aged 14 years. seven are free. There are twenty thousand now in the service. - The infants of Wm. Fraser, of Petroship's canvas to the breeze, and it was a lia, were poisoned. Instead of wshing FRIDAY, at two o'clock, to Cataraqui rare constitutional exercise. It was a day ing their mouths with a preparation pre- Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances pared by the doctor, the friends used a are invited to attend. other is alive, with hopes of recovery.

Roland and Oliver.

[As we shall doubtless often prove a Roland for an Oliver, we append here an account of the origin of the famous saying drawn from the "Legendes des Siecles" of

Victor Hugo. The yellow Rhine flows gently to the sea. Clear river noiselessly falling into Lake Leman and bearing its tides to wash the sand of Provence. Two knights stood upon its banks in the | 17 ILL sell by Public Auction his engrey dawn; young, ambitious, rivals in VV tire Stock of Fancy Goods and glory, jealous of each other's fame. Closely Toys, mailed in steel-bright casque, impenetrashield, indomitable courage. Roland and

A boat was rocking at their feet in the The Waterworks windmill wheel is a eddies of the Rhone. "Bateliers!" cried wreck almost, being half carried away and Oliver, and four strong smart peasants issued from their cabins in the neighboring wood, "Row us to yonder island. they stepped in, violently balancing the boat under the weight of their tread. Softly cleaves the keel to the yellow water t the Rhone, and beautiful before them rises the green isle radiant in the morning sunshine. The oarsmen look with suspicton on their mailed passengers and fur tively glance at each other -not daring speak. Who are they ! What do they seek in the island at this early hour? The hoat grates upon the pebbles of the shore. the warriors spring out and in silence advance to a slight eminence overlooking the stream. "What can they mean?" whisper the sailors, as, pushing out a little, they rest upon their oars and watch the myster> ious strangers. Meantime, dews sparkle, flowers blossom, birds sing, breezes play on the island

Silent stand the warriors, gazing at each other through the two apertures of their employees had sought shelter in it from visors gaze with eyes of flame. They draw their magic swords-Oliver, his Closamont; Roland, his Durandal. Had you seen these warriors yesterday, you would have beheld two pages, gentle and rosy as girls, playing among their companions at home. Now, with their visors down, and harnessed in mail, they resemble two spectres of steel. Behold ! They fight body to body-black, silent, obstinate and outraged. They fight so close, with low mutterings, that their warm, rapid breath stains their armor. Foot presses footswords clash -helmets ring -fragments of haubert and falchion bound, at every mument, into the grass or stream. The boatmen, in terror, allow their bark to drift away, and gaze from far upon the scene. The combat continues the whole day and all through the night. The sun rises and sets the second day, and still they fight. Rises and sets the third day, and still they fight. Rises and sets the fourth day, and still they fight. Dews sparkle, birds sing, flowers blossom, breezes play, and in that quiet landscape fearful is the sound of clashing

The sun rises on the fifth day and still Canned they fight. Their casques are indented with blows, their breast plates chequered with sword thrusts, but the impenetrable mail is uninjured. The sun reaches the meridian, pouring his fierce fire on their crests, but they do not desist. The day begins to wane, when suddenly, Oliver

"Roland, we shall never end this comhave a sister, fair Maud, the blue-eyed.

AN OLIVER "The warriors [twain their good fortune And thus the brave Roland espoused the fair Maud." -Montreal Free Lance.

be quite as good a tactician as when he tact when a man has the whole patronage of the Crown and revenue of the country at his disposal to use in purchasing sup-Lemoine's Point yesterday, but this morn- gross blunder. Had he allowed Mr. owned by Mr. O'Brien, of Wolfe Island, by personally coming before the electors to ask them, for his sake, to reject Mi The Maude made a trip over to Cape himself, and that from a Conservative or stern and unequivecal condemnatio Vincent, but it was impossible for her (or tituency. The ex-Premier, out of office is

The Ball on the Roll Still.

ANOTHER VICTORY. - The Hon. Mr.

DRIFT.

-Another steam fire engine, has been purchased for Ottawa. -The Reformers of Glengarry propose to give Hon. D. At. Macdonald a complimentary banquet at an early day. -On December 1st, the Ontario Government took full posession of the Agricultural College and Farm, at Guelph. -A Belleville man, who does not be--An lows matron occupies the posi- long to any regular Temperance organi-

-An Ottawa correspondent says it is rather annoyed the old gentleman H. Vanderbilt. The reported price is supporters by the victory in Lennox. CHRISTMAS Members now see the estimate the coun--French-Canadians at Ottawa, are ex-boats - the greatest loss they ever sustain- cited, over a controversy that has arisen on the question of modern church music,

-A grand amateur pigeon shooting match, for prizes amounting to $1,000. -The Rev. Jas. Stephens, of Marion, The first prize is $300 and a gold medal . Ind., is indignant at being arrested on 2nd, $200; 3rd, $100; and so on down. the charge of stealing a horse, which he There are no less than 105 entries from declares he won at a square game of draw all parts of Canada and United States. KEEP IT ON THE BOUND. - Mr. Chis-> Hoggish. -Stirling has gained the notoriety of raising a hog which weighed 697 lbs; and then, be it understood, had only NEW LAYER RAISINS, reached the age of I year, 11 more and 27 reached the age of 1 year, 11 mos., and 27 days. That's what one might call "hog-

MARRIED.

On the 3rd inst., at the residence of the bride's uncle, by his special request, -Yokokama advices say not a single by the Rev. Andrew Wilson, Mr. Fred-

In this city, on Thursday morning, IN BOXES, MATS, AND CARTOONS.

The funeral will take place from her father's residence, Rideau St., to-morrow,

Save Your Dollars, CANDIED LEMON, ORANGE, R. & J. Gardiner, AND WAIT FOR THE

FANCY GOODS

GREAT AUCTION SALE

M. KIRKPATRICK

ble visor, long lance, broad sword, thick Commencing Saturday Evg., December 13th. And to continue Every Evening until the whole Stock is disposed of.

From this date those wishing a choice should call early. The Stock is new and complete, consisting of a splendid assortment of Concertinas and Violins, Photograph Albums, Satchels, Baskets, Purses Wallets, Pocket-knives all sizes and prices, Watch-stands, luk-stands, China Ornaments of every description, China Cups and Saucers all sizes and prices, China and Glass Vases, a large assortment, all prices, Toilet Sets, Perfume Bottles, Jewel New Crop Teas Boxes, Writing Desks, Work Boxes, Glove, Collar and Handkerchief Boxes, Ladies' Companions, Whitewood and Tartan Goods, Ladies' Card Cases, Pearl and Tertoise-shell Bread-boards and Knives, Silver-plated Butter-knives, Penholders and Pencila, Brushes of all kinds, Lookingglasses, a nice lot of Walnut Hat Racks, Carved Walnut Brackets, Wall Pockets. Book Shelves, &c., Billiards, Bagatelle Boards, Checker Boards, Dominoes, Dice. Parlor Croquet, a large assortment of Rocking Horses, Drums, Hot-air Toys, Mechanical Toys, and Tuys of every dessertment of Jewelry, Lockets, Chains, Bright Yellow Bracelets, and Finger Rings. Dolls, wax and china, all sizes and prices. Children's Sets Dishes, (a tine assortment,) Furni- Dry Crushed ture, &c., and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention. As I intend to give up the Fancy Goods business entirely, the public may expect great Bargains.

M. KIRKPATRICK,

Princess Street.

J. E. HUTCHESON, Auctioneer. Dec. 4th, 1873.

RECEIVED DAILY.

BULK

Uysters PRIME LABRADOR HERRINGS,

'STAR' GROCERY, Joseph Donnelly

172 Princess Street.

Kingston, Dec. 4, 1873.

BSOLUTE DIVORCES OBTAINED sertion, &c. No publicity required. No charge until divorce granted. Address M. HOUSE, Attorney,

A LARGE ASSORTMENT of Hairbrushes, Too'h Brushes, Nail Brushes, Shaving Brushes, [Infants' Hair Brushes, Combs, Circular Combs, Pocket Combs Mirrors, &c., &c.

PREPARED

-FOR-

-AND-

NEW YEAR'S Fancy Silks and Satins. STOCK

JUST RECEIVED

Redden & Rowe.

New Valentia Raisins, New Sultana Kaisins,

Seedless Paisins.

Sicily Filberts,

AND CITRON PEEL.

DUFF GORDON'S

HUNT'S & SANDEMAN'S

Canned Pears,

REDDEN & ROWE.

Canned Peaches,

GREEN AND BLACK.

Choice Cuba Sugar

and Amber Syrups.

PORT WINES!

Canned Strawberries,

Canned Cherries,

TIEW SEASON'S

TEA A SPECIALITY

Refined Sugar,

and Ground Sugar.

COFFEES & SPICES

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS.

FINNAN HADDIES,

BRIGHT LARGE CODFISH.

Selected Scaled Herrings.

Golden, Silver Drip,

OYSTERS,

Canned Plums,

Tarragona Almonds.

Brazil Nuts.

Sales for Ready Money only. Walnuts.

Carpets.

Kingston, Nov. 26, 1873. Card of Thanks.

THE SUBSCRIBER, in retiring from the proprietorship of Beaupre's Hotel, returns his most sincere thanks to all his tinued and generous support; and having

Canned Vegetables. ner. Having opened a GROCERY STORE in the Market Square, the subscriber

R. BEAUPRE.

Kingston, Dec. 4th, 1873.

Market Square,

R. BEAUPRE

TTAS OPENED A NEW GROCERY Store in the Anchor Buildings, Market Square, Kingston, and filled it with a lity, and to be sold as

FRESH OYSTERS kept constant-

SURRENDER

194 Broadway, N.Y GENERAL GROCERIES COMPLETE ASSURTMENT IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

China Tea House.

R. & J. CARDINER

RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE THE opening of large quantities of

NEW GOODS

for the approaching Winter Seasen. All the Departments are now tully assorted. Inspection of each buyers solicited:

Fancy Coloured Silks.

All the Newest Shades.

BLACK SILKS.

Irish Poplins. From the most celebrated makers in

In all the desirable Shades, cut on the Black and Coloured Velveteens. In a great variety of New Colours. . DRESS GOODS

French Merinos, Empress Cloths, Diagonal Cords, Satin Cloths, Serges, with a large assortment of Dress Materials suited for every description of wear. Silk Mantle Velvets.

Real Lyons make, superior value. Laces, Ribbons, Flowers & Feathers The Newest Goods showing.

Trimmings, Fringes & Ornaments. A Special Department with us. Shawls and Mantle Cloths.

Clan Tartans, Handsome Lace Stawls. Also a large assetiment of Beavers, Astracans and Seal Skins for Jackets. Blankets and Flannels.

French Paisley Shawls, Ottoman Stripes,

House Furnishing Goods. Sheetings, Tickings, Table Linens. Towellings, Horrocks' Cottons, Lace Curtains, Table Napkins; also a very large assortment of Tapestry, B.ussels and Wool

A Large Stock at Low Prices.

BUT ONE PRICE MADE.

PRINCESS STREET.

CURRANTS! SHERRIES. customers and friends for their long cun-> leased the Hutel to Mrs. Aston, com mends her to their favor, as she will conduct it, as heretofore, in the best man-his new line. He will use his best endeavors to satisfy them in every respect.

GROCERY

IN THE

WINES and LIQUORS.

WELL ASSORTED, and excellent in qua-CHEAP as the CHEAPEST in the City. We mean what we say, and our patrons will always find us ready to turnish them with the very best in our line. THE NEW STORE will be the place to buy Christmas Groceries; the Stock not

R. BEAUPRE. Dec. 4, 1873.

MEETING of the Masters and members of the City Lodges will be held in the Orange Hall on SATURDAY evening Important business will be brought be-

Sec. to Committee. Dec. 4th, 1873.

A ter Society for the purpose of electing will be held in the classical class room, or FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 5th. A full attendance of the members is requested The meeting will open at Seven o'clock

GEO. GILLIES Becretary Dec. 2nd, 1873.