POST-OFFICE CUIDE

Maiurday, January 22, 1876. CITY AND VICINITY

TEMPERANCE .- Dr. Jarvis will occupy | e platform at the Sons of Temperance Hall to-morrow afternoon.

ANOTHER REST. - The bobbies still resting, indolent yet anxious, at the station. The Court calendar was a com plete blank.

THE ICE .- The ice bridge to-day is much stronger-it is gaining by the present temperature. Hay was brought over from Wolfe Island-a good indica tion of its strength.

Passen. - The Bill granting a charter to the Kingston Street Railway Company "double" relating to the track,

IMPROVING .- The Rev. John T. Clark has greatly improved in health, and reason is restored again. The Napanee Express received a letter from him, and though still detained in the Rockwood Insane Asylum, near Kingston, he writes as rationally as ever.

PERTINENT .- The Napanee Beaver solemnly announces that "France is January; one of the cheapest and best the midst of politics." There is nothing fashion books, &c., &c. peculiar in that. Napance may be an exceptional place, but generally speaking Bookstore, the world is an unceasing turmoil
